

Intellectual Property Log

All intellectual property to be used in the delivery of NAHT Aspire ILT is owned by Edison Learning with the exception of the T-GROW model of coaching that is based on the original GROW model of Graham Alexander and John Whitmore and informed by the principles of effective coaching in Myles Downey's Effective Coaching 2003.. The T-GROW model is used alongside Edison Learning's Quality Frameworks – The Quality Framework for Learning and Teaching; the Quality Framework for Leadership.

Below is a log of the EdisonLearning Intellectual Property to be used in the delivery of the NAHT Aspire ILT programme, organised under the relevant programme components.
