Services

II.1.4) Short description:

DFID wishes to appoint a Service Provider (also referred to as the Supplier) to manage implementation of the Support to National Malaria Programme phase 2 (SUNMAP2); which is to run for 6 years from October 2018 to Sept 2024. The programme is expected to run for six years, however DFID retains the flexibility to extend it for up to two additional years

The programme requires a Supplier to work in collaboration with other partners and DFID programmes to reduce Nigeria's Malaria burden and strengthen the government of Nigeria's malaria control system to ensure long term sustainability. The service provider will coordinate the provision of a range of technical experts including public health specialists, malariologists, epidemiologists, and public financial management specialists across six states.
