The Department of Health and Social Care, in collaboration with NHS England and NHS Improvement and NHS X have been coordinating the NHS's digital response to the COVID-19 virus.

This has included the bringing together of a composite programme team drawn from the NHS and industry who have mobilized a 'Test, Trace, Contain, Enable' solution, inclusive of the development of a contact tracing app.

This is an ongoing programme of work, and consultancy skills are required on an advisory basis to advise and enable the DHSC in its endeavours.

The Services:

- The Buyer (DHSC) has asked the Supplier (Accenture) to provide consultancy services within the COVID app cell workstream:
- The App Cell workstream is supporting the Buyer with the project management for the COVID app, and technical and SME support for the journey to national roll out.
- This is a resource augmentation provision; the Supplier is required to provide the resources to perform the role titles in the finance table above.
- This includes support for, but not limited to, the following App Stream teams:

App Stream Teams	Role	Units
What We Make	Visual Designers	2
	Content Manager	1
