- 15.6 If the Authority, acting reasonably, has good cause to believe that there has been a material deterioration in the financial circumstances of the Supplier and/or any third party guaranteeing the obligations of the Supplier under this Contract and/or any material Sub-contractor of the Supplier when compared to any information provided to and/or assessed by the Authority as part of any procurement process or other due diligence leading to the award of this Contract to the Supplier or the entering into a Sub-contract by the Supplier, the following process shall apply:
- 15.6.1 the Authority may (but shall not be obliged to) give notice to the Supplier requesting adequate financial or other security and/or assurances for due performance of its material obligations under this Contract on such reasonable and proportionate terms as the Authority may require within a reasonable time period as specified in such notice;
 - 15.6.2 a failure or refusal by the Supplier to provide the financial or other security and/or assurances requested in accordance with Clause 15.6 of this Schedule 2 in accordance with any reasonable timescales specified in any such notice issued by the Authority shall be deemed a breach of this Contract by the Supplier and shall be referred to and resolved in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure; and

- 15.6.3 a failure to resolve such breach in accordance with such Dispute Resolution Procedure by the end of the escalation stage of such process shall entitle, but shall not compel, the Authority to terminate this Contract in accordance with Clause 15.4.1 of this Schedule 2.

In order that the Authority may act reasonably in exercising its discretion in accordance with Clause 15.6 of this Schedule 2, the Supplier shall provide the Authority with such reasonable and proportionate up-to-date financial or other information relating to the Supplier or any relevant third party entity upon request.

- 15.7 The Authority may terminate this Contract by issuing a Termination Notice to the Supplier where:

15.7.1 the Contract has been substantially amended to the extent that the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 require a new procurement procedure;

15.7.2 the Authority has become aware that the Supplier should have been excluded under Regulation 57(1) or (2) of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 from the procurement procedure leading to the award of this Contract; or 15.7.3 there has been a failure by the Supplier and/or one its Sub-contractors to comply with legal obligations in the fields of environmental, social or labour Law. Where the failure to comply with legal obligations in the fields of environmental, social or labour Law is a failure by one of the Supplier's Sub-contractors, the Authority may request the replacement of such Sub-contractor and the Supplier shall comply with such request as an alternative to the Authority terminating this Contract under this Clause 15.7.3 of this Schedule 2.

- 15.8 If the Authority novates this Contract to any body that is not a Contracting Authority, from the effective date of such novation, the rights of the Authority to terminate this Contract in accordance with Clause 15.5.2 to Clause 15.5.4 of this Schedule 2 shall be deemed mutual termination rights and the Supplier may terminate this Contract by issuing a Termination Notice to the entity assuming the position of the Authority if any of the circumstances referred to in such Clauses apply to the entity assuming the position of the Authority.

- 15.9 Within three (3) months of the Commencement Date the Supplier shall develop and agree an exit plan with the Authority consistent with the Exit Requirements, which shall ensure continuity of the Services on expiry or earlier termination of this Contract. The Supplier shall provide the Authority with the first draft of an exit plan within one (1) month of the Commencement Date. ITT - Specification

Prepared by: NHS England

1. Introduction

Most people find that having children can be a very positive experience, but the perinatal period (during pregnancy and the first 24 months after birth) can also be intensely stressful. Mental health issues are not uncommon during this time, whether they are new symptoms or the exacerbation of a pre-existing mental health condition/s.

Perinatal mental health issues can be brought on by many things, such as the experience of a traumatic pregnancy and childbirth, history of mental health problems or lack of support, and it can sometimes go under the radar because of feelings of shame, embarrassment and fear of the consequences. There is support available across the country from a range of services including NHS Talking Therapies for Anxiety and Depression, specialist perinatal mental health teams or, for the most severe illness, inpatient mother and baby units. To enable access to these services it is vital that early signs of mental health difficulties are recognised, especially by a midwife, health visitor or GP.

In the UK, estimates indicate that up to 27% of women develop a mental illness during pregnancy or within the first year after having a baby¹, with up to five per cent experiencing a serious psychiatric disorder, and, in some cases mental health problems that are experienced during this period can be the cause of maternal death².

Whilst some perinatal mental health issues are mild and transient, some are so severe and life threatening that they require immediate intervention and specialist treatment, which is usually accessed in specialist perinatal mental health services (through community services or inpatient mother and baby units).

NHS England is leading a programme of transformation to improve the care and support available to women who experience moderate to severe mental health during the perinatal period by enabling access to evidence-based specialist support.

As of March 2019, every NHS Integrated Care Systems (ICS) in the country has an operational specialist community perinatal mental health service for women experiencing moderate/severe complex mental health issues in the perinatal period. In 2019/20 they reported seeing over 30,000 women.

Whilst there has been significant progress in a short space of time to increase the provision of evidence-based specialist mental health care for women in the perinatal period, there is still further work to do. This is recognised in the NHS Long Term Plan (LTP) published in July 2019, in which NHS England commits to further increasing access to specialist perinatal mental health services. By 2023/24, at least 66,000 women with moderate severe/complex perinatal mental health difficulties will have access to specialist community care from pre-conception to 24 months.

The LTP commits to delivering this increase by:

- Expanding evidence-based psychological therapies within specialist perinatal mental health services. Increased psychological provision should include a broad range of therapies including parent-infant, couple, co-parenting and family interventions to support a whole family approach.
- Establishing Maternal Mental Health services (MMHS) across the country by 2023/24, combining maternity, reproductive health and psychological therapy for women experiencing mental health difficulties directly arising from, or related to, the maternity experience
- Extending the availability of care from specialist community teams from preconception to 24 months after birth (care is currently provided from preconception to 24 months after birth). This extended period of care is expected to better support women during what can be a turbulent time and lead to improved outcomes for mother, baby and family.

Although NHS England perinatal health funding is targeted at specialist perinatal mental health services, it is recognised that the whole of the health and care system must work together to support an environment where healthy women are enabled to raise healthy children. Health and social care workers who work with women in the perinatal period, their families and loved ones are drawn from a wide variety of existing care professions and roles, and work in NHS settings, but also within private, independent, and voluntary providers. Their development of specialist skills is consolidated post-registration, and often through vocational routes.

NHS England have committed to this work by increasing workforce capacity and capability in specialist perinatal mental healthcare and ensuring the wider workforce across the care pathway has access to the right knowledge and skills in perinatal mental healthcare enabling them to deliver the appropriate care, support and treatment for patients. Caring for this vulnerable population and their family requires a complex suite of skills, knowledge and abilities, spanning the entire care pathway and includes developing those staff already in role and educating the next generation of healthcare professionals in the field.

2. Background

NHS England (NHS E) is an executive non-departmental public body of the Department of Health and Social Care. It exists for one reason only: to support the delivery of excellent healthcare and health improvement to the patients and public of England by ensuring that the workforce of today and tomorrow has the right numbers, skills, values and behaviours, at the right time and in the right place. The role, priorities and governance structure of HEE are described on the HEE's website at: www.hee.nhs.uk/

The HEE national Mental Health programme's work and delivery is mandated by:

- Stepping Forward to 2021: the Mental Health Workforce Plan for England , which sets out a high-level road map to deliver the ambitions set out in the The Five Year Forward View for Mental Health Five Year Forward View for Mental Health
- The NHS Long Term Plan \(2019\) and the more recent Mental Health Implementation Plan 2019/20 – 2023/24

The NHS LTP commits to increasing access to evidence-based specialist care for 66,000 women in the perinatal period who present with moderate to severe or complex mental health needs and who may also have problems in their relationship with their infant(s) by 2023/24.

To meet this commitment, specialist community PMH services will see women with moderate to severe or complex PMH needs and their infants where there is a problem in the relationship, where the first-line NICE-recommended treatments include psychological interventions, either alone or in combination with medication.

In addition, Maternal Mental Health Services (MMHS) will provide NICE-recommended psychological interventions for women who have moderate to severe or complex mental health difficulties in the context of a trauma or loss in the maternity/perinatal/neonatal period. In many cases, MMHS will provide psychological interventions to women who do not meet the criteria to access specialist community PMH services (e.g., women who do not have an infant, are not within pregnancy-24 months postnatal).

To ensure women and mother-infant dyads receive evidence-based and NICE-recommended psychological interventions, one of the LTP commitments for PMH is to increase access to evidence-based psychological interventions and therapies, including parent-infant, couple, and family interventions, to support a whole family approach.

This means that there will be a significant shift in numbers and composition of the workforce for specialist community PMH teams (as a result of the LTP) for them to be able to deliver improved access to effective psychological interventions. This is taking place alongside the LTP expansion of psychological therapies and interventions in children and young people's mental health and for adults with common mental health problems and for those with severe mental health problems.

Principles:

Psychological therapies for treatment in the perinatal period will be offered by specialist PMH services according to the recommendations and principles set out in the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (2014; NICE; CG192) Antenatal and Postnatal mental health: Clinical management and service guidance, and National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (2015; NICE; NG26) Children's attachment: attachment in children and young people who are adopted from care, in care or at high risk of going into care guidance.

This includes women with a known or suspected mental health problem who are referred in pregnancy or the postnatal period (up to 24 months) and their infants where there is a problem in the relationship receiving timely access to evidence-based (NICE recommended) psychological therapies for maternal mental health and parenting. NICE QS115 (statement 6: Psychological interventions) outlines that women referred for psychological interventions in pregnancy or the postnatal period start treatment within 6 weeks of referral. This provides a window of up to 2 weeks for assessment and 4 weeks to treatment.

3. Work to Date

In October 2022, NHS England developed the Psychological Therapies for Perinatal Mental Health: Implementation Guidance.

This guidance was developed for specialist community perinatal mental health (PMH) services and Maternal Mental Health Services (MMHS), to support NHS-commissioned mental health providers to deliver the NHS Long Term Plan (LTP) commitment to expand access to evidence-based psychological therapies.

In accordance with this guidance, specialist PMH teams must be competent to deliver the therapies as set out in nationally agreed competence frameworks for their delivery:

- Perinatal Mental Health Competency Framework - Competency framework for perinatal mental health | Health Education England \(hee.nhs.uk\)
- AiMH Infant Mental Health Competency Framework - The UK IMH Competency Framework – AiMH
- UCL Competence Frameworks for the delivery of effective psychological interventions. Some of the UCL frameworks set out competences for the delivery of specific therapy modalities, others describe the competences associated with specific clinical populations and clinical contexts.

Psychological professionals in perinatal mental health services should be competent in evidence-based treatments and should receive appropriate training to ensure they are competent in adapting these interventions appropriately to the perinatal context (i.e., are perinatally competent).

4. Statement of Requirements

Expectation:

This work is targeted for completion by 31 March 2025.

This specification seeks to procure Prolonged Grief Therapy to be delivered to suitable practitioners working in specialist perinatal mental health services and maternal mental health services (MMHS) across all seven regions in England.

The ask:

- (a) Training to be provided in Prolonged Grief Disorder Therapy
- (b) Evidence to be provided of successfully and effectively delivering this treatment and
- (c) Knowledge and experience of adapting this treatment to perinatal loss.

Prolonged Grief Disorder:

Prolonged Grief Disorder (PGD) is a bereavement-related condition that affects about 7-10% of bereaved people. It is characterized by pervasive intense grief that interferes with personal and social functioning and persists for at least 6 months after the death and also beyond the time expected by a bereaved person and their social, cultural and religious context. Although PGD may co-occur with other mental health problems, such as depression, anxiety, and PTSD, it is a distinct condition and is now included as a diagnostic category in ICD-11 and DSM 5-TR. Symptoms include persistent, intense yearning, longing and/or preoccupation with the deceased, along with other symptoms such as identity disruption, a marked sense of disbelief, avoidance of reminders of the loss, intense emotional pain related to the loss, difficulty engaging in ongoing life, emotional numbness as a result of the loss, and feeling life is meaningless because of the loss.

When a peri-partum woman has PGD, grief dominates her life without respite, the future seems bleak and empty, and she feels lost and alone, and unable to connect with her social world. PGD after perinatal loss is especially impactful because of the central role women have in the lives of their families, especially at this time of life. Additionally, people with PGD are often misdiagnosed as having depression and studies have shown that efficacious treatment for depression is not efficacious treatment for PGD symptoms (see below). Moreover, without effective treatment, a woman with prolonged grief is at risk for suicidality as well as other health and mental health problems which not only affect her life but the lives of all of those in her family. In spite of the prevalence and the severe consequences of this condition, most mental health clinicians do not know how to recognize or treat it, even though there is highly effective evidence-based treatment. Prolonged Grief Disorder Treatment (PGDT), previously called Complicated Grief Treatment (CGT) has the strongest clinical evidence, and the most extensive track record of clinician training. It is critical to close treatment gaps and train mental health clinicians to achieve competence in delivering the intervention.

Proven Efficacious Treatment for Prolonged Grief Disorder

PGDT is a simple 16-week treatment that focuses on fostering grief processing by facilitating adaptation to loss and addressing “stuck” points in the adaptation process. The experience of loss, these stuck points and the intense grief that persists in their wake comprise emotional symptoms and suffering that can contribute to development of conditions like Major Depressive Disorder, PTSD or other common mental health problems. However, treatment that targets the latter problems is not effective in resolving grief because grief and the stuck points that contribute to its continued intensity require a targeted treatment approach. Additionally, prior grief therapy is often insufficient. These treatment “failures” can leave individuals feeling discouraged, helpless, and confused, wondering how they will ever feel better.

PGDT includes key components that address both accepting their new reality and restoring the capacity for wellbeing. It is based upon the premise that adapting to loss is a learning process and that learning occurs experientially as well as cognitively.

Adapting is operationalised in PGDT as 6 “healing milestones”:

- 1) understand and accept grief and manage grief-emotions
- 2) see possibility for a promising future
- 3) strengthen relationships with friends and family
- 4) narrate a story of the loss,
- 5) learn to live with reminders of the loss

NHS Terms and Conditions for the Provision of Services \(Contract Version\) \(August 2022\)

6) connect with memories.

Each healing milestone is addressed with both psychoeducation and experiential learning activities. PGDT is an integrative therapy that utilizes therapeutic strategies derived from Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Interpersonal Psychotherapy, Psychodynamic Psychotherapy, and Motivational Interviewing.

The proposed clinical training programme builds on the CPG's unique expertise in conducting clinical trials and effectively training clinicians to administer PGDT in order to equip (in the first training year instance) 30 perinatal specialists in Perinatal Mental Health Services (PNMH) with:

- Trial-level specialist skills and competencies in delivering perinatal-loss focused, evidence-based, Prolonged Grief Disorder Treatment
- Supervision skills and competencies specific to PGDT

This intensive program will ensure delegates can effectively and competently implement PGDT and take forward this treatment in perinatal mental health settings as clinicians and supervisors.

Target Audience

The target audience for the PGT training are perinatal mental health clinicians (with a core professional training in mental health). To be eligible for this programme a clinician is required to:

- hold a license
- have a psychotherapeutic background
- work in a context where the treatment can be applied. Service managers will assist in the selection of staff suited to the programme

Training Programme

The training programme will accomplish the following aims:

Teach trainees how to:

1. Differentiate PGD from usual continuing grief and mental health problems such as MDD and PTSD
2. Promote healing milestones and address “stuck” points in adapting to loss using psychoeducation and experiential exercises that have clear goals and are well specified and simple to administer. Trainees will engage in a rigorous clinical training program that follows the clinical training used in randomised controlled trials of PGD. The training will take 1-year and all components will be delivered online. The programme, which has been agreed with the HEE perinatal psychological implementation ERG, is outlined below and follows Declarative-Procedural-Reflective practice:

- Didactic: One-day workshop introducing the PGDT model and intervention strategies and skills with perinatal-loss focused clinical examples
 - Didactic: Online (existing) 6.5-hour training focused on PGDT's 7 signature principles and procedures
 - In-depth Procedural: Online course to practice skills, discuss troubleshooting with demonstration and examples (6 weeks, 2 hours live per week) including:
 - Grief monitoring: intro + follow-up
 - Psychoeducation: grief model + treatment model
 - Aspiration Goals: intro + follow-up
 - Meeting with Significant Other: intro + session guidance
 - Imaginal Revisiting: telling the story + reflection + putting away and planning rewarding activity
 - Situational Revisiting: setting up hierarchy + selecting activity + follow-up
 - Imaginal conversation: intro + convo with reflection
 - Adherence and competence ratings with expert trainer to include:
 - Grief monitoring: intro + follow-up
 - Psychoeducation: grief model + treatment model
 - Aspiration Goals: intro + follow-up
 - Meeting with Significant Other: intro + session guidance
 - Imaginal Revisiting: telling the story + reflection + putting away and planning rewarding activity
 - Situational Revisiting: setting up hierarchy + selecting activity + follow-up
 - Imaginal conversation: intro + convo with reflection k with an expert trainer
3. Reflective: Six months of small group supervision w/ 3 trainees which includes listening to one session tape per week
 4. Procedural: Half-day workshop on supervising PGDT
 5. Reflective: 3 months of monthly group "supervised supervision" meetings followed by 3 months of optional meetings

Workshops

Following each workshop, trainees complete an online evaluation form that assesses overall satisfaction with the workshop, the degree to which learning objectives were met, and the usefulness of the content to their practice and professional development. Both quantitative and qualitative feedback is collected.

Online Tutorial

Prior to beginning the tutorial, trainees complete a 60-item multiple-choice pre-test to establish baseline knowledge of PGDT principles and procedures. The tutorial includes brief knowledge-checks and interactive virtual patient scenarios at strategic points throughout to gauge conceptual and applied knowledge. Following the completion of the tutorial, a post-test is administered as well as the System Usability Scale (SUS) and User Satisfaction Questionnaire (USQ).

Intensive Skills Training

An expert trainer will role play each skill (basic and troubleshooting) with a trainee and use the Yale Adherence and Competency Rating Scale (YACS) to evaluate clinical skills in administering PGDT. The YACS is a well-validated scale for rating therapist adherence and competence used in numerous outcome studies across different psychotherapy approaches. YACS items are rated on a 7-point scale ranging from very poor (1) to excellent (7), with anchor points operationalized, and guidelines provided for rating each anchor point.

Group Supervision and Supervised Supervision Meetings

Trainees will complete a brief online evaluation form after each meeting and a comprehensive evaluation at the end of these components. Both quantitative and qualitative feedback is collected.

5. Quality Assurance

For the avoidance of doubt, where this box is not checked, but the Part D box above is checked all of the provisions of this Part D of this Schedule 7 shall apply to this Contract except Clause 1.4 of this Part D of this Schedule 7)

1 Pension protection for Eligible Employees

1.1 General

1.1.1 The Supplier shall procure that, if relevant, each of its Sub-contractors shall comply with the provisions in this Schedule 7 as if references to the Supplier were to the Sub-contractor.

1.2 Membership of the NHS Pension Scheme

1.2.1 In accordance with Fair Deal for Staff Pensions, the Supplier to which the employment of any Eligible Employee compulsorily transfers as a result of the award of this Contract, if not an NHS Body or other employer which participates automatically in the NHS Pension Scheme, shall on or before the Employee Transfer Date, each secure a Direction Letter to enable the Eligible Employees to retain either continuous active membership of or eligibility for, the NHS Pension Scheme, or as appropriate rejoin or secure eligibility for the NHS Pension Scheme for so long as they remain employed in connection with the delivery of the Services under this Contract.

1.2.2 The Supplier must supply to the Authority a complete copy of the Direction Letter as soon as reasonably practicable after the Employee Transfer Date.

1.2.3 The Supplier shall comply with the terms of the Direction Letter (including any terms which change as a result of changes in Law) for so long as it remains bound by the terms of the Direction Letter.

1.2.4 Where any Staff (including any Transferred Staff) omitted from the Direction Letter supplied in accordance with Part D of this Schedule 7 is subsequently found to be an Eligible Employee, the Supplier (or its Sub-contractor if relevant) will ensure that that person is treated as an Eligible Employee from the Employee Transfer Date so that their Pension Benefits and Premature Retirement Rights are not adversely affected.

The

Supplier shall only be entitled to recharge any Cost Increase to the Authority pursuant to this Clause 1.3.2 of Part D of this Schedule 7 in circumstances where the Cost Increase arises solely as a direct result of a general increase in the employer contribution rate applicable to all employers participating in the NHS Pension Scheme and not in circumstances where the employer contribution rate applicable to the Supplier is increased for any other reason, including as a result of any acts or omissions of the Supplier which give rise to any costs or additional charges (including interest) being charged to the Supplier which are over and above the minimum employer contributions payable by an employer in the NHS Pension Scheme (including as a result of a failure by the Supplier to comply with the terms of its Direction Letter or to meet its obligations to the NHS Pension Scheme).

1.3.3 The Supplier must supply all such information as the Authority may reasonably request from time to time in order to support any claim made by the Supplier pursuant to Clause 1.3.2 of Part D of this Schedule 7 in relation to a Cost Increase.

1.3.4 Where during the Term the standard employer contribution rate which the Supplier is required to pay in relation to the NHS Pension Scheme pursuant to the terms of its Direction Letter is decreased as part of a general reduction in the standard employer contribution rate applicable to all employers participating in the NHS Pension Scheme to a rate which is lower than that which was applicable as at the date of this Contract and such decrease results in a cost saving for the Supplier (a "Cost Saving"), the Authority shall be entitled to reduce the amounts payable to the Supplier under this Contract by an amount equal to the Cost Saving. The Authority shall be entitled to deduct any Cost Saving from sums otherwise payable by the Authority to the Supplier under this Contract.

1.4 Broadly Comparable Pension Benefits

1.4.1 If the Authority in its sole discretion agrees that the Supplier or Sub-contractor need not provide the Eligible Employees with access to the NHS Pension Scheme, the Supplier must ensure that, with effect from the Employee Transfer Date until the day before the Subsequent Transfer Date, the Eligible Employees are offered access to a scheme under which the Pension Benefits are Broadly Comparable to those provided under the NHS Pension Scheme.

1.4.2 The Supplier must supply to the Authority details of its Broadly Comparable scheme and provide a full copy of the valid certificate of Broad Comparability covering all Eligible Employees, as soon as it is able to do so and in any event no later than twenty eight (28) days before the Employee Transfer Date.

1.5 Transfer Option where Broadly Comparable Pension Benefits are provided

1.5.1 As soon as reasonably practicable and in any event no later than twenty (20) Business Days after the Employee Transfer Date, the Supplier must provide the Eligible Employees with the Transfer Option, where a Third Party offered, or the Supplier offers, a Broadly Comparable scheme.

1.6 Calculation of Transfer Amount

1.6.1 The Authority shall use reasonable endeavours to procure that twenty (20) Business Days after the Transfer Option Deadline, the Transfer Amount is calculated by the Third Party's Actuary or the Authority's Actuary (as appropriate) on the following basis and notified to the Supplier along with any appropriate underlying methodology.

1.6.2 If the Third Party offers a Broadly Comparable scheme to Eligible Employees:

- (i) the part of the Transfer Amount which relates to benefits accrued in that Broadly Comparable scheme other than those in Clause (ii) of Part D of this Schedule 7 below must be aligned to the funding requirements of that scheme; and
- (ii) the part of the Transfer Amount which relates to benefits accrued in the NHS Pension Scheme (having been previously bulk transferred into the Third Party's Broadly Comparable scheme), must be aligned to whichever of:
 - (A) the funding requirements of the Third Party's Broadly Comparable scheme; or
 - (B) the principles under which the Third Party's Broadly Comparable scheme received a bulk transfer payment from the NHS Pension Scheme (together with any shortfall payment), gives the higher figure, provided that where the principles require the assumptions to be determined as at a particular date, that date shall be the Employee Transfer Date.

1.6.3 In the case of Transferring Employees or any Third Party Employees who have access to the NHS Pension Scheme (and who are classed as Eligible Employees), the Transfer Amount shall be calculated by the NHS Pension Scheme's Actuary on the basis applicable for bulk transfer terms from the NHS Pension Scheme set by the Department of Health from time to time.

1.6.4 Each Party shall promptly provide to the Actuary calculating or verifying the Transfer Amount any documentation and information which that Actuary may reasonably require.

1.7 Payment of Transfer Amount

Subject to:

- 1.7.1 the period for acceptance of the Transfer Option having expired; and
- 1.7.2 the Supplier having provided the trustees or managers of the Third Party's pension scheme (or NHS Pensions, as appropriate) with completed and signed forms of consent in a form acceptable to the Third Party's pension scheme (or NHS Pensions) from each Eligible Employee in respect of the Transfer Option; and
- 1.7.3 the calculation of the Transfer Amount in accordance with Clause 1.6 of Part D of this Schedule 7; and
- 1.7.4 the trustees or managers of the Supplier's (or any Sub-contractor's) Broadly Comparable scheme (or NHS Pensions, as appropriate) having confirmed in writing to the trustees or managers of the Third Party's pension scheme (or NHS Pensions, as appropriate) that they are ready, willing and able to receive the Transfer Amount and the bank details of where the Transfer Amount should be sent, and not having revoked that confirmation, the Authority will use reasonable endeavours to procure that the Third Party's pension scheme (or the NHS Pension Scheme, as appropriate) shall, on or before the Payment Date, transfer to the Supplier's Broadly Comparable scheme (or NHS Pension Scheme) the Transfer Amount in cash, together with any cash or other assets which are referable to additional voluntary contributions (if any) paid by the Eligible Employees which do not give rise to salary-related benefits.

1.8 Credit for Transfer Amount

- 1.8.1 Subject to prior receipt of the Transfer Amount, by the trustees or managers of the Supplier's Broadly Comparable scheme (or NHS Pensions, as appropriate), the Supplier must procure that year-for-year day-for-day service credits are granted in the Supplier's (Broadly Comparable scheme (or NHS Pension Scheme), or an actuarial equivalent agreed by the Authority's Actuary (and NHS Pension Scheme Actuary) in accordance with Fair Deal for Staff Pensions as a suitable reflection of the differences in benefit structure between the NHS Pension Scheme and the Supplier's pension scheme.

1.8.2 To the extent that the Transfer Amount is or shall be insufficient to provide benefits in the receiving scheme on the basis set out in Clause 1.8.1 above, the Supplier shall be liable to make a top-up payment into the receiving scheme such that benefits shall be provided by the receiving scheme on the basis set out in Clause 1.8.1 above.

1.9 Premature Retirement Rights

1.9.1 From the Employee Transfer Date until the day before the Subsequent Transfer Date, the Supplier must provide Premature Retirement Rights in respect of the Eligible Employees that are identical to the benefits they would have received had they remained employees of an NHS Body or other employer which participates automatically in the NHS Pension Scheme.

1.10 Breach and Cancellation of any Direction Letter(s) and Right of Set-Off

1.10.1 The Supplier agrees that it shall notify the Authority if it breaches the terms of the Direction Letter. The Supplier also agrees that the Authority is entitled to make arrangements with NHS Pensions for the Authority to be notified if the Supplier breaches the terms of this Direction Letter.

1.10.2 If the Authority is entitled to terminate this Contract pursuant to Clause 15.5.5 of Schedule 2, the Authority may in its sole discretion instead of exercising its right under Clause 15.5.5 of Schedule 2 permit the Supplier to offer Broadly Comparable Pension Benefits, on such terms as decided by the Authority.

1.10.3 If the Authority is notified by NHS Pensions of any NHS Pension Scheme Arrears, the Authority shall be entitled to deduct all or part of those arrears from any amount due to be paid by the Authority to the Supplier having given the Supplier five (5) Business Days' notice of its intention to do so, and to pay any sum deducted to NHS Pensions in full or partial settlement of the NHS Pension Scheme Arrears. This set-off right is in addition to and not instead of the Authority's right to terminate the Contract under Clause 15.5.5 of Schedule 2.

1.11 Compensation

1.11.1 If the Supplier is unable to provide the Eligible Employees with either:

- (i) membership of the NHS Pension Scheme (having used its best endeavours to secure a Direction Letter); or
- (ii) a Broadly Comparable scheme,

the Authority may in its sole discretion permit the Supplier to compensate the Eligible Employees in a manner that is Broadly Comparable or equivalent in cash terms, the Supplier having consulted with a view to reaching agreement any recognised trade union or, in the absence of such body, the Eligible Employees. The Supplier must meet the costs of the Authority in determining whether the level of compensation offered is reasonable in the circumstances.

1.11.2 This flexibility for the Authority to allow compensation in place of Pension Benefits is in addition to and not instead of the Authority's right to terminate the Contract under Clause 15.5.5 of Schedule 2.

1.12 Supplier Indemnities Regarding Pension Benefits and Premature Retirement Rights

- 1.12.1 The Supplier must indemnify and keep indemnified the Authority and any Successor against all Losses arising out of any claim by any Eligible Employee that the provision of (or failure to provide) Pension Benefits and Premature Retirement Rights from the Employee Transfer Date, or the level of such benefit provided, constitutes a breach of his or her employment rights.
- 1.12.2 The Supplier must indemnify and keep indemnified the Authority, NHS Pensions and any Successor against all Losses arising out of the Supplier (or its Sub-contractor) allowing anyone who is not an Eligible Employee to join or claim membership of the NHS Pension Scheme at any time during the Term.
- 1.12.3 The Supplier must indemnify the Authority, NHS Pensions and any Successor against all Losses arising out of its breach of this Part D of this Schedule 7 or the terms of the Direction Letter.

1.13 Sub-contractors

- 1.13.1 If the Supplier enters or has at the Commencement Date entered into a Sub-contract for delivery of all or part of the Services it shall impose obligations on its Sub-contractor in the same terms as those imposed on the Supplier in relation to Pension Benefits and Premature Retirement Benefits by this Part D of this Schedule 7, including requiring that:
- (i) if the Supplier has secured a Direction Letter, the Sub-contractor also secures a Direction Letter in respect of the Eligible Employees for their future service with the Sub-contractor as a condition of being awarded the Sub-contract; or
 - (ii) if the Supplier has offered the Eligible Employees access to a pension scheme under which the benefits are Broadly Comparable to those provided under the NHS Pension Scheme, the Sub-contractor either secures a Direction Letter in respect of the Eligible Employees or provides Eligible Employees with access to a scheme with Pension Benefits which are Broadly Comparable to those provided under the NHS Pension Scheme and in either case the option for Eligible Employees to transfer their accrued rights in the Supplier's pension scheme into the Sub-contractor's Broadly Comparable scheme (or where a Direction Letter is secured by the Sub-contractor, the NHS Pension Scheme) on the basis set out in Clause 1.8 of Part D of this Schedule 7, except that the Supplier or the Sub-contractor as agreed between them, must make up any shortfall in the transfer amount received from the Supplier's pension scheme.

1.14 Direct Enforceability by the Eligible Employees

- 1.14.1 Notwithstanding Clause 30.8 of Schedule 2, the provisions of this Part D of this Schedule 7 may be directly enforced by an Eligible Employee against the Supplier and the Parties agree that the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall apply to the extent necessary to ensure that any Eligible Employee shall have the right to enforce any obligation owed to him or her by the Supplier under this Part D of this Schedule 7 in his or her own right under section 1(1) of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 1.14.2 Further, the Supplier must ensure that the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall apply to any Sub-contract to the extent necessary to ensure that any Eligible Employee shall have the right to enforce any obligation owed to them by the Sub-contractor in his or her own right under section 1(1) of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

1.15 Pensions on Transfer of Employment on Exit

1.15.1 In the event of any termination or expiry or partial termination or expiry of this Contract which results in a transfer of the Eligible Employees, the Supplier must (and if offering a Broadly Comparable scheme, must use all reasonable efforts to procure that the trustees or managers of that pension scheme must):

- (i) not adversely affect pension rights accrued by the Eligible Employees in the period ending on the Subsequent Transfer Date;
- (ii) within thirty (30) Business Days of being requested to do so by the Authority or Successor, (or if the Successor is offering Eligible Employees access to the NHS Pension Scheme, by NHS Pensions), provide a transfer amount calculated in accordance with Clause 1.6 of this Part D of this Schedule 7; and
- (iii) do all acts and things, and provide all information and access to the Eligible Employees, as may in the reasonable opinion of the Authority be necessary or desirable and to enable the Authority and/or the Successor to achieve the objectives of Fair Deal for Staff Pensions.

Schedule 8

Expert Determination

1 Dispute Process

- 1.1 During any Dispute, including a Dispute as to the validity of the Contract, it is agreed that the Supplier shall continue its performance of the provisions of the Contract (unless the Authority requests in writing that the Supplier does not do so).
- 1.2 In the case of a Dispute the Supplier and the Authority shall make every reasonable effort to communicate and cooperate with each other with a view to resolving the Dispute and shall follow the procedure set out in this Schedule 8.
- 1.3 In the event of a Dispute either Party may serve a Dispute Notice on the other Party to commence formal resolution of the Dispute. The Dispute Notice shall set out:
 - 1.3.1 the material particulars of the Dispute; and
 - 1.3.2 the reasons why the Party serving the Dispute Notice believes the Dispute has arisen.
- 1.4 Following the service of a Dispute Notice the Parties shall first seek to resolve the Dispute by convening a meeting between the Authority's Contract Manager and the Supplier's Contract Manager (together the "Contract Managers").
 - 1.4.1 The meeting of the Contract Managers must take place within five (5) Business Days of the date of the Dispute Notice (the "Dispute Meeting").
 - 1.4.2 The Contract Managers shall be given ten (10) Business Days following the date of the Dispute Meeting to resolve the Dispute.
 - 1.4.3 The Contract Managers can agree to further meetings at levels 2 and/or 3, as referred to at Clause 5.1 of the Key Provisions in Schedule 1, in addition to the Dispute Meeting, but such meetings must be held within the ten (10) Business Day timetable set out in Clause 1.4.2 of this Schedule 8.
 - 1.4.4 If at any point it becomes clear that the timetable set out cannot be met or has passed, the Parties may (but shall be under no obligation to) agree in writing to extend the timetable. Any agreed extension to the timetable shall have the effect of delaying the start of the subsequent stages by the period agreed in the extension.
- 1.5 If the procedure set out in Clause 1.4 of this Schedule 8 has been exhausted and fails to resolve the Dispute either Party may request the Dispute be resolved by way of a binding expert determination (pursuant to Clause 1.6 of this Schedule 8). For the avoidance of doubt, the Expert shall determine all matters (including, without limitation, matters of contractual construction and interpretation) in connection with any Dispute referred to binding expert determination pursuant to Clause 1.6 of this Schedule 8.
- 1.6 Where the Dispute is referred to binding expert determination the following process will apply:
 - 1.6.1 The Party wishing to refer the Dispute to expert determination shall give notice in writing to the other Party informing it of its wish to refer the Dispute to expert determination and giving brief details of its position in the Dispute.
 - 1.6.2 The Parties shall attempt to agree upon a single expert (who must have no connection with the Dispute unless both Parties have consented in writing) (an "Expert"). For the avoidance of doubt, where the Dispute relates to contractual interpretation and construction, the Expert may be Queen's Counsel. In the event that the Parties fail to agree upon an Expert within five (5) Business Days following the date of the notice referred to in Clause 1.6.1 of this Schedule 8 (or if the person agreed upon is unable or unwilling to act), the Parties agree that the Expert will be nominated and confirmed to be appointed by the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution.

- 1.6.3 The Expert must be willing and able to complete the expert determination process within thirty (30) Business Days of the Date of Final Representations (as defined in Clause 1.6.5 of this Schedule 8).
- 1.6.4 The Expert shall act as an expert not as an arbitrator or legal advisor. There will be no formal hearing and the Expert shall regulate the procedure as he sees fit.
- 1.6.5 The Parties shall each have the right to make written representations to the Expert and will, with reasonable promptness, provide the Expert with such assistance and documents as the Expert reasonably requires for the purpose of reaching a decision. Such representations must be made within twenty eight (28) Business Days of the Expert being appointed, or fourteen (14) Business Days after the last documents requested by the Expert have been provided to the Expert, whichever is the later ("Date of Final Representations"). Any documents provided to the Expert and any correspondence to or from the Expert, including email exchanges, shall be copied to the other Party simultaneously.
- 1.6.6 The Expert shall have the power to open up, review and revise any certificate, opinion, requisition or notice and to determine all matters in Dispute (including his jurisdiction to determine matters that have been referred to him).
- 1.6.7 The Expert may take such advice and assistance from professional advisers or other third parties as he reasonably considers appropriate to enable him to reach a determination of the Dispute and may issue orders that one or both of the Parties are to pay such third party costs, stating the proportion. For the avoidance of doubt, where the Expert is not Queen's Counsel, and the Expert requires advice or assistance on matters of contractual interpretation and construction, the expert may take such advice and assistance from a third party Queen's Counsel of their choosing under this Clause 1.6.7 of this Schedule 8. The Parties will pay any such third party costs incurred pursuant to this Clause 1.6.7 of this Schedule 8 in such proportions as the Expert shall order. In the absence of such order such third party costs will be paid equally.
- 1.6.8 The Expert shall provide the Parties with a written determination of the Dispute (the "Expert's Decision") within thirty (30) Business Days of the Date of Final Representations, which shall, in the absence of fraud or manifest error, be final and binding on the Parties.
- 1.6.9 The Expert's Decision shall include reasons.
- 1.6.10 The Parties agree to implement the Expert's Decision within five (5) Business Days of the Expert's Decision being provided to them or as otherwise specified as part of the Expert's Decision.
- 1.6.11 The Parties agree that the Expert shall be entitled to proceed to give his binding determination should one or both Parties fail to act in accordance with the procedural timetable set out above.
- 1.6.12 The Parties will pay the Expert's costs in such proportions as the Expert shall determine. In the absence of such determination such costs will be shared equally.
- 1.6.13 The Parties agree to keep confidential all information arising out of or in connection with the expert determination, including details of the underlying Dispute, except where disclosure is required by Law.
- 1.7 Nothing in this Contract shall prevent:
- 1.7.1 the Authority taking action in any court in relation to any death or personal injury arising or allegedly arising in connection with the provision of the Services; or
- 1.7.2 either Party seeking from any court any interim or provisional relief that may be necessary to protect the rights or property of that Party (including Intellectual Property Rights) or which relates to the safety of patients and other service users or the security of Confidential Information, pending the resolution of the relevant Dispute in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure.

- 1.8 Subject to Clause 1.7 of this Schedule 8 neither Party may commence legal proceedings in relation to a Dispute until the dispute resolution procedures set out in this Schedule 8 have been exhausted. For the avoidance of doubt, either Party may commence legal proceedings to enforce the Expert's Decision.
- 1.9 This Schedule 8 shall survive the expiry of or earlier termination of this Contract for any reason.
