

The Isle of Wight Council controlled the levels of sand on this part of the beach until 2014 and Ryde Town Council still have a requirement for a degree of sand on this beach at high water to facilitate the beachside business. I would suggest going back to pre 2018 levels of sand so that in future the Isle of Wight Council can retain sand deposits through their agreement with the Environment Agency.