Text

Text from original notice for section VI.3 paragraph n):

- n. The supplier (including any joint venture or consortium member) must propose an acceptable guarantor (usually a parent company) to the authority. The form of the parent company guarantee is substantially in the form included in the procurement documents. The guarantor must provide written evidence (on the assumption that the supplier is successful in this procurement) that they will commit to providing a guarantee if and when requested by Highways England as further explained in the Pre Qualification Pack. If an acceptable guarantor cannot be provided for the supplier or a joint venture or consortium member, the applicant company/organisation will not be invited to tender.
