Overview

Operating internationally, WFD works with parliaments, political parties, and civil society groups as well as on elections to help make political systems fairer, more inclusive, and more accountable.

We are a problem-solving, practitioner-led organisation that offers:

- Specialist analysis, research, and advice to inform policy makers on a range of democratic governance issues;
- High quality and impactful programmes that directly support the full spectrum of institutions in political systems to develop inclusive political processes, more accountable political systems, protection of rights and freedoms, and more pluralistic societies; and
- International elections observation on behalf of the UK.

WFD is issuing this Invitation to Tender (“ITT”) to a range of potential suppliers of goods and/or services and would welcome a bid from your organisation.

We are looking for an organisation/supplier to deliver the outlined project to the highest standard, and utilising the most creative approach, whilst considering time and budget restrictions and ensuring that the project is delivered on time.

Detailed Specification

Objective

It is clearer than ever that human dignity and social progress are closely linked to democratic freedoms. But democracy is not easy or inevitable.

We live in a period of increased risk to democratic freedoms around the world. Westminster Foundation for Democracy (WFD) is the UK public body dedicated to strengthening democracy around the world.

WFD's Communications and External Affairs team aims to showcase the importance, value and impact of our work in an accessible way. We also want to raise awareness of WFD more broadly and position the organisation as a global thought leader, influential voice and a trusted regional partner.

We aim to communicate the relevance of the work that WFD does to strengthen democracy and tackle global issues that impact everyone. These issues include responding to climate change, reducing pollution, improving the inclusion of LGBTQ+ people and people with disabilities and creating more opportunities for women and girls. We position WFD as a problem solver – working in countries and territories throughout the world on long term projects and programmes. We want to show that we are an international organisation with good local knowledge – most of the people who work for WFD are from the places where we are delivering projects and programmes.

WFD launched a 3-year strategy in October 2022 and we would like to develop an inspirational travelling / mobile exhibition as a way of engaging with UK parliamentarians, WFD funders and partners, as well as the wider public. The exhibition could launch in the Houses of Parliament but should be suitable for a range of locations / venues around the UK and in the countries where we work.

The exhibition should help make the case for our work. The following themes and topics could be included in the exhibition:

- The state of democracy in the world
- The benefits of democracy
- WFD's work and its impact
- The work and impact of WFD's partners

All content developed as part of this project needs to be accessible, easy to understand and there needs to be the option of translating it into multiple languages. WFD may seek partners for the exhibition, so the concept should illustrate opportunities for partner or sponsor visibility in the exhibition.

We would like the exhibition to have a unique concept and look and feel that can also be used as part of a social media campaign and works like a thread throughout all communications around the exhibition.

Scope of work

CONCEPT AND DESIGN WORK:

This invitation to tender covers two phases: concept and design (phase 1) and delivery (phase 2). We would like to invite you to put forward an outline proposal to develop the following:

Phase 1: Deliverables (concept and design)

1. A concept for a WFD 'democracy' exhibition that can easily travel to different places in the UK and overseas. The content needs to be flexible, and it may, at times, be displayed in a corridor or small room. It may be put outside or displayed on a stand in a large open exhibition centre. One of the venues might need the exhibition to be dismantled within 6 hours.
2. The concept should include a digital concept/strategy for the exhibition to be used online (on our website, in digital newsletters, on social media).
3. A printed element (flyer, postcard, or poster).
4. A title for the exhibition that can be used as a hashtag.
5. The exhibition concept should contain all copy elements for the exhibition and for all suggested digital applications.
6. Specifications for illustrations and/or photography that need to be commissioned as part of phase 2.
7. A detailed quote for print and production costs for the suggested exhibition concept, refining the indicative cost estimate given as part of the bid, including a high-level delivery plan and lead times for the production process as part of phase 2. Please note, supply of printing services is not included as part of the contract for phase 1 or phase 2.
8. The project needs to be based on WFD's brand guidelines, but it should have its own identity/treatment aligned with these. The design might need to incorporate one or more sponsor logos.

Phase 2: Deliverables (delivery of exhibition)

Based on the design and concept delivered in phase 1 and subject to availability of funding, WFD may decide to go ahead with phase 2 of the project. In that case, the selected supplier will be asked to deliver the remainder of the project – including:

1. Design of content / delivery of proposal as set out in phase 1
2. Project management of the commission and production of illustrations and/or photography and other content, including a detailed work plan and liaising with contributors.
3. A communication plan for the exhibition

Timeline

To support the development of the exhibition design we will provide 10 to 20 key messages that we want the exhibition to communicate, 6 case studies that show the themes we work on and content that communicates why there's an urgent need to strengthen democracy around the world. These will be provided by early February 2023 and the design and concept for the exhibition would then need to be developed between then and 31 March 2023. Subject to availability of funding, we anticipate the exhibition will first take place between April and December 2023.

Minimum experience and expertise

We expect the supplier to deliver to the highest professional industry standards and expect the exhibition to meet UK health and safety standards and that all reasonable care is taken to avoid any unnecessary risks to members of the public or WFD staff.

- any bids which do not fully comply with the requirements of this ITT may be disregarded at the absolute discretion of WFD.

Evaluation criteria

WFD does not provide a mathematical formula by which bids will be weighted evaluated, but the procurement committee will usually consider the following criteria, among others in the evaluation of all responses:

- ✓ Quality of bid document
- ✓ Service offer and solution fit to specification
- ✓ Quality, capacity, and track-record of bidders based on references
- ✓ Value for money and pricing factors
- ✓ Professional profile, track record, and references
- ✓ Relevant experience, including case studies

WFD will score each criterion using the following table:

0	The proposal submitted omits and fundamentally fails to meet WFD's scope and specifications. Insufficient evidence to support the proposal to allow WFD to evaluate. Not Answered
1	The information submitted has a severe lack of evidence to demonstrate that WFD's scope and specifications can be met. Significant omissions, serious and/or many concerns. Poor
2	The information submitted has some minor omissions in respect of WFD's scope and specifications. The tender satisfies the basic requirements in some respects but is unsatisfactory in other respects and raises some concerns. Satisfactory.
3	The information submitted provides some good evidence to meet the WFD's scope and specifications and is satisfactory in most respects and there are few concerns. Good.
4	The information submitted provides good evidence that all of WFD's scope and specification can be met. Full and robust response, any concerns are addressed so that the proposal gives confidence. Very Good.

5	The information submitted provides strong evidence that all of WFD's scope and specification can be met and the proposal exceeds expectation i.e., exemplary in the industry. Provides full confidence and no concerns. Outstanding

WFD, Summary of Safeguarding Policy

Our values and principles

Child abuse is when anyone under 18 years of age is being harmed or isn't being looked after properly. Abuse can also be directed at vulnerable adults. Vulnerable adults are those aged 18 years or more who either identify themselves as unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or exploitation, or due to their gender, age or physical illness, mental health, learning or physical disabilities, as well as disasters and conflicts, and who are unable or unwilling as a result to identify themselves as vulnerable or subject to abuse, but are deemed at risk, because they are or may be unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or exploitation. Vulnerable adults may include employees, contractors, and/or beneficiaries.

The abuse can be physical, sexual, emotional or neglect. The abuse and exploitation of children and vulnerable adults happens in all countries and societies across the world. Abuse towards children and vulnerable adults is never acceptable.

It is expected that all who work with WFD are committed to safeguard children and any vulnerable individuals whom they employ or are in contact with.

What we do

WFD is committed to safeguard children and vulnerable individuals through the following means:

Awareness: Ensuring that all staff and those who work with WFD are aware of the problem of child and vulnerable person abuse and the risks to children and vulnerable adults.

Prevention: Ensuring, through awareness and good practice, that staff and those who work with WFD minimise the risks to children and vulnerable adults.

Reporting: Ensuring that you are clear on what steps to take where concerns arise regarding the safety of children and vulnerable adults.

Responding: Ensuring that action is taken to support and protect children and vulnerable adults where concerns arise regarding possible abuse.

To help you clarify our safeguarding approach, we list here examples of the behaviour by a representative of WFD which are prohibited. These include but are not limited to:

1. Hitting or otherwise physically assaulting or physically abusing children or vulnerable adults.
2. Engaging in sexual activity or having a sexual relationship with anyone under the age of 18 years regardless of the age of majority/consent or custom locally. Mistaken belief in the age of a child is not a defence.
3. Developing relationships with children or vulnerable adults which could in any way be deemed exploitative or abusive.

4. Acting in ways that may be abusive in any way or may place a child or vulnerable adult at risk of abuse.
5. Using language, making suggestions or offering advice which is inappropriate, offensive or abusive.
6. Behaving physically in a manner which is inappropriate or sexually provocative.
7. Sleeping in the same bed or same room as a child or vulnerable adult or having a child/children or vulnerable adult with whom one is working to stay overnight at a home unsupervised.
8. Doing things for children or vulnerable adults of a personal nature that they can do themselves.
9. Condoning, or participating in, behaviour of children or vulnerable adults which is illegal, unsafe or abusive.
10. Acting in ways intended to shame, humiliate, belittle or degrade children or vulnerable adults, or otherwise perpetrate any form of emotional abuse.
11. Discriminating against, showing unfair differential treatment or favour to particular children or vulnerable adults to the exclusion of others.
12. Spending excessive time alone with children or vulnerable adults away from others.
13. Placing oneself in a position where one is made vulnerable to allegations of misconduct.

In order that the above standards of reporting and responding are met, this is what is expected of you:

You should ensure that your staff are aware of the importance of good practice in safeguarding and have access to a whistleblowing facility.

If you or your staff are worried that a child or young person or a vulnerable adult is being abused or neglected or you are concerned about the inappropriate behaviour of an employee, or someone working with WFD, towards a child or young person or vulnerable adult, whether they are an employee or beneficiary, then you are obliged to:

- act quickly and get help
- support and respect the child or vulnerable adult
- where possible, ensure that the child or vulnerable adult is safe
- contact your WFD manager and/or the WFD Director of Operations & Company Secretary, Chris Lane, at chris.lane@wfd.org with your concerns immediately
- keep any information confidential to you and the manager.

If you want to know more about WFD's Safeguarding Policy, then please contact your WFD representative.

WFD, Summary of Anti-Fraud Bribery and Corruption Policy

Our values and principles

WFD does not allow any partner, supplier, sub-contractor, agent or any individual engaged by WFD to behave in a corrupt manner while carrying out WFD's work.

What we do

WFD is committed to preventing acts of fraud, bribery and corruption through the following means:

Awareness: Ensuring that all staff and those who work with WFD are aware of the problem of fraud and bribery and corruption.

Prevention: Ensuring, through awareness and good practice, that staff and those who work with WFD minimise the risks of fraud and bribery and corruption.

Reporting: Ensuring that all staff and those who work with WFD are clear on what steps to take where concerns arise regarding allegations of fraud and bribery and corruption.

Responding: Ensuring that action is taken to support and protect assets and identifying cases of fraud and bribery and corruption.

To help you identify cases of fraud and bribery and corruption, behaviour which amounts to corruption includes but is not limited to:

- a. Paying or Offering a Bribe – where a person improperly offers, gives or promises any form of material benefit or other advantage, whether in cash or in kind, to another in order to influence their conduct in any way.
- b. Receiving or Requesting a Bribe – where a person improperly requests, agrees to receive or accepts any form of material benefit or other advantage, whether in cash or in kind, which influences or is designed to influence the individual's conduct in any way.
- c. Receiving or Paying a so-called 'Grease' or 'Facilitation' payment – where a person improperly receives something of value from another party for performing a service or other action that they were required by their employment to do anyway.
- d. Nepotism or Patronage – where a person improperly uses their employment to favour or materially benefit friends, relatives or other associates in some way. For example, through the awarding of contracts or other material advantages.
- e. Embezzlement - where a person improperly uses funds, property, resources or other assets that belong to an organisation or individual.

- f. Receiving a so-called 'Kickback' Payment – where a person improperly receives a share of funds, a commission, material benefit or other advantage from a supplier as a result of their involvement in a corrupt bid or tender process.
- g. Collusion – where a person improperly colludes with others to circumvent, undermine or otherwise ignore rules, policies or guidance.
- h. Abuse of a Position of Trust – where a person improperly uses their position within their organisation to materially benefit themselves or any other party.

In addition, fraud takes place whenever a staff member or someone WFD is working with acts dishonestly and does something with the intention of making a gain for themselves or causes someone else a loss.
