

Appendix N – Security Controls

Description and Purpose:

This document contains an overview of the content of the Security Controls document that the Supplier will produce. The Security Controls document should, as a minimum, cover the topics included in this document.

The specific content of the Security Controls document will be defined in conjunction with the Customer, with support from the Centre for the Protection of National Infrastructure (CPNI) and the National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC).

REDACTED