IR35 Determination

The Authority has determined that this Call-Off to be outside of IR35.

- The Authority has determined that on balance the contract is one of a genuine Managed Service arrangement for fully Contracted Out Services and therefore does not represent a substantive IR35 risk to the Authority, therefore this contract is regarded to be outside of IR35.

BJSS Limited are reminded that as BJSS Limited are regarded as the "end client" for the purposes of the IR35 legislation BJSS Limited need to ensure that BJSS Limited both understand and discharge BJSS Limited obligations under the legislation that fall to BJSS Limited. This is particularly important where BJSS Limited or BJSS Limited supply chain engage workers through an intermediary structure to deliver BJSS Limited services to Home Office.

- If BJSS Limited wish to utilise associates or contractors working through a Personal Services Company (PSC) or other intermediary structure; a full HMRC CEST determination needs to be done and if the determination is inside IR35, they should be subject to full PAYE/Ni contributions and engaged via an appropriate employment contract and/or via an umbrella company or PAYE provider to comply with IR35.
- If BJSS Limited need to bring subject matter experts during the term of the contract this will be reviewed and costed separately. Furthermore, the Authority reserves the right to give consideration to a separate route to contract for such work.

If the working practices or terms of the arrangement are amended the Authority reserve the right to conduct further assessments of its IR35 status of the arrangement.
