

An architectural line drawing of a building facade. The structure features a prominent gabled roof with horizontal hatching. Below the roofline, there is a series of vertical supports or columns. The central part of the facade has a recessed entrance area. The lower portion of the building is filled with horizontal hatching, suggesting a textured or paneled surface. To the left of the main structure, there is a smaller, simpler rectangular section.

An architectural line drawing of a building. The building features a gabled roof with horizontal hatching. Below the roof is a covered porch area supported by several vertical posts. The main body of the building has horizontal hatching. To the right of the main building, there is a smaller, simpler rectangular structure. The entire drawing is rendered in black lines on a white background.
