 - 36.6.2 reasonable access to sites controlled by the Provider and to Equipment used in the provision of the Goods and/or Services; and
 - 36.6.3 access to the Staff.
- 36.7 The Parties agree that they shall bear their own respective costs and expenses incurred in respect of compliance with their obligations under this Clause, unless the audit reveals a material Default by the Provider in which case the Provider shall reimburse the Customer for the Customer's reasonable costs incurred in relation to the audit.

CONTROL OF THE CONTRACT

37. TRANSFER AND SUB CONTRACTING

- 37.1 The Provider shall not assign, novate, sub-contract or in any other way dispose of the Contract or any part of it without prior Approval. Sub-contracting any part of the Contract shall not relieve the Provider of any obligation or duty attributable to the Provider under the Contract.
- 37.2 The Provider shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of its sub-contractors as though they are its own. All sub-contractors must be appropriately managed and responsibility for the quality of workmanship, warranties and guarantees will remain the responsibility of the Provider.
- 37.3 Where the Customer has consented to the placing of sub-contracts, copies of each sub-contract shall, at the request of the Customer, be sent by the Provider to the Customer as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 37.4 Subject to Clause 37.6, the Customer may assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof to:-
- 37.4.1 any Contracting Authority; or

37.4.2 any other body established by the Crown or under statute in order substantially to perform any of the functions that had previously been performed by the Customer; or

37.4.3 any private sector body which substantially performs the functions of the Customer, provided that any such assignment, novation or other disposal shall not increase the burden of the Provider's obligations under the Contract.

37.5 Any change in the legal status of the Customer such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority shall not, subject to Clause 37.6, affect the validity of the Contract. In such circumstances, the Contract shall bind and inure to the benefit of any successor body to the Customer.

37.6 If the rights and obligations under the Contract are assigned, novated or otherwise disposed of pursuant to Clause 37.4 to a body which is not a Contracting Authority or if there is a change in the legal status of the Customer such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority (in the remainder of this clause both such bodies being referred to as "the Transferee"):-

37.6.1 the rights of termination of the Customer in Clause 49 (Termination) shall be available to the Provider in the event of, respectively, the bankruptcy or insolvency, or Default of the Transferee; and

37.6.2 the Transferee shall only be able to assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof with the previous consent in writing of the Provider

37.7 The Customer may disclose to any Transferee any Confidential Information of the Provider which relates to the performance of the Provider's obligations under the Contract. In such circumstances the Customer shall authorise the Transferee to use such Confidential Information only for purposes relating to the performance of the Provider's obligations under the Contract and for no other purposes and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Transferee gives a Confidential Information undertaking in relation to such Confidential Information.

37.8 Each Party shall at its own cost and expense carry out, or use all reasonable endeavours to ensure the carrying out of, whatever further actions (including the execution of further documents) the other Party reasonably requires from time to time for the purpose of giving that other Party the full benefit of the provisions of the Contract.

38. WAIVER

38.1 The failure of either Party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of the Contract, or the failure of either Party to exercise, or any delay in exercising, any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy and shall not cause a diminution of the obligations established by the Contract.

38.2 No waiver shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and communicated to the other Party in writing in accordance with Clause 8 (Notices).

38.3 A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other or subsequent breach of the Contract.

39. VARIATION

39.1 Subject to the provisions of this Clause 39.1, the Customer may request a variation to the Goods and/or Services ordered provided that such variation does not amount to a material change to the Order. Such a change is hereinafter called a "Variation".

39.2 The Customer may request a Variation by completing and sending the Variation form attached at Appendix 2 ("the Customer Variation Form") to the Provider giving sufficient information for the Provider to assess the extent of the Variation and any additional cost that may be incurred. The Provider shall respond to a request for a Variation within the time limits specified in the Variation Form. Such time limits shall be reasonable having regard to the nature of the Order.

39.3 In the event that the Provider is unable to provide the Variation to the Goods and/or Services or where the Parties are unable to agree a change to the Contract Price, the Customer may:

39.3.1 agree to allow the Provider to continue to perform their obligations under the Contract without the Variation; or 39.3.2 terminate the Contract with immediate effect, except where the Provider has already delivered part or all of the Order in accordance with the Order Form or where the Provider can show evidence of substantial work being carried out to fulfil the Order, and in such a case the Parties shall attempt to agree upon a resolution to the matter. Where a resolution cannot be reached, the matter shall be dealt with under the Dispute Resolution Procedure detailed at Clause 58.

39.4 If the Parties agree the Variation and any variation in the Contract Price, the Provider shall carry out such Variation and be bound by the same provisions so far as is applicable, as though such Variation was stated in the Contract.

40. SEVERABILITY

40.1 If any provision of the Contract is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect as if the Contract had been executed with the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision eliminated.

40.2 In the event of a holding of invalidity so fundamental as to prevent the accomplishment of the purpose of the Contract, the Customer and the Provider shall immediately commence good faith negotiations to remedy such invalidity.

41. REMEDIES IN THE EVENT OF INADEQUATE PERFORMANCE OF THE GOODS AND/OR SERVICES

41.1 Where a complaint is received about the standard of Goods and/or Services or about the manner in which any Goods and Services have been supplied or about the materials or procedures used or about any other matter connected with the performance of the Provider's obligations under the Contract, then the Customer shall take all reasonable steps to investigate the complaint.

41.2 Where a complaint is received about the quality of the Goods or of installation of the Goods then the Provider may at their own cost and expense arrange for the Goods to be tested either at an Independent Testing House/Organisation or inspected in situ by an Independent Testing Engineer.

41.3 The Customer may, in its sole discretion, uphold the complaint, or take further action in accordance with Clause 49 (Termination) of the Contract.

41.4 In the event that the Customer is of the reasonable opinion that there has been a material breach of the Contract by the Provider, then the Customer may, without prejudice to its rights under Clause 49 (Termination), do any of the following:

41.4.1 without terminating the Contract, itself provide or procure the provision of all or part of the Goods and/or Services (if applicable) until such time as the Provider shall have demonstrated to the reasonable satisfaction of the Customer that the Provider will once more be able to provide all or such part of the Goods and/or Services (if applicable) in accordance with the Contract;

41.4.2 without terminating the whole of the Contract, terminate the Contract in respect of part of the Goods and/or Services (whereupon a corresponding reduction in the Contract Price shall be made) and thereafter itself provide or procure a third party to provide such part of the Goods and/or Services(as applicable);

- 41.4.3 terminate, in accordance with Clause 49 (Termination), the whole of the Contract; and/or
- 41.4.4 charge the Provider for and the Provider shall pay any costs reasonably incurred by the Customer (including any reasonable administration costs) in respect of the provision of any part of the Goods and/or Services by the Customer or a third party to the extent that such costs exceed the payment which would otherwise have been payable to the Provider for such part of the Goods and/or Services provided that the Customer uses its reasonable endeavours to mitigate any additional expenditure in obtaining replacement Goods and/or Services (as applicable).

41.5 If the Provider fails to provide any of the Goods and/or Services in accordance with the provisions of the Contract and such failure is capable of remedy, then the Customer shall instruct the Provider to remedy the failure and the Provider shall at its own cost and expense remedy such failure (and any damage resulting from such failure) within [ten (10)] Working Days of the Customer's instructions or such other period of time as the Customer may direct.

41.6 In the event that the Provider

41.6.1 fails to comply with Clause 41.4 above and the failure is materially adverse to the interests of the Customer or prevents the Customer from discharging a statutory duty; or the Customer may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving the Provider notice in writing.

41.6.2 persistently fails to comply with Clause 41.4 above;

42. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

42.1 If the Provider fails to deliver the Goods or perform the Services (as applicable) by the date(s) agreed, or specified in the Order Form or (where an extension of time has been agreed by the Parties) the revised date for delivery (as the context requires, the "Agreed Delivery Date"):-

42.1.1 the Provider shall pay the Customer a sum by way of liquidated damages for each day between the Agreed Delivery Date and the date on which the Goods are delivered or Services are provided to the Customer, equal to 100% of the Contract Price for the relevant Goods and/or Services, up to a maximum amount of 125% of the Contract Price ("Liquidated Damages Threshold"). Subject to Clause 42.3, during the period in which liquidated damages are payable under this Clause 42.1.1 ("Liquidated Damages Period") the liquidated damages payable in accordance with this Clause 42.1.1 shall be the Customer's only remedy for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by the Customer in relation to the failure by the Provider to deliver the Goods or provide the Services by the Agreed Delivery Date; and

42.1.2 if the sums payable by the Provider pursuant to Clause 42.1.1 meet or exceed the Liquidated Damages Threshold, the Customer shall be entitled to:

- i claim any remedy available to it (whether under the Contract or otherwise) for loss or damage incurred or suffered over and above the Liquidated Damages Threshold; and
- ii without prejudice to Clause 42.1.2 (i), the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving notice in writing to the Provider.

42.2 The Provider shall not be obliged to pay any sums pursuant to Clause 42.1.1 if and to the extent the failure by the Provider to deliver the Goods and provide the Services by the Agreed Delivery Date directly results from the Customer's Default provided that the Provider notifies the Customer immediately of such circumstances in sufficient detail to enable the Customer to remedy the situation. Except as set out in this Clause 42.2, no payment or concession to the Provider by the Customer or other act or commission of the Customer shall in any way affect its rights to liquidated damages pursuant to Clause 42.1 or be deemed to be a waiver of the right of the Customer to recover any damages unless such waiver has been expressly made in writing by the Customer.

- 42.3 Notwithstanding Clause 42.1.1 the Provider does not exclude responsibility for performing or re-performing the obligation or duty which gave rise to the relevant claim at its own cost in such manner as would (if possible) result in the same or substantively similar effect for the Customer, whether or not such performance or re-performance gives rise to additional costs for the Provider and the cost of re-performance shall be borne solely by the Provider and shall not be re-charged to the Customer whether by way of costs, reimbursement or otherwise.
- 42.4 Having given careful consideration to this matter, all monies payable by the Provider under Clause 42.1.1 are considered by the Parties to be a genuine pre-estimate of the losses which the Customer will incur in relation to the Provider's failure to deliver the Goods or perform the Services by the Agreed Delivery Date it being impossible to quantify the actual aggregate losses sustainable by the Customer in terms of both loss of revenue as well as loss of reputation and prestige (the Parties acknowledging that hypothetically the losses sufferable by the Customer might be more or less than the agreed liquidated damages calculation); arrived at without any inequality of bargaining position as between the Parties as a true bargain between the Parties; fair, given the nature and circumstances of the Contract; neither excessive, extravagant, unconscionable or oppressive in all the circumstances; and as such these monies are payable as liquidated damages such that the Provider waives absolutely any entitlement to challenge the enforceability in whole or in part of this Clause 42.4. The Parties' joint intention in agreeing a scheme of liquidated damages in such circumstances is to substantially reduce and, to the fullest extent possible in law, eliminate, the risk of a dispute and potential litigation in relation to such circumstances.
- 42.5 Each Party confirms that:-
- a it has taken specific legal advice on the effect of this clause; and
 - b based on such advice, it does not enter into the Contract in anticipation that, or with any expectation that this Clause will be unenforceable for any reason.

43. CUMULATIVE REMEDIES

Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Contract, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Contract are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of any one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.

44. MONITORING OF CONTRACT PERFORMANCE

The Provider shall comply with the monitoring arrangements set out in the Order Form including, but not limited to, providing such data and information as the Provider may be required to produce under the Contract.

LIABILITIES

45.5.3 the additional cost of procuring replacement Goods and/or Services (if applicable) for the remainder of the Contract Period following termination of the Contract as a result of a Default by the Provider.

45.6 Nothing in the Contract shall impose any liability on the Customer in respect of any liability incurred by the Provider to any other person, but this shall not be taken to exclude or limit any liability of the Customer to the Provider that may arise by virtue of either a breach of the Contract or by negligence on the part of the Customer, or the Customer's employees, servants or agents.

45.7 The Provider shall effect and maintain with a reputable insurance company a policy or policies of insurance providing an adequate level of cover in respect of all risks which may be incurred by the Provider, arising out of the Provider's performance of its obligations under the Contract, including death or personal injury, loss of or damage to property or any other loss. Such policies shall include cover in respect of any financial loss arising from any advice given or omitted to be given by the Provider. Such insurance shall be maintained for the duration of the Contract Period and for a minimum of [6 (six)] years following the expiration or earlier termination of the Contract.

- 45.8 The Provider shall hold employer's liability insurance in respect of Staff in accordance with any legal requirement from time to time in force.
- 45.9 The Provider shall hold public liability insurance in respect of Staff in accordance with any legal requirement from time to time in force.
- 45.10 The Provider shall give the Customer, on request, copies of all insurance policies referred to in this clause or a broker's verification of insurance to demonstrate that the appropriate cover is in place, together with receipts or other evidence of payment of the latest premiums due under those policies.
- 45.11 If, for whatever reason, the Provider fails to give effect to and maintain the insurances required by the provisions of the Contract the Customer may make alternative arrangements to protect its interests and may recover the costs of such arrangements from the Provider.
- 45.12 The provisions of any insurance or the amount of cover shall not relieve the Provider of any liabilities under the Contract. It shall be the responsibility of the Provider to determine the amount of insurance cover that will be adequate to enable the Provider to satisfy any liability referred to in Clause 45.

46 PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY

The Provider shall effect and maintain a professional indemnity insurance policy during the Contract Period and shall ensure that all agents, professional consultants and sub-contractors involved in the provision of the Goods and/or Services (if applicable) effect and maintain appropriate professional indemnity insurance during the Contract Period. The Provider shall at all times indemnify the Customer and keep the Customer indemnified in full from and against all claims, proceedings, actions, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities and demands whatsoever and howsoever arising by reason of any circumstances whereby the Customer is alleged or determined to have been assumed or imposed with the liability or responsibility for the Staff (or any of them) as an employer of the Staff and/or any liability or responsibility to HM Revenue or Customs as an employer of the Staff whether during the Contract Period or arising from termination or expiry of the Contract.

- 53.2 The Provider shall immediately inform the Customer of any actual or potential industrial action, whether such action be by their own employees or others, which affects or might affect its ability at any time to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- 53.3 In the event of industrial action by the Staff, the Provider shall seek the Customers Approval to its proposals for the continuance of the provision of the Goods and/or Services in accordance with its obligations under the Contract.

- 53.5 If the Provider is temporarily unable to fulfil the requirements of the Contract owing to disruption of normal business by direction of the Customer, an appropriate allowance by way of extension of time will be approved by the Customer. In addition, the Customer will reimburse any additional expense reasonably incurred by the Provider as a direct result of such disruption.

- 54.2 If the Provider fails to comply with Clause 54.1 (a) and (b), the Client may recover possession thereof and the Provider grants a licence to the Client or its appointed agents to enter (for the purposes of such recovery) any premises of the Provider or its permitted Providers or sub-contractors where any such items may be held.
- 54.3 Where the end of the Contract Period arises due to the Provider's Default, the Provider shall provide all assistance under Clause 54.1 (c) and (d) free of charge. However, if such Force Majeure prevents either Party from performing its material obligations under the Contract for a period in excess of 6 Months, either Party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing.

- 55.2 Any failure or delay by the Provider in performing its obligations under the Contract which results from any failure or delay by an agent, sub-contractor or Provider shall be regarded as due to Force Majeure only if that agent, sub-contractor or Provider is itself impeded by Force Majeure from complying with an obligation to the Provider.
- 55.3 If either Party becomes aware of a Force Majeure event or occurrence which gives rise to or is likely to give rise to any such failure or delay on its part as described in Clause 55.1 it shall immediately notify the other by the most expeditious method then available and shall inform the other of the period during which it is estimated that such failure or delay shall continue.
- 55.4 It is expressly agreed that any failure by the Provider to perform or any delay by the Provider in performing its obligations under the Agreement which results from any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations by any person, firm or company with which the Provider shall have entered into any contract, supply arrangement or sub-contract or otherwise shall be regarded as a failure or delay due to Force Majeure only in the event that such person firm or company shall itself be prevented from or delayed in complying with its obligations under such contract, supply arrangement or sub-contract or otherwise as a result of circumstances of Force Majeure.
- 55.5 For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby expressly declared that the only events which shall afford relief from liability for failure or delay shall be any event qualifying for Force Majeure hereunder.
