negligence or wilful misconduct of the Customer or by breach by the Customer of its obligations under the Agreement.

14.2 Subject always to clauses 14.3 and 14.4:

14.2.1 the aggregate liability of the Contractor in respect of all defaults, claims, losses or damages howsoever caused, whether arising from breach of the Agreement, the supply or failure to supply of the Services, misrepresentation (whether tortious or statutory), tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise shall in no event exceed a sum equal to 125% of the Charges paid or payable to the Contractor; and

14.2.2 except in the case of claims arising under clauses 9.4 and 18.3, in no event shall the Contractor be liable to the Customer for any:

14.3.1 death or personal injury caused by its negligence or that of its Staff;

14.3.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation by it or that of its Staff; or 14.3.3 any other matter which, by law, may not be excluded or limited.

14.4 The Contractor's liability under the indemnity in clause 9.4 and 18.3 shall be unlimited.

15. Force Majeure

15.1 Neither Party shall have any liability under or be deemed to be in breach of the Agreement for any delays or failures in performance of the Agreement which result from circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Party affected. Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing when such circumstances cause a delay or failure in performance and when they cease to do so. If such circumstances continue for a continuous period of more than two months, either Party may terminate the Agreement by written notice to the other Party.

16. Termination

- 16.1 The Customer may terminate the Agreement at any time by notice in writing to the Contractor to take effect on any date falling at least 1 month (or, if the Agreement is less than 3 months in duration, at least 10 Working Days) later than the date of service of the relevant notice.
- 16.2 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy it might have, the Customer may terminate the Agreement by written notice to the Contractor with immediate effect if the Contractor:
 - 16.2.1 (without prejudice to clause 16.2.5), is in material breach of any obligation under the Agreement which is not capable of remedy;
 - 16.2.2 repeatedly breaches any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement in such a manner as to reasonably justify the opinion that its conduct is inconsistent with it having the intention or ability to give effect to the terms and conditions of the Agreement;
 - 16.2.3 is in material breach of any obligation which is capable of remedy, and that breach is not remedied within 30 days of the Contractor receiving notice specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied;
 - 16.2.4 undergoes a change of control within the meaning of section 416 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988;
 - 16.2.5 breaches any of the provisions of clauses 7.2, 11, 12, 13 and 17;
 - 16.2.6 becomes insolvent, or if an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding up of the Contractor (other than voluntarily for the purpose of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction), or if an administrator or administrative receiver is appointed in respect of the whole or any part of the Contractor's assets or business, or if the Contractor makes any composition with its creditors or takes or suffers any similar or analogous action (to any of the actions detailed in this clause 16.2.6) in consequence of debt in any jurisdiction; or
 - 16.2.7 fails to comply with legal obligations in the fields of environmental, social or labour law.
- 16.3 The Contractor shall notify the Customer as soon as practicable of any change of control as referred to in clause 16.2.4 or any potential such change of control.

- 16.4 The Contractor may terminate the Agreement by written notice to the Customer if the Customer has not paid any undisputed amounts within 90 days of them falling due.
- 16.5 Termination or expiry of the Agreement shall be without prejudice to the rights of either Party accrued prior to termination or expiry and shall not affect the continuing rights of the Parties under this clause and clauses 2, 3.2, 6.1, 6.2, 6.6, 6.7, 7, 9, 10.2, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16.6, 17.4, 18.3, 19 and 20.7 or any other provision of the Agreement that either expressly or by implication has effect after termination.
- 16.6 Upon termination or expiry of the Agreement, the Contractor shall:
- 16.6.1 give all reasonable assistance to the Customer and any incoming Contractor of the Services; and
- 16.6.2 return all requested documents, information and data to the Customer as soon as reasonably practicable.

17. Compliance

- 17.1 The Contractor shall promptly notify the Customer of any health and safety hazards which may arise in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Agreement. The Customer shall promptly notify the Contractor of any health and safety hazards which may exist or arise at the Customer's premises and which may affect the Contractor in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement.
- 17.2 The Contractor shall:
- 17.2.1 comply with all the Customer's health and safety measures while on the Customer's premises; and
- 17.2.2 notify the Customer immediately in the event of any incident occurring in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement on the Customer's premises where that incident causes any personal injury or damage to property which could give rise to personal injury.
- 17.3 The Contractor shall:
- 17.3.1 perform its obligations under the Agreement in accordance with all applicable equality Law and the Customer's equality and diversity policy as provided to the Contractor from time to time; and
- 17.3.2 take all reasonable steps to secure the observance of clause 17.3.1 by all Staff.

- 17.4 The Contractor shall supply the Services in accordance with the Customer's environmental policy as provided to the Contractor from time to time.
- 17.5 The Contractor shall comply with, and shall ensure that its Staff shall comply with, the provisions of:

 - 17.5.2 section 182 of the Finance Act 1989.

18. Prevention of Fraud and Corruption

- 18.1 The Contractor shall not offer, give, or agree to give anything, to any person an inducement or reward for doing, refraining from doing, or for having done or refrained from doing, any act in relation to the obtaining or execution of the Agreement or for showing or refraining from showing favour or disfavour to any person in relation to the Agreement.
- 18.2 The Contractor shall take all reasonable steps, in accordance with good industry practice, to prevent fraud by the Staff and the Contractor (including its shareholders, members and directors) in connection with the Agreement and shall notify the Customer immediately if it has reason to suspect that any fraud has occurred or is occurring or is likely to occur.
- 18.3 If the Contractor or the Staff engages in conduct prohibited by clause 18.1 or commits fraud in relation to the Agreement or any other contract with the Crown (including the Customer) the Customer may:
 - 18.3.1 terminate the Agreement and recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss suffered by the Customer resulting from the termination, including the cost reasonably incurred by the Customer of making other arrangements for the supply of the Services and any additional expenditure incurred by the Customer throughout the remainder of the Agreement; or
 - 18.3.2 recover in full from the Contractor any other loss sustained by the Customer in consequence of any breach of this clause.

19. Dispute Resolution

- 19.1 The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Agreement and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the dispute to an appropriately senior representative of each Party.

- 19.2 If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Parties within one month of being escalated as referred to in clause 19.1, the dispute may by agreement between the Parties be referred to a neutral adviser or mediator (the “Mediator”) chosen by agreement between the Parties. All negotiations connected with the dispute shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any further proceedings.
- 19.3 If the Parties fail to appoint a Mediator within one month, or fail to enter into a written agreement resolving the dispute within one month of the Mediator being appointed, either Party may exercise any remedy it has under applicable law.

20. General

- 20.1 Each of the Parties represents and warrants to the other that it has full capacity and authority, and all necessary consents, licences and permissions to enter into and perform its obligations under the Agreement, and that the Agreement is executed by its duly authorised representative.
- 20.2 A person who is not a party to the Agreement shall have no right to enforce any of its provisions which, expressly or by implication, confer a benefit on him, without the prior written agreement of the Parties.
- 20.3 The Agreement cannot be varied except in writing signed by a duly authorised representative of both the Parties.
- 20.4 The Agreement contains the whole agreement between the Parties and supersedes and replaces any prior written or oral agreements, representations or understandings between them. The Parties confirm that they have not entered into the Agreement on the basis of any representation that is not expressly incorporated into the Agreement. Nothing in this clause shall exclude liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 20.5 Any waiver or relaxation either partly, or wholly of any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement shall be valid only if it is communicated to the other Party in writing and expressly stated to be a waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other breach of the Agreement.
- 20.6 The Agreement shall not constitute or imply any partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship or other relationship between the Parties other than the contractual relationship expressly provided for in the Agreement. Neither Party shall have, nor represent that it has, any authority to make any commitments on the other Party’s behalf.

- 20.7 Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Agreement, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Agreement (whether under the Agreement, statute or common law) are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.
- 20.8 If any provision of the Agreement is prohibited by law or judged by a court to be unlawful, void or unenforceable, the provision shall, to the extent required, be severed from the Agreement and rendered ineffective as far as possible without modifying the remaining provisions of the Agreement, and shall not in any way affect any other circumstances of or the validity or enforcement of the Agreement.

21. Notices

- 21.1 Any notice to be given under the Agreement shall be in writing and may be served by personal delivery, first class recorded or, subject to clause 21.3, e-mail to the address of the relevant Party set out in the Award Letter, or such other address as that Party may from time to time notify to the other Party in accordance with this clause:
- 21.2 Notices served as above shall be deemed served on the Working Day of delivery provided delivery is before 5.00pm on a Working Day. Otherwise delivery shall be deemed to occur on the next Working Day. An email shall be deemed delivered when sent unless an error message is received.
- 21.3 Notices under clauses 15 (Force Majeure) and 16 (Termination) may be served by email only if the original notice is then sent to the recipient by personal delivery or recorded delivery in the manner set out in clause 21.1.

22. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- 22.1 The validity, construction and performance of the Agreement, and all contractual and non contractual matters arising out of it, shall be governed by English law and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to which the Parties submit.

SCHEDULE 1 – SPECIFICATION

1. Requirement

Background

- 1.1 Under current WEEE Regulations, electrical and electronic equipment producers, including those based abroad, that place more than 5 tonnes of EEE on the UK market annually must as a legal requirement finance the collection, treatment, recovery and environmentally sound disposal of waste EEE collected in the UK – different obligations apply to producers of household and non-household WEEE. Retailers and internet sellers of household WEEE also have take-back and information provision obligations. Research is required to identify the characteristics necessary to develop EPR so that the collection, recycling and reuse rates increase and to consider how end of life obligations can be linked to product design to encourage increased levels of eco-design.
- 1.2 Electronics companies are driven by the powerful incentive of market demand to produce newer consumer products and newer equipment, which in turn has made WEEE the fastest growing category of waste in many countries.
- 1.3 The environmental problems resulting from WEEE disposal are three fold. First, it takes up a significant amount of space in already crowded landfills and persists for centuries. Second, simply discarding WEEE is a tremendous waste of resources that can be reused – all WEEE is highly recyclable and the UK has an existing infrastructure to undertake the necessary material separation. Finally, discarded TVs & monitors, fridges, lamps and other equipment contain numerous toxic materials such as lead, mercury, cadmium, chromium, brominated flame retardants and polychlorinated biphenyls -- to name a few. These materials can impact the human and animal health of both developed and developing populations.
- 1.4 Aside from the environmental and health benefits of diverting electricals consumer electronics from residual waste streams, the potential business benefits of EPR are significant. A growing number of companies are beginning to realize the benefits of fostering stronger bonds with their increasingly environmentally-conscious customers, as well as reducing manufacturing and waste management costs.
- 1.5 For example, a PC maker can promote refurbishing and reusing its products as an alternative to recycling them. The benefits are twofold: the lifecycle of refurbished products is longer, and the day that the producer must manage the collection, sorting and recycling of them at their end of life, is pushed out.
- 1.6 Some producers and retailers offer consumers credit toward a new purchase if they return a used product to the company.
- 1.7 The purpose of EPR is to stimulate higher levels of collection, treatment, recycling and re-use, contribute to better product design and marketing systems by shifting the cost of waste back onto those with control over product design. There are, however, significant costs involved in achieving more recycling with EEE; developing systems for collecting goods to be recycled; the costs of disassembly and material separation and onward reprocessing into secondary raw materials to feedback into manufacturing.

1.8 But EEE recycling isn't the only path to achieving a high level of EPR and alternatives do exist:

- Developing products that can be repaired or upgraded to extend product life;
- Develop products that can be reused or disposed of safely at the end of product life;
- Develop and manufacture products that use recycled materials;
- Develop products that minimize resource use and environmental impacts through the use of environmentally preferred materials and finishes;
- Re-use factory waste for new products;
- Develop products that provide improvements in energy efficiency;
- Use less packaging, or recyclable packaging.

1.9 The research shall identify which of these will be the most significant in achieving successful EPR, why and what measures are needed to enable this.

Project Overview & Objectives

1.10 In addition to identifying the essential characteristics for a successful EPR regime for EEE, the project shall take note of the increase in collection targets that are imposed on Member States from 2019 and requirements for future Extended Producer Responsibility regimes set out in Art 8a of the revised Waste Directive (a key aspect of the Circular Economy Package). In particular the project shall consider Government policy interventions/models that address existing market failures or deficiencies and which could bring:

- higher reported collections of separately collected household WEEE
- higher reported collections of separately collected non-household WEEE
- greater levels of reported re-use of WEEE
- greater incentives, through end of life obligations, to encourage better eco-design to include:
 - a) Product types that particularly lend themselves to a modulated approach
 - b) Extent to which such an approach should be linked into wider policy development in eco-design (UK and EU level)
 - c) Eco-design characteristics that could be applied to incentivise the right behaviours (e.g. material use, reparability, upgradability, warranty periods, design for disassembly) and what type of standards, labels and schemes might be used to ensure design criteria are objective
 - d) Extent to which incentives should be at product, product category or collection category (as defined in the current WEEE Regulations)
 - e) A level of future proofing against a changing market place driven by rapid technological change (particularly in digital technology)

- higher levels of efficiency in the performance of the functions of the collection, treatment, recovery and environmentally sound disposal of waste EEE. This would involve:
 - a) Developing a market-based system under which there would be open bidding by contractors in a competitive environment.
 - b) Developing a more transparent and accessible online trading platform to facilitate the efficient operation of the market and high levels of transactional liquidity.
 - c) Safeguarding the anonymity and commercial confidentiality of individual companies' dealings whilst at the same time providing for transparency for general market and pricing information.
 - d) Extending the responsibilities and powers of the regulator to supervise the operation of the market in a manner that enhances competition, curtails market distortions and prevents any abuse of market power on the part of participants.

1.11 Crucial to the success of the project will be insight into barriers/challenges in addressing these issues and how they might be overcome.

1.12 In considering the above it shall be borne in mind that the existing requirements place obligations not only on producers (i.e. UK based manufacturers, importers and re-branders) but also on retailers and online sellers who currently have take-back and information provision obligations. Therefore these come into the scope of review.

1.13 It shall also be noted that the market is dominated by global businesses who will often design and manufacture overseas, often for a European-wide market place. Therefore the research shall consider approaches adopted overseas and consider the strengths weaknesses, costs and benefits of any policy options.

Requirement, Approach and Methodology

1.14 It is expected that much of this research will be desk-based. Researchers shall draw on domestic and international documentation/reports of relevant research as well as consultation with stakeholders and other key players in industry and the wider economy and society.

Performance Management

1.15 To drive continuous improvement performance, communicate the priorities of the contract and monitor risk to contract delivery, Key Performance Indicators (KPI's) shall be used to monitor the contract on a regular basis and shall form part of the Contract performance review. The KPIs proposed are found Schedule 5.

1.16 The Customer shall work together with the Contractor to agree relevant performance measurement to monitor the Quality of the actual report.

1.17 The Contractor shall maintain their own management reports, including a Risk and Issues Log
