- 6.2 The rights and benefits conferred upon the Beneficiary by this Deed are in addition to any other rights or remedies the Beneficiary may have against the Consultant including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing any remedies in tort.
- 6.3 The Consultant shall have no greater duty or obligation to the Beneficiary under this Deed than the Consultant would have if the Beneficiary had been party to the Appointment as joint employer.
- 6.4 The Consultant shall be entitled in any action or proceedings brought by the Beneficiary under this Deed to rely on any limitation in the Appointment and to raise equivalent rights in defence of liability (but excluding set-off and counterclaim) as it would have had if the Beneficiary had been a party to the Appointment as joint employer.

7. INDEPENDENT ENQUIRY

The responsibility of the Consultant shall not be diminished or in any way relinquished by any independent inspection, investigation or enquiry by or on behalf of the Beneficiary notwithstanding that such independent inspection, investigation or enquiry may give rise to a claim by the Beneficiary against any third party provided always that in the event of a claim against the Consultant, the Consultant's right to a contribution (whether in equity, common law or pursuant to statute) shall not be affected by this Clause.
