

FHSU Request for Information

We have received Clarification Question No. 1:

“Will the MAA accept previous military approval to satisfy the airworthiness / certification requirements?”

The answer provided is as follows:

“The MAA will consider previous military approvals as these shall be a substantial aid to getting certification. However, such approvals (and especially approvals from foreign government bodies) may not be sufficient, in their own right, to satisfy the airworthiness and certification requirements”