- F2.2 At or around 6 Months from the Commencement Date and each anniversary of the Commencement Date thereafter (each being a "Review Date"), the Authority shall carry out a review of the performance of the Contractor ("Checkpoint Review"). Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Authority may in respect of the period under review consider such items as (but not limited to): the Contractor's delivery of the Services; the Contractor's contribution to innovation in the Authority; whether the Services provide the Authority with best value for money; consideration of any changes which may need to be made to the Services; a review of future requirements in relation to the Services and progress against key milestones.
- F2.3 The Contractor shall provide at its own cost any assistance reasonably required by the Authority to perform such Checkpoint Review including the provision of data and information.
- F2.4 The Authority may produce a report (a "Checkpoint Review Report") of the results of each Checkpoint Review stating any areas of exceptional performance and areas for improvement in the provision of the Services and where there is any shortfall in any aspect of performance reviewed as against the Authority's expectations and the Contractor's obligations under this Contract.

- F2.5 The Authority shall give the Contractor a copy of the Checkpoint Review Report (if applicable). The Authority shall consider any Contractor comments and may produce a revised Checkpoint Review Report.

- F2.7 Actions required to resolve shortcomings and implement improvements (either as a consequence of the Contractor's failure to meet its obligations under this Contract identified by the Checkpoint Review Report, or those which result from the Contractor's failure to meet the Authority's expectations notified to the Contractor or of which the Contractor ought reasonably to have been aware) shall be implemented at no extra charge to the Authority.

F3 Remedies for inadequate performance

- F3.1 If the Authority reasonably believes the Contractor has committed a Material Breach it may, without prejudice to its rights under clause H2 (Termination on Default), do any of the following:
- (a) without terminating the Contract, itself supply or procure the supply of all or part of the Services until such time as the Contractor has demonstrated to the Authority's reasonable satisfaction that the Contractor will be able to supply the Services in accordance with the Specification;
 - (b) without terminating the whole of the Contract, terminate the Contract in respect of part of the Services only (whereupon a corresponding reduction in the Price shall be made) and thereafter itself supply or procure a third party to supply such part of the Services;
 - (a) withhold or reduce payments to the Contractor in such amount as the Authority reasonably deems appropriate in each particular case; and/or
 - (a) terminate the Contract in accordance with clause H2.
- F3.2 Without prejudice to its right under clause C3 (Recovery of Sums Due), the Authority may charge the Contractor for any costs reasonably incurred and any reasonable administration costs in respect of the supply of any part of the Services by the Authority or a third party to the extent that such costs exceed the payment which would otherwise have been payable to the Contractor for such part of the Services.
- F3.3 If the Authority reasonably believes the Contractor has failed to supply all or any part of the Services in accordance with the Contract, professional or industry practice which could reasonably be expected of a competent and suitably qualified person, or any legislative or regulatory requirement, the Authority may give the Contractor notice specifying the way in which its performance falls short of the requirements of the Contract or is otherwise unsatisfactory.
- F3.4 If the Contractor has been notified of a failure in accordance with clause F3.3 the Authority may:

- (a) direct the Contractor to identify and remedy the failure within such time as may be specified by the Authority and to apply all such additional resources as are necessary to remedy that failure at no additional charge to the Authority within the specified timescale; and/or
- (b) withhold or reduce payments to the Contractor in such amount as the Authority deems appropriate in each particular case until such failure has been remedied to the satisfaction of the Authority.

F3.5 If the Contractor has been notified of a failure in accordance with clause F3.3, it shall:

- (a) use all reasonable endeavours to immediately minimise the impact of such failure to the Authority and to prevent such failure from recurring; and
- (b) immediately give the Authority such information as the Authority may request regarding what measures are being taken to comply with the obligations in this clause F3.5 and the progress of those measures until resolved to the satisfaction of the Authority.

F3.6 If, having been notified of any failure, the Contractor fails to remedy it in accordance with clause F3.5 within the time specified by the Authority, the Authority may treat the continuing failure as a Material Breach and may terminate the Contract immediately on notice to the Contractor.

F4 Transfer and Sub-Contracting

F4.1 Except where clauses F4.5 and F4.6 both apply, the Contractor shall not transfer, novate, charge, assign, sub-contract or in any other way dispose of the Contract or any part of it without Approval. All such documents shall be evidenced in writing and shown to the Authority on request. Sub-contracting any part of the Contract shall not relieve the Contractor of any of its obligations or duties under the Contract.

F4.2 The Contractor shall be responsible for the acts and/or omissions of its Sub-Contractors as though they are its own. If it is appropriate, the Contractor shall provide each Sub-Contractor with a copy of the Contract and obtain written confirmation from them that they will provide the Services fully in accordance with the Contract.

F4.3 The Contractor shall ensure that its Sub-Contractors and suppliers retain all records relating to the Services for at least 6 years from the date of their creation and make them available to the Authority on request in accordance with the provisions of clause E9 (Audit). If any Sub-Contractor or supplier does not allow the Authority access to the records then the Authority shall have no obligation to pay any claim or invoice made by the Contractor on the basis of such documents or work carried out by the Sub-Contractor or supplier.

F4.4 If the Authority has consented to the placing of Sub-Contracts, copies of each Sub-Contract shall, at the request of the Authority, be sent by the Contractor to the Authority immediately.

F4.5 Notwithstanding clause F4.1, the Contractor may assign to a third party (the "Assignee") the right to receive payment of the Price or any part thereof due to the Contractor (including any interest which the Authority incurs under clause C2 (Payment and VAT)). Any assignment under this clause F4.5 shall be subject to:

- (a) reduction of any sums in respect of which the Authority exercises its right of recovery under clause C3 (Recovery of Sums Due);

- (b) all related rights of the Authority under the Contract in relation to the recovery of sums due but unpaid; and
- (c) the Authority receiving notification under both clauses F4.6 and F4.7.

F4.6 If the Contractor assigns the right to receive the Price under clause F4.5, the Contractor or the Assignee shall notify the Authority in writing of the assignment and the date upon which the assignment becomes effective.

F4.7 The Contractor shall ensure that the Assignee notifies the Authority of the Assignee's contact information and bank account details to which the Authority shall make payment at least [5] Working Days prior to submission of the relevant invoice.

F4.8 The provisions of clause C2 shall continue to apply in all other respects after the assignment and shall not be amended without Approval of the Authority.

F4.9 Subject to clause F4.10, the Authority may assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof to:

- (a) any Contracting Authority;
- (b) any other body established by the Crown or under statute in order substantially to perform any of the functions that had previously been performed by the Authority; or
- (c) any private sector body which substantially performs the functions of the Authority provided that any such assignment, novation or other disposal shall not increase the burden of the Contractor's obligations under the Contract.

F4.10 Any change in the legal status of the Authority such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority shall not, subject to clause F4.11, affect the validity of the Contract and the Contract shall bind and inure to the benefit of any successor body to the Authority.

F4.11 If the rights and obligations under the Contract are assigned, novated or otherwise disposed of pursuant to clause F4.9 to a body which is not a Contracting Authority or if there is a change in the legal status of the Authority such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority (in the remainder of this clause both such bodies being referred to as the "Transferee"):

- (a) the rights of termination of the Authority in clauses H1 and H2 shall be available to the Contractor in respect of the Transferee;
- (b) shall be available to the Contractor in the event of respectively, the bankruptcy or insolvency, or Default of the Transferee; and
- (b) the Transferee shall only be able to assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof with the prior consent in writing of the Contractor.

F4.12 The Authority may disclose to any Transferee any Confidential Information of the Contractor which relates to the performance of the Contractor's obligations under the Contract. In such circumstances the Authority shall authorise the Transferee to use such Confidential Information only for purposes relating to the performance of the Contractor's obligations under the Contract and for no other purpose and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Transferee gives a confidentiality undertaking in relation to such Confidential Information.

F4.13 Each Party shall at its own cost and expense carry out, or use all reasonable endeavours to ensure the carrying out of, whatever further actions (including the execution of further documents) the other Party reasonably requires from time to time for the purpose of giving that other Party the full benefit of the provisions of the Contract.

F4.14 The Authority shall be entitled to novate the Contract to any other body which substantially performs any of the functions that previously had been performed by the Authority.

F4.15 Provided that the Authority has given prior written consent, the Supplier shall be entitled to novate the Contract where:

(a) the specific change in contractor was provided for in the procurement process for the award of this Contract;

(b) there has been a universal or partial succession into the position of the Supplier, following a corporate restructuring, including takeover, merger, acquisition or insolvency, by another economic operator that meets the criteria for qualitative selection applied in the procurement process for the award of this Contract.

F5 Waiver

F5.1 The failure of either Party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of the Contract, or the failure of either Party to exercise, or any delay in exercising, any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy and shall not cause a diminution of the obligations established by the Contract.

F5.2 No waiver shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and communicated to the other Party in writing in accordance with clause A4 (Notices and Communications).

F5.3 A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other or subsequent breach of the Contract.

F6 Variation

F6.1 If, after the Commencement Date, the Authority's requirements change, the Authority may request a Variation subject to the terms of this clause F6.

F6.2 The Authority may request a Variation by notifying the Contractor in writing of the Variation and giving the Contractor sufficient information to assess the extent of the Variation and consider whether any change to the Price is required in order to implement the Variation within a reasonable time limit specified by the Authority. If the Contractor accepts the Variation it shall confirm it in writing.

F6.3 If the Contractor is unable to accept the Variation or where the Parties are unable to agree a change to the Price, the Authority may:

(a) allow the Contractor to fulfil its obligations under the Contract without the Variation to the Specification; or

(b) terminate the Contract immediately except where the Contractor has already delivered all or part of the Services or where the Contractor can show evidence of substantial work being carried out to fulfil the requirements of the Specification; and in such case the Parties shall attempt to agree upon a resolution to the matter. If a resolution cannot be reached, the matter shall be dealt with under the Dispute Resolution procedure detailed in clause I2 (Dispute Resolution).

F6.4 Any Variation will not take effect unless recorded in a Change of Control Notice as attached hereto in Schedule 4 and approved in writing by the Authority.

F6.5 The provisions of clause F6.4 may be varied in an emergency if it is not practicable to obtain the Authorised Representative's approval within the time necessary to make the Variation in order to address the emergency. In an emergency, Variations may be approved by a different representative of the Authority. However, the Authorised Representative shall have the right to review such a Variation and require a Change of Control Notice to be entered into on a retrospective basis which may itself vary the emergency Variation.

F7 Severability

F7.1 If any provision of the Contract which is not of a fundamental nature is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect as if the Contract had been executed with the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision eliminated.

F8 Remedies Cumulative

F8.1 Except as expressly provided in the Contract all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Contract are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of any one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.

F9 Entire Agreement

F9.1 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in respect of the matters dealt with therein. The Contract supersedes all prior negotiations between the Parties and all representations and undertakings made by one Party to the other, whether written or oral, except that this clause shall not exclude liability in respect of any fraudulent misrepresentation.

F9.2 In the event of, and only to the extent of, any conflict between the clauses of the Contract, any document referred to in those clauses and the Schedules, the conflict shall be resolved in accordance with the following order of precedence:

- (a) the clauses of the Contract;
- (b) the Schedules; and
- (c) any other document referred to in the clauses of the Contract.

F10 Counterparts

F10.1 The Contract may be executed in counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall constitute an original but all counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

G LIABILITIES

G1 Liability, Indemnity and Insurance

G1.1 Neither Party limits its liability for:

- (a) death or personal injury caused by its negligence;
- (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
- (c) any breach of any obligations implied by section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982;

SCHEDULE 1 - SPECIFICATION

CQC's service requirement in respect of 'Tell Us About Your Care' Partnerships is detailed below:

- The provision of a continuous supply of agreed volumes of Share your experience web forms - completed by the supplier on behalf of a member of the public - providing information about individual experiences of care at named health and social care services. This is for the purpose of supporting ongoing monitoring of services to enable effective regulation of the quality of health and social care services in England. Supplier(s) must already hear from members of the public reporting experiences of care at named health and social care services across England as part of existing business functions.
- Promotion of CQC to the public, the standards of care people have a right to expect, CQC's role in regulating, monitoring and inspecting services, and encouragement for people to use our inspection reports to inform choice, and to share experiences to improve care for others in the future.
- Enhancing CQC's ability to raise awareness of its work, and hear from people with protected characteristics and those who are seldom heard / vulnerable due to their circumstances.
- Enhancing CQC's ability to promote and encourage public participation (across our key population groups including those who are seldom heard and/or vulnerable because of their circumstances) in our consultation and informal engagement activity to influence decisions CQC takes about how we do our job.

CQC's requirement is based upon the delivery of the following services:

Lot 1: Direct supply of CQC Share Your Experience web-forms (on a continuous basis)

The direct supply of CQC Share Your Experience web-forms on a continuous basis will provide qualitative information from members of the public about individual experiences of care at named health and social care services subject to regulation by CQC. The supplier(s) must already hear from members of the public reporting experiences of care at named health and social care services across England as part of existing business functions. The supply should be existing rather than something that has to be stimulated.

- Ongoing supply of Share Your Experience web-forms completed by the supplier on behalf of a member of the public - Individual relevant experiences to be identified, summarised and converted into a supply of web-forms by trained helpline staff of organisations already delivering a national helpline service to people who use health and care services and their loved ones/carers.
- Ongoing promotion of the Share Your Experience web-form, of CQC, our role and purpose, and our narrative about why CQC needs information about people's experiences of care to prevent poor care happening to others, to those seeking helpline services and through contractor's channels and joint media, including the distribution of a jointly branded printed leaflet.
- Project management, helpline delivery, helpline supervision, communications and promotion, quality assurance and evaluation
- Collaboration on CQC-led public campaigns (up to x4 per year). These campaigns will align with the objectives of the Tell us about your care programme and will have key messages to increase awareness of CQC, the standards of care people have a right to expect under regulation, our inspection reports and ratings and to encourage people to share their experiences of care. Collaborative work to include (i) collaborative quotes for use in related CQC media work, and (ii) contractor's own activity that leads to news and social media coverage

- Promotion of relevant thematic reviews, consultations and other CQC initiatives
- Collaborative working arrangements so CQC can access and use organisation's owned participation mechanisms to support CQC coproduction and consultation activity e.g. forum discussions with organisations online communities, or face to face events. (up to x5 per year)

The Authority is procuring the services for the direct supply of Share Your Experience forms as follows:

- Contracts will be established based on agreed anticipated SYE volumes, evidenced through supply of facts and figures by the contractor which demonstrate volumes of information being received by the organisation, and confidence in receiving consent to share with CQC.
- CQC anticipates establishing multiple contracts, each delivering an agreed supply of SYE forms
- Depending on final costs agreed CQC has indicative budget to be able to pay for in the region of 3000 - 4000 SYE per each year of the contract.
- Based on market engagement, CQC have determined the optimal cost per SYE form is £30, this figure includes all associated overheads and all elements that fall within the requirements of Lot 1.
- CQC does not propose to partner with an organisation that can supply less than 100 SYE forms per year.
- CQC regulates a wide range of health and social care services including all NHS hospitals, GPs practices, care homes, home-care agencies, dentists, independent health care providers and others. A full list of the services CQC is responsible for regulating is available from <http://www.cqc.org.uk/content/services-we-regulate> We want to hear the experiences of people using all of these services, to help us monitor services and make decisions about when, where and what to inspect.
- CQC acknowledges the challenges in obtaining Share Your Experience information on Adult Social Care services (in comparison to information regarding healthcare services). This is also the area where CQC has less existing information about the quality of these services from other intelligence sources. CQC also wishes to hear more about the care experiences of people with a learning disability. Given that, CQC is proposing to weight allocation of contracts to supply of Share Your Experience web-forms as follows:
 - Supply of Adult Social Care (ASC) SYE web-forms up to 50% of 3000 (1500) SYE or 30% of £120,000 - £36,000 (whichever comes first)
 - Supply of SYE web-forms up to 30% of 3000 (900) SYE or 20% of £120,000 - £24,000 (whichever comes first) about the experiences of people with a learning disability

This is CQC's weighting approach but CQC still welcomes bids from suppliers that cover other CQC regulated services and/or population groups.

- CQC has an upper cost envelope of £30,000 for any one supplier, based on no more than 6 contractors, to be awarded where exceptional compliance with our requirements is demonstrated. We reserve the right to award more than six contracts if budget allows.
- Payments will be made in arrears on a quarterly basis.

The contractor should:

- Evidence that they routinely hear from individuals about their experiences of health and social care services through their core functions, in a way that these can be transcribed to Share Your Experience forms by that organisation on behalf of the individual
- Describe clearly and provide evidence for the volumes of SYE forms they anticipate being able to deliver for what service types and what population groups, per month and per year, and at what cost. We anticipate overall costs for this supply of Share Your Experience web-forms will be calculated by suppliers taking into account administrative costs for the time of a helpline worker to submit the information to CQC including any time involved in providing support and reassurance required to encourage a person to consent to share their concerns with CQC, recognising that more support may be needed in this area where individuals are raising concerns about adult social care services. Suppliers should also include costs for project management, access to the contractor's owned communications channels, and for support for joint media.
- Describe clearly which population groups they hear from already, and have access to through their owned communication channels.

AUTHORITY RESPONSIBILITIES

LOT 1: Direct supply of CQC Share Your Experience web-forms (on a continuous basis)

- CQC will identify a member or members of the Public Engagement team to act as a point of contact for the contractor
- CQC will supply a report to the contractor after six months and at the end of the contract detailing the volume of information received through the partnership and the action taken in response (against the KPIs identified in section 5). Any publication of statistics from these reports should be agreed with CQC.
- CQC will provide x1 training session (approximately 1hr, at a mutually agreed location) to the contractor's helpline team, or equivalent, to explain the processes for submitting information to CQC on behalf of individuals as part of the partnership
- CQC will liaise with the contractor to agree a jointly branded public-facing leaflet that encourages people to share their experiences of care, the standards people have a right to expect, the role of the regulator and the partnership between CQC and the contractor. The design of this leaflet will follow existing 'Tell us' materials and certain content (about CQC's role and the standards of care people have a right to expect) will be fixed. CQC will design and print this leaflet for the contractor to distribute in quantities to be agreed.

- d) Provide the Commission with timely and ongoing evaluation and quality assurance information relating to the programme as per each of the KPIs outlined below; and
- e) Provide the Commission with regular budget updates as required by CQC.

SCHEDULE 2 – TENDER RESPONSE

GENERIC QUESTIONS (TO COVER BOTH LOT 1 AND LOT 2) – TO BE ANSWERED BY ALL BIDDERS

Requirement Statements	Question Weighting
Overview Bidders must provide a concise summary highlighting the key aspects of the proposal. Response Word Limit – 500 words Response: [Please enter your response here] Building on our learning from delivering Phase 1 of the Tell Us About Your Care programme, Mind will continue to use our helplines (the Mind Infoline and Legal Line) as the primary source of referrals. Our helpline Advisors will complete SYE Forms on behalf of callers while on the phone, informing callers of the role of CQC and discussing the five key questions. We currently complete around █ SYE Forms per month, with feedback from CQC demonstrating the high quality of these referrals. We now aim to increase this number to around █ per month for an annual total of █ Mind's helpline Advisors have already received training from CQC in the use of the SYE Forms, and would therefore require little in the way of additional training / support to reboot this project, meaning we are able to enter into Phase 2 of the programme immediately. We hear from over 5,000 people every month via our helplines, many of whom have direct experiences of adult social care. Each month, around 200 people contact us to discuss their treatment and / or experiences related to that treatment, which could be support from a GP, a community mental health team, a crisis team or hospital. Our previous Tell Us About Your Care reports show that around a third of these calls are about adult social care, and two thirds relating to hospitals and primary medical care services. In addition, we will promote the CQC partnership and the Tell Us About Your Care programme through a wide range of owned communication channels and our network of over 130 local Minds throughout England and Wales. We will also collaborate on CQC-led public campaigns as required.	Please note that this response is not evaluated and should be used to contextualise the Tenderer's response.

Mind is the leading mental health charity in England and Wales. Since 1946, we have provided advice and support to anyone experiencing a mental health problem, and campaigned to improve services, raise awareness and promote understanding. Results from the July 2015 Charity Awareness Monitor (conducted by NFP Synergy) showed that over 65% of the population were aware of Mind and our work, and we are one of the top three best known charities working in the mental health sector.

The Programme Manager for the Tell Us About Your Care partnership programme will be [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has overall responsibility for Mind's information, helpline and publication programmes, and acts as Head of Service for Mind's helplines (the Infoline and Legal Line), including overseeing contractual performance with our third-party contact centre provider, C [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is also lay member of the NHS Clinical Information Advisory Group where he advocates for the interests of people with mental health problems, and is Mind's spokesperson on common mental health problems and support / treatments.

On the ground, our helpline Advisors are employees of [REDACTED] a specialist contact centre provider who are sub-contracted by Mind to deliver both our Infoline and Legal Line services. We receive over 60,000 calls every year.

Established in 2006 as a social enterprise company, [REDACTED] provide dedicated helplines, digital services and helpline consultancy services to charities, the third sector and public sector organisations. Based in the South Wales Valleys, they are committed to providing jobs and growth opportunities for people living in the local area, and have made a significant contribution to the community (for example, nearly half of their growing team have joined [REDACTED] following a period of unemployment).

[REDACTED] hold a number of key accreditations, including ISO 9001 (customer need / regulatory compliance), ISO 27001 (data security and information asset management), and Level 4 of the Green Dragon Environmental Standard.

All of the data held by [REDACTED] in relation to the Mind contract is hosted in the UK, and there is extensive security in place to ensure that systems are highly available and secure. Regular penetration testing is undertaken (and Microsoft does not hold any rights over data stored on the systems).

Our frontline team [REDACTED] is made up of 14.5 FTE Advisors, 1 FTE Supervisor and 2 supporting Counsellors. Advisors are line managed by the on-site Supervisor, who in turn reports into the Head of Information at the Mind head office in London. We operate ongoing quality assurance protocols, including weekly sessions between the Advisors and our Information Team to discuss difficult calls and emails, update them on changes to law and policy, and spot check randomly selected calls to ensure a consistently high quality of response.

All Advisors undergo an intensive five day induction and call handling training for people with mental health problems (ensuring staff are able to respond appropriately and sensitively to vulnerable people who may be in crisis). This is further supplemented by annual training plans, regular supervision support and the weekly consultation sessions. The nature of the enquiries varies widely, as do the needs of the caller (or writer, in the case of email and written contact). We also signpost service users to appropriate sources of help if further assistance is required, including our central Information Team, our Legal Unit and the nearest local Minds in our national network.

Mind is governed by a board of Trustees, known as the Council of Management, which is currently made up of 14 people, half of whom are voted for and drawn from Mind's membership. Trustees are recruited from diverse backgrounds with a broad mix of skills and expertise, including a partner at Deloitte, a director at a leading children's charity, a former director general in the civil service, a media strategist, lawyers, academics and psychiatrists. Additionally, at least half of our Trustees must have direct experience of mental health problems to ensure the needs of our service users remains at the heart of our decision making, and includes members of black and minority ethnic communities.

Performance is robustly monitored and scrutinised at both Trustee and manager levels. Each programme has performance indicators and milestones which are monitored at manager and director level and, should any issues arise, this will be looked at and resolved by the Mind Executive Team (which meets every six weeks). These report into, and are reviewed by, the appropriate Council of Management Sub-Committee, which meet quarterly.

Mind's work to deliver its strategy is organised into workstreams and programmes. Each programme has a director level sponsor who is responsible for cross-functional planning and ensuring synergies between workstreams are identified. They also ensure that outcomes and outputs within workstreams and programmes are in line with the Mind evaluation framework. A Programme Manager leads on the development and delivery of each programme within budgets and resources.

Exit Strategy & Skills Transfer Please describe the processes and deliverables of the exit phase of the service, and how skills will be retained within the Authority. Your response should include, but not be limited to, the following considerations: • How your organisation will ensure the transfer of knowledge back into CQC, and exit the contract in such a way as to facilitate re-procurement and/or project termination; • A description of credible knowledge transfer arrangements and exit strategy, which can achieve the required outputs. Response: [Please enter your response here] At the conclusion of the contract period, Mind will undertake all reasonable steps within appropriate timeframes (to be agreed) to enable either the wind-up of the delivery of the project, or the transfer of delivery to another agency or CQC. We will also seek to maintain a good ongoing relationship with CQC and continue to support their work to benefit people with mental health problems. Mind will co-operate with CQC (or any replacement agency selected to run the service) following the completion of Mind's contract, and will respond promptly to any / all reasonable requests for information, excluding any matters which would require the sharing of financial or commercially sensitive information (such as our contractual arrangements [REDACTED], or information which if shared would put at risk any of Mind's other obligations to data protection and confidentiality. It is proposed that at the end of the contract period, Mind will: 1. Return to CQC any remaining hard-copy promotional materials concerning this project 2. Create a data report from our CRM system which outputs all (anonymised) contacts made and recorded in relation to the project from the start of contract to its end 3. Produce a summary report of Mind's experience of running the project, and any lessons learned 4. Make relevant staff available for a verbal debrief with CQC as required	Weighting = 5%

LOT-SPECIFIC QUESTIONS – LOT 1 (DIRECT SUPPLY OF SYE FORMS)

Response: [Please enter your response here] As the leading mental health charity in England and Wales, Mind directly supports over 375,000 people through our network of over 130 independent local Minds. As such, we have excellent links and strong relationships with people with direct experience of mental health problems, individuals currently being treated in / via the healthcare system, and the friends, families and carers of people experiencing mental health problems. As the go-to charity for mental health services users, our brand will lend the Tell Us About Your Care programme additional credibility with this particular audience.

We operate around 1,600 national and local projects and programmes through our network and in partnership with other third sector organisations, undertaking a wide range of different activities (from peer support projects to talking therapies) working with numerous audiences and at-risk groups. We also offer mental health training and consultancy.

Since 2008, Mind has been working to understand and advocate for the mental health needs of vulnerable migrants, BME communities and other groups with protected characteristics. Through our Equality Improvement Team, we maintain a strategic profile and dedicated resource aimed at addressing the issues of racial inequality in relation to mental health. Across many of our projects and programmes, we also specifically target at-risk groups, such as pregnant women and young mums, the unemployed, people with a long-term physical health condition and older people.

Through the Mind Infoline and Legal Line, we hear from over 5,000 people every month. Our own statistics report that around 200 people each month want to discuss their treatment or experiences related to their treatment, which could be support from a GP, a community mental health team, a crisis team or hospital.

Mind delivered Phase 1 of the Tell Us About Your Care programme, and we submitted around [REDACTED] completed SYE Forms per month, with feedback from CQC demonstrating the high quality of these referrals. We propose that our helplines continue to be the primary source of referrals, with our Advisors empowered to complete SYE Forms on behalf of callers while on the phone, informing callers of the role of CQC and discussing the five key questions.

Mind's helpline Advisors have already received training from CQC in use of the SYE Forms, and would therefore require little in the way of additional training / support to reboot this project, meaning we are able to enter into Phase 2 of the programme immediately.

The helplines collect both quantitative and qualitative data on all contacts and activity, which is compiled into monthly reports (which we would be happy to share upon request, as well as externally commissioned annual evaluations). We operate ongoing quality assurance protocols, including weekly sessions between the Advisors and our Information Team to discuss difficult calls and emails, update them on changes to law and policy, and spot check randomly selected calls to ensure a consistently high quality of response.

We have an agreed quality framework and assessment process with [REDACTED] This includes both Mind and Connect Assist management staff listening to a number of selected calls each month, and independently scoring them for quality and outcome. Our expected minimum quality score for each call is 80%, and any Advisor who falls below this level on a reviewed call is put onto an appropriate training / action plan.

Each quarter, we carry about a more in-depth calibration of call quality, where we isolate calls on a particular theme to review in detail. We have built into our quality reporting system the ability to identify, download and review calls during which concerns have been raised about the quality of received healthcare.

We currently complete around [REDACTED] Forms per month as part of the Tell Us About Your Care programme, but conservatively expect to increase this number to around [REDACTED] per month [REDACTED] of which will relate to adult social care. Our new CRM system (which was not in place during the first contract period) will allow us to handle more enquires, and therefore the number of people we hear from with questions about the quality of their care.

Throughout 2016/17, we will be undertaking a planned marketing campaign around our helpline services, which is likely to further increase the overall volume of enquiries we receive (with the expectation that demand will increase to around 100,000 incoming contacts per year) and can promote the Tell Us About Your Care programme when appropriate to do so.

Our owned communication channels that can also be used to promote this project include:

- Mind.org.uk – with over 650,000 unique users visiting the site each month
- Elefriends – online peers support community with over 30,000 members
- Facebook – 240,000 followers
- Twitter – 275,000 followers
- Mind membership – 3,000 paid-for members receiving quarterly comms
- Helplines – inbound contact from over 60,000 people each year

Mind has a network of over 300 local Minds and Mind shops across England and Wales, each of which can be used as an outlet for hard-copy promotional material provided by CQC. We also have an established membership base and means of communicating with those members, and an extremely well-followed social media presence.

We will also promote the SYE Forms to all of our local Mind partners via the Mind OpenHub, a dedicated online platform to share information and resources across our network, inviting local projects to make referrals if service users raise concerns about their care. We would also provide details of our partnership with CQC on the Mind website, as well as a link to the SYE Forms for online visitors (which we will monitor using Google Analytics).

A Senior Communications Officer will be tasked with including CQC messaging into our existing external communication activity as appropriate, as well as sourcing volunteers to provide quotes and take part in consultation activities.

Experience Please provide detailed examples of similar work that you have undertaken in order to provide us with an appreciation of your abilities to successfully fulfil the service requirements. Your response should include, but not be limited to: • Evidence of volumes of calls to helpline (or equivalent) per year regarding health and/or social care experiences • Evidence – including volumes where known, that you hear experiences of care, on an ongoing basis from: ◦ People receiving adult social care – or their loved ones ◦ People with a learning disability, or their loved ones ◦ People using any CQC regulated service that do not fall into either of the above categories • Details of existing reach, in numbers, through owned communications channels – broken down (where known) by population groups including those with protected characteristics and those who are seldom heard • Case studies that show outcomes of your work and evidence of trust and positive reputation amongst the population groups you work with Response Word Limit – No Limit Supporting Attachments Permitted? - NO	Weighting = 20%
Response: [Please enter your response here] Mind successfully delivered Phase 1 of Tell Us About Your Care and recognises the importance of this programme, and the need to follow leads from as many sources as possible to inform CQC's work. As an organisation, we are committed to giving a voice to those concerned about their healthcare, and this programme also supports our latest strategy, Building on Change (2016-2021). We hear from over 5,000 people every month via our helplines, many of who have direct experiences of adult social care. Each month, around 200 people contact us to discuss their treatment and / or experiences related to that treatment, which could be support from a GP, a community mental health team, a crisis team or hospital. Our previous Tell Us About Your Care reports show that around a third of these calls are about adult social care, and two thirds relating to hospitals and primary medical care services, though we would expect very few to be about, or from, people with a learning disability. As mental health problems can affect anyone, Mind hears from and works with people from almost every conceivable background, covering gender, sexuality, ethnicity, age and socio-economic group.

Our helplines are staffed by a dedicated team of highly-trained Advisors providing telephone, email and written support. Lines are open 9am to 6pm, Monday to Friday, and people can also arrange a call back if necessary. Our most recent evaluation report (conducted by BMG Research and released in January 2015) showed that 96% of people took action after speaking to an Advisor, such as talking to friends or family about their mental health for the first time, or contacting a local Mind for help.

All Advisors undergo an intensive five day induction and call handling training for people with mental health problems (ensuring staff are able to respond appropriately and sensitively to vulnerable people who may be in crisis). This is further supplemented by annual training plans, regular supervision support and weekly consultation sessions. The nature of the enquiries varies widely, as do the needs of the caller (or writer, in the case of email and written contact). We also signpost service users to appropriate sources of help if further assistance is required, including our central Information Team, our Legal Unit and the nearest local Minds in our national network.

All contacts received via our helpline are recorded directly from our telephony system into a dedicated CRM system (Oracle Service Cloud). Sensitive data is purged on a rolling three-month basis while we retain outline contact details to enable monthly reporting and historical comparisons on volume, demographics and presenting topic.

Our owned communication channels that can also be used to promote this project include:

- Mind.org.uk – with over 650,000 unique users visiting the site each month
- Elefriends – online peers support community with over 30,000 members
- Facebook – 240,000 followers
- Twitter – 275,000 followers
- Mind membership – 3,000 paid-for members receiving quarterly comms
- Helplines – inbound contact from over 60,000 people each year

Case study one (from helpline)

One of our Advisors took a call from a man who was very concerned about his mother, who had been experiencing symptoms of paranoia for some time. As a Bangladeshi family, his mother was very reluctant to get help due to cultural stigma about mental health problems and her English language skills were also very limited. She had become convinced that her family were in a conspiracy to have her sectioned and then killed.

The Advisor spent time listening to the caller's concerns and acknowledged how difficult the situation was, recognising that the caller wanted the best for their mother. The caller went on to say that he had held an intervention including extended family members, but this seemed to make his mother much worse.

The Advisor explained that this may have been very intimidating for his mother, especially if she believed the family wanted to hurt her, and being told she was wrong all the time could further negatively impact her emotions. They suggested concentrating on the mother's feelings and how she felt persecuted and very scared. The Advisor went on to explain what paranoia was and directed the caller to additional information on the Mind website about supporting a family member experiencing symptoms. The caller said they had a meeting set up with the family GP about his mother and he also had some questions about the Mental Health Act. The Advisor let them know about the information available on the Mind website in relation to the Mental Health Act and sectioning, and directed them to the Mind Legal Line. The caller was also provided with details of their local Mind (Mind in Tower Hamlets and Newham) and was grateful to hear there was a local Mind in their area and that they work closely with families of ethnic minorities, as he felt the family needed that support at the moment. Case study two (from helpline) A call was received from a woman who was concerned about her mental health. She had experienced depression and anxiety, and was worried that she may be experiencing unshared perceptions as she had started to see spirits. The Advisor empathised with her, recognising how scary and isolating it can feel to see things that others don't. The Advisor explored a number of support options and checked whether the caller had spoken to their doctor about their new experiences. The caller was also directed to information on the Mind website and reassured them that they were not alone and welcome to call back whenever they needed. Example praise from helpline users The following are extracts taken from our end of call survey: • Thank you. You have been the only person who has listened and understood how I am feeling. You have been the only one to provide me with information that is of use. • Thanks so much for such a thoughtful and considered response. I really appreciate it. • Thank you so much for all the info. It's really helped me clear a few things up. I've looked at the links you have provided and the advice given is really good. I really appreciate the time you have taken to help. • I tried ACAS and they didn't give me the answers I was looking for. You've listened and given me the time. You've been very helpful.

SCHEDULE 3 - PRICING

Mind (the National Association for Mental Health) PRICING SCHEDULE – LOT 1

- ☐ Costs for the direct supply of SYE Forms over the course of one year

The cost of supplying [REDACTED] over the course of one year will be £21,600.

Our helpline providers, Connect Assist, estimate that it will take approximately 8 minutes on average to complete a SYE Form while on a call. As our contract rate for the coming year with [REDACTED] equates to around [REDACTED] per call minute on a full-cost recovery basis (the total helpline contract price divided by the total number of Advisor minutes available to us in year), we estimate the full cost to Mind of each completed SYE form to be [REDACTED]

However, given the importance of this programme and the willingness of Mind to support the work of CQC, we propose working to the optimal cost per SYE Form (as determined by CQC) of [REDACTED] with the outstanding amount to be considered in-kind support provided by Mind.

[REDACTED] = £21,600

- ☐ Volume of SYE Forms that can be supply over the course of one year
