and that the specified actions to remedy such aspects of the Operating Environment, together with a timetable for and the costs of those actions, have been specified in the relevant parts of the Agreement for the Implementation Phase.

SECTION D

Clause	Note
Parties	Insert Customer's (i.e. UK SBS or one of the Research Councils) details.
Parties	Insert Supplier's details.
Business Day	This definition is used in the force majeure and FOIA clauses. Do not remove unless neither of these clauses is being used.
A3-2-2	You may wish to shorten this period in some cases.
B1-1-3	If you are purchasing goods which you can reasonably expect to remain fault-free for a longer period, consider increasing this period
B1-1-6	If you wish to include any specific obligations relating to the particular Goods, these should be included as Special Conditions.
B1-5	Clauses B1-1-3 to B1-1-5 are only likely to be of application where you are purchasing bespoke goods. However, there is no harm in leaving these provisions in place for standard, off-the-shelf product purchases (you are just unlikely to wish to exercise your rights under them). Therefore, you may wish to delete these clauses where purchasing standard goods which you would not wish to inspect or test.
B2-2-4	If you need to insist on specific timing for delivery (e.g. delivery at a certain time of day), this should be set out in the Order.
B3-2	Depending on the nature of the purchase, you may wish to include this option (to be exercised at your discretion) of reducing the price where delivery is late. If you do exercise this right, you will not subsequently be able to claim damages or terminate the contract. If you decide to use this clause, you will need to insert relevant % reductions. The deductions must represent a genuine pre-estimate of the loss you will suffer due to the Supplier's default if the clause is to be enforceable, so you will need to consider this carefully in each case. If you do not wish to include this option for a purchase, simply delete this clause.

- B5-3-2 if the Supplier will not accept the higher standard set out in the first option, insist on the second option.
- B5-3-9 If you wish to include any specific obligations relating to the particular Services, these should be included as Special Conditions in Schedule 1.
- B6-2 Depending on the nature of the purchase, you may wish to include this option (to be exercised at your discretion) of reducing the price where delivery is late. If you do exercise this right, you will not subsequently be able to claim damages or terminate the contract. If you decide to use this clause, you will need to insert relevant % reductions. The deductions must represent a genuine pre-estimate of the loss you will suffer due to the Supplier's default if the clause is to be enforceable, so you will need to consider this carefully in each case. If you do not wish to include this option for a purchase, simply delete this clause.
- B7-1-2 If the Supplier wishes to impose any specific obligations on the Customer relating to the particular Services, and you have agreed to these, these should be included as Special Conditions in Schedule 1.
- B8-5 There may be circumstances where you wish to require a shorter payment period than 30 days. If this is the case and you shorten the period, you must also shorten the payment period in clause B8-7 to the same period.
- B8-7 You must shorten this payment period to correspond with the payment period in clause B8-5.
- B9-5 There may be circumstances where you wish to require a shorter payment period than 30 days. If this is the case and you shorten the period, you must also shorten the payment period in clause B9-9 to the same period.
- B9-9 You must shorten this payment period to correspond with the payment period in clause B9-5.
- B13-6 These are the levels of cover for Public Liability and Product Liability insurance and can be moved in either direction based on specific requirements of the transaction and / or case-by-case justification. Employer's Liability insurance should not be reduced in any circumstances but may be increased based on specific requirements. If you require the Supplier to hold product liability insurance it is likely that you should not be using the Contract for Services but the Contract for Goods and Services instead.
- If you have any concerns about the Supplier's existing insurance, or you wish to include this option in case the Supplier's insurance position changes in the future, you may wish to include this belt and braces option. This may be the case in higher risk / higher value transactions.
- B14-5 Ideally this clause B14-5 will not be included. However, if the Supplier insists upon a limitation of its liability, this clause should be amended, as appropriate, and included. Ideally the limitation of liability will be set as high as possible. You should consider the nature of the supply, and the corresponding risk, to decide on a cap. When negotiating with the Supplier on this point, take into account the level of insurance cover that the Supplier has. Consider in particular whether the cap should be set lower than the Supplier's professional indemnity cover.

- C7-6-1-a In each case, please complete relevant contact details.
- C7-6-4 Include reference to clause C7-6-5 only where the Supplier is not based in England or Wales.
- C7-6-5 Only use and complete this clause C7-6-5 where the Supplier is not located in England or Wales. In any such case, require Supplier to nominate details.
- C7-13-2 Clause C7-13-2 is included to cover the possible scenario where the Supplier uses UK SBS's or the Customer's IPR outside the UK and we wish to take action in relation to such unauthorised use (as IP rights are territorial, and action to enforce them will in all likelihood need to be taken in the country in which infringement occurs) .

Where the Supplier is supplying bespoke goods / services, the risk will be higher (as the Customer is more likely to share its IPR with the Supplier). If the Supplier objects to this clause and you consider that the risk of needing to enforce IPR overseas is low, you may be happy to delete it. If you delete C7-13-2, you will also need to delete the introductory wording "subject to clause C7-13-2" at the start of C7-13-1.

- C6-13 The application of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 must be considered on a case by case basis, as the threshold for application and insertion of this condition, is based upon the total turnover of not less than an amount prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

The UKSBS sourcing portal addresses via a declaration to advise if the Act applies to certain organisations. See attached government web link for further information: <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2015/30/contents> or transparency guide to section 54(9) of the act https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/471996/Transparency_in_Supply_Chains_etc__A_practical_guide__final_.pdf

- C6-14 This clause addresses sustainability considering changes in statute that impact upon employment rights such as the living wage
- C6-15 This clause provides clarity and remedies for UK SBS in regards to sole traders or freelance suppliers employed in regards to tax and national insurance obligations.

Buyer guidance

PPN 14/15

All contracts that are for above £10M and exceeding 12 months shall have regard to Ministerial guidance covering Skills and Apprenticeships as part of the procurement exercise. Under no circumstances should this requirement be set as a mandatory Pass / Fail question.

PPN 14/15

The PPN does clearly state that any application must be consistent with the Governments priority to demonstrate value for money, so this would suggest that utilisation of any apprenticeship, sponsored student and or graduate should not have an associated financial burden as a result.

Any consideration of adoption of this guidance should pass a consideration of relevance to the procurement. If it is not relevant then a written record of the decision not to incorporate this shall be retained by UK SBS.

PPN 06/15

All major construction and infrastructure contracts that are above £50M shall have regard to Ministerial guidance covering Skills and Apprenticeships as part of the procurement exercise. Under no circumstances should this requirement be set as a mandatory Pass / Fail question.

Timber Procurement Policy

UK SBS has a standalone timber procurement policy that is held in the central Library and content and also appears in model clauses in Emptoris, to facilitate compliance with this statutory obligation.

If the timber procurement policy is relevant, you should insert the model clauses located in the UK SBS timber procurement policy. Do not insert the model clauses if they are not relevant.
