1	Please can you confirm if the successful company would also be allowed to tender for the installation work, given their involvement in “full tender specification for the Supply and Install procurement of the project”? Will the Design Specialist be involved in reviewing any tender responses for the installation part of the project?	We would welcome tenders from companies involved in developing the specification for the supply and installation phase of this project. However, it would not be appropriate for the design specialist to be involved in the review or appraisal of tender responses for the installation phase of the project.	8/8/2019
