II.1.4) Short description

Eden Housing Association is a small independent Registered Provider of affordable homes with a rural focus. Eden Housing Association predominantly operates across North Cumbria and owns and manages approximately 2000 homes and acts as a Managing Agent for Mitre Housing Association and Lyvennet Community Trust. The homes for which the organisation is responsible mostly cater for general family needs with approximately 10% of the properties specifically designed for older people. It also includes 2 extra care schemes and a number of assisted living schemes across Eden. Residents are central to Eden Housing Association's purpose and its priorities.

Eden Housing Association wishes to procure and enter into two (2) contracts for the completion of responsive repairs to occupied properties, and repairs of a responsive nature to unoccupied (void properties). The procurement is divided in to two Lots and the Lots are based upon the geography and the nature of the properties. The Lots into which this procurement is divided are as follows -

Lot 1 - Responsive repairs for occupied and void properties, excluding those listed properties located in Lowther Village and Askham

Lot 2 - Responsive repairs for occupied and void listed properties within Lowther Village and Askham only

Bidders are permitted to tender for one or both Lots.
