Call-Off Schedule 20 (Call-Off Specification)

This Schedule sets out the characteristics of the Deliverables that the Supplier will be required to make to the Buyers under this Call-Off Contract

Background

In February 2022 the CMA issued its Prochlorperazine Decision (case 50511-2). In addition, the CMA brought proceedings in the High Court seeking Competition Disqualification Orders (“CDO”) against seven individuals in relation to its Prochlorperazine Decision. Appeals were brought in the Competition Appeal Tribunal (“Tribunal”) against the CMA’s Prochlorperazine Decision (the “Appeals”).¹

The appeal proceedings commenced in April 2022. A single trial was held between 5 June 2023 – 27 June 2023 and 26 July 2023 – 7 August 2023 to determine the Appeals and the competition condition of the CDO proceedings, which was transferred from the High Court to the Tribunal for determination alongside the Appeals.

In May 2024, the Tribunal issued a judgment setting aside the CMA’s decision and holding that the transferred part of the CDO claim was not satisfied.

The CMA is exposed to potential liability for costs in relation to the Appeals and CDO proceedings and therefore seeks to instruct cost lawyers with expertise and experience in complex multi-party costs litigation.

Scope of Legal Support Required

The CMA’s Litigation Unit is part of the CMA Legal Service and acts for the CMA in all its civil litigation.

The CMA does not employ specialist costs lawyers. It is therefore normal practice for the CMA to instruct specialist costs lawyers to undertake substantial costs work on both routine and more complex cases. The work often includes:

- Drafting and reviewing Bills of Costs, Points of Dispute and any Replies;
- Advising, negotiating and undertaking work in respect of detailed costs assessments;
- Work in respect of costs management and costs budgeting as required by the Civil Procedure Rules (“CPRs”).

The CMA requires an experienced external resource of specialist costs lawyers, capable of handling substantial and complex costs disputes, to assist its Litigation Unit in meeting the demand of work in respect of minimising the CMA’s costs liability in relation to the Appeals and CDO proceedings.

This work will likely include the following (non-exhaustive) deliverables/workstreams:

Deliverables

1. Advice

The specialist costs lawyers shall provide advice to the CMA on all aspects of costs, including on its defence of cost claims and the minimisation of the CMA’s potential costs liabilities, as required. Advice may be sought at any stage of the cost proceedings, including leading up to and following particular milestones.

2. Reviewing Bills of Costs and Preparing Points of Dispute

The specialist costs lawyers shall review Bill of Costs and shall prepare and advise the CMA on Points of Dispute in accordance with the CPRs or applicable court or Tribunal rules within a timescale to be agreed by the Litigation Unit.

3. Correspondence and Negotiation

The specialist costs lawyers shall conduct all stages of the CMA's costs negotiations and subsequent costs proceedings, including correspondence and negotiation with parties and the resolution of any disputes, on behalf of the CMA and in accordance with the Litigation Unit's instructions.

4. Advocacy

The specialist costs lawyers shall be responsible for conducting any advocacy in respect of hearings relating to costs, on behalf of the CMA and in accordance with the Litigation Unit's instructions. This may include, but shall not be limited to, any applications, directions hearings, detailed assessments and appeals, unless it is appropriate to instruct Costs Counsel.

5. Instructing Counsel

The specialist costs lawyers shall instruct Costs Counsel when requested by the Litigation Unit, in accordance with the CMA's requirements to instruct its panel of standing counsel and the Attorney General's (the "AG") panel, and the need to obtain the AG's approval to instruct off-panel. Any application to the AG for an off-panel nomination shall be made by the Supplier with the Litigation Unit's input. The Litigation Unit's approval must be sought for choice of counsel before instruction.

Account Management

Litigation Unit Point of Contact

Instructions from the CMA to the Supplier may be provided by any of the lawyers in the Litigation Unit. Instructions will set out the work required and any deadlines the Supplier is required to meet.

Allocation and Case Handling and Service Levels

The CMA requires a named point of contact from the Supplier with responsibility for allocation of workstreams and to provide an initial response, including confirmation of the Supplier case holder(s), to any CMA instructions.

The Litigation Unit is often working to very challenging timelines. It is therefore essential that any instructions and requests for all costs work and advice, queries and support are dealt with by the Supplier in a timely manner according to the required Service Levels and that the Litigation Unit is informed of the Supplier's point of contact for each workstream

To facilitate this, the CMA requires the Supplier to confirm and provide two named points of contact – the case holder and their line manager – who will be responsible for managing and delivering all aspects of the CMA's costs work in relation to any particular matter.

The Supplier's staff assigned to each case shall have the relevant qualifications and experience to deliver the work to the required standard.

Response Times

As a minimum, the CMA requires the following responses from the Supplier:

- Same day acknowledgement of either email or telephone contact from the CMA being received;
- Within one day of a request for costs work being received/instructions being received, an indication of the response times in respect of those requests for costs work (queries/support/advice);

- Within 7 days of a request for costs work being received/instructions being received, an estimate of the likely cost of the services in respect of the request/instructions.

Invoicing

The CMA will provide the Supplier with case reference details in relation to any instructions. Invoicing is required on a monthly basis.

Management Information

The CMA requires the Supplier to provide the following management information (or as otherwise agreed by the CMA case holder):

- A monthly report detailing progress against work commissioned or as required by the CMA case holder;
- The Supplier will meet with the CMA on a six-monthly basis for the purposes of contract review meetings to discuss quality measures, and sooner or at any time at the CMA’s request if a specific quality matter arises;
- The CMA shall be entitled to require the Supplier to prepare and provide a Rectification Plan within 14 days of a written request by the CMA;
- Any changes to the way in which the Services are planned to be delivered must be brought to the CMA’s attention and agreed prior to any such changes being implemented.

The Supplier will be required to adhere to the Service Levels detailed below in the Service Level table, detailing the above points for Response Times, Invoicing and Management Information as specific SLAs.
