1	N/A	What is the next stage process following the RFI – will the ITT be sent to all who submitted a response to the RFI, or will there be some selection process? 2	N/A	Given the change in sample design, the previous limitations on sample design no longer apply. What sample size would you like the estimated cost to be based on?	Given the change from 2010, we are looking for tenderers to suggest what they think is an appropriate sample size, taking into account their overall approach to the survey and the different types of private sector landlord.
3	N/A	What interview length do you anticipate?	The interview length is dependent on the tenderers preferred approach, the maximum length they advocate, their views on the balance of closed and more open questions and the overall cost per interview.
