Dear ██████████,

With the Statista Corporate Account you have quick and convenient access to statistics, forecasts, studies, and sources on over 80,000 topics. The Statista database consists of market data from over 22,500 reliable UK, European, North and South American, and Asian sources on more than 170 major industries.

Your account provides access to the below agreed number of employees for the Department for International Trade EITA, UK Regions teams. Included in this subscription are unlimited downloads of statistics and content in formats such as PowerPoint, Excel, PDF, or PNG, as well as the publication rights of all Statista statistics and graphs. Additionally, the Corporate Account includes access to Statista's own content data, available in the Digital Market Outlook and the Consumer Market Outlook, and access to over 5,000 industry reports and dossiers.

I have read and agree to the following:

Your Corporate Account has a subscription length of 12 months.

Use of Statista requires a stable internet connection and up-to-date browser software. Please follow twitter.com/StatistaCharts on status updates regarding such incidents.

Security and Legal:

Please do not provide the login information to any person not covered by this contract and do not use the login information within automated data processing units. Statista may freeze the account becoming aware of, or being notified of, any such incidents of misuse of the login information.

Our data analysts perform a quality check on each source/statistic. However, much like any media company, the information received from our sources may be misleading or incomplete. While Statista does not take any responsibility for the accuracy or the completeness of the data provided, please cross-check results before making important decisions based on statistical data. Statista and its team cannot be held liable for any damages regarding such risks.

Statista is operating and reviewing its technical infrastructure with care. Nevertheless, the systems of, or the access to, Statista may be compromised by technical failure or third party actions. Statista and its team cannot be held liable for any damages resulting from insecure customer systems; please always use state-of-the-art backup, firewall and anti-malware software while using our service.

By signing below, you agree to the subscription conditions listed in this document, the Terms and Conditions, and our Corporate Account product description.

Sincerely,

SVP of Sales UK, FR, ME & A
