Annex 2 – Specification

1. Scope of Contract

HEE EoE aims to enhance the training opportunities currently available within the region by offering a comprehensive range of central courses related to UK General Practice, with courses tailored to meet elements of the specialty curriculum.

The Supplier shall provide the following Course:

Cancer Update Courses

Annual Value: £12, 000.00

Minimum number of participants: 150

Intended Audience: Trainees

Requirements: The Cancer Update course(s) should be delivered online providing the audience with a range of tools and skills to be utilised in a 10-minute consultation window covering the whole cancer journey from prevention to palliative care, helping participants get to grips with all the nuances of this rapidly expanding area of primary care practice.

HEE EoE will fund the above based on a maximum number of delegates as agreed with the organisation awarded the contract however, this should be between 75 and 150 people. There may at times be the need to be flexible with these numbers.

The Provider will be expected to work in collaboration with the central Primary Care School Administration team to ensure the smooth running and delivery of the course.

The Provider will need to be responsible for providing their own administrative support and therefore may choose to use their own booking systems where appropriate. Where this is the case, they will be required to collect personal trainee information during the booking process, using this to ensure trainees are booked onto the course, and querying/removing any incorrect bookings, receive event joining instructions and any pre-course reading material in advance. All data must be collected in compliance with GDPR regulations.

2. Detailed Requirements

Courses

- The provider must always ensure compliance with the standards and codes of practice set by any regulatory bodies that they may be affiliated with for the duration of their contract with HEE EoE.
- The provider must liaise with the central Primary Care School team to discuss course feedback and make any required adjustments after each event.
- Due to the length of the contract, it is possible courses will need to evolve and develop over time, any adjustments to course requirements should be discussed and agreed with the central Primary Care School team.

- Any trainee information which is transferred to the provider must be kept securely and in line with GDPR principles.

Before the course:

- Liaise with the Primary Care School to confirm course dates and ensure that confirmation is sent in writing by way of follow up for the Primary Care School in order to promote and advertise, where possible 3 months (12 weeks) in advance, to ensure trainees have sufficient notice to book study leave time to attend the course.
- Changes to dates of courses must be communicated to HEE EoE at the earliest opportunity so the website can be updated. Any trainees already booked onto a course should be contacted and made aware of date changes, so they can re-schedule study leave time. Both Primary Care team and trainees to be given a minimum of 8 weeks' notice of new dates.
- Ensure the courses are available and visible to trainees across the entire region; not just to those within the immediate locality.
- Provide administrative support to effectively advertise the course, run the booking system (check eligibility of those booked on/remove incorrectly booked trainees) and set up the course from start to finish including organising virtual platforms for delivery
- Collect trainee data during booking (Clause 8 of this Annex 2) and use this to check eligibility (grade/previous attendance)
- Review bookings and ensure individuals have not double booked their space.
- Send confirmation emails within 48 hours of bookings being made.
- Send reminder emails to all delegates a minimum of 10 days prior to course date.
- Ensure waiting lists are managed effectively and appropriately, filling spaces if delegates cancel places.
- Ensure sufficient and appropriate faculty are available to teach on course dates

During the course:

- Record delegate attendance.
- Provide technical support with regard to Audio-visual facilities for presenters.
- Support/administrative staff should be available for the duration of the course to support faculty with any issues that arise (e.g. IT issues), top up refreshments, provide lunch and take attendance register.

After the course:

- Collate non-attendance of booked delegates and escalate details to the Central Primary Care team.
- Return attendance record report for each course (in Excel format – password protected) after the delivery of each course
- Issue electronic certificates (in PDF format) and distribute them via email to delegates.

- Evaluate the success of the course from a procedural and fidelity perspective (educational evaluation is not expected as this will be performed centrally by HEE, EoE) and submit collated responses via a password protected excel document demonstrating the raw data and, complete an evaluation report to be provided to HEE, EoE.
- Administrative support should be provided after the course to ensure all the above is complete in good time.

Course cancellation:

- If courses are cancelled for a reason outside of the providers control and cannot be re-scheduled within a 6-month period, a funding contribution will be paid in accordance with the following sliding scale. In this instance, providers will be expected to provide HEE EoE with a breakdown of the course cost, for reimbursement to be calculated.

Time between cancellation and course date	Percentage of course cost paid by HEE
More than 6 months	5%
3-6 months	25%
8-12 weeks	50%
Less than 8 weeks	100%

- For courses that are re-scheduled and run again within a 6-month period, funding will be paid at the full rate.
- If sufficient faculty are no longer available for a scheduled course date and a mutual agreement cannot be achieved to re-arrange the course within a 6-month period, then the provider will be fully reimbursed the cost of the course.
- For non-delivery due to provider cancellation, HEE EoE will not fund the course unless it can be re-organised in line with necessary timescales, the course needs to be delivered within 6 months and 8 weeks' notice provided of new course date. Reasons for provider cancellation must be included as part of the end of year annual report, with measures taken to mitigate risks moving forward.

The provider will be expected to highlight improvements for future delivery and areas of concern, and this should be done at regular contract review meetings, time frame to be determined.

The Provider may also be requested to complete an annual report to be submitted to HEE, EoE including attendance, collated feedback report from delegates and faculty, confirmation of which courses ran, and which were cancelled, including reasons for non-delivery. Any extenuating circumstances that have affected course delivery and/or delegate and faculty attendance should be included in this report, an example would-be last-minute trainee cancellation due to testing positive for Covid-19.
