

Question	Answer
How many candidates will be assessed at the assessment centre?	The number may vary but is likely to be up to 3,500
Will assessment centres remain virtual or will there be a mix of virtual and in-person?	In the short term we expect delivery to be virtual but we would like to have the option of a hybrid approach, where some candidates are assessed virtually and some in-person.