CLARIFICATION QUESTIONS AND RESPONSES

The National Archives has received a number of clarification questions. Please find a list of questions below, with their associated responses.

Q1: The original guidance is "aimed at an archive practitioner audience" but also relevant to members of the HE sector. Will [this] shift in any way now that TNA is partnering with History UK rather than RLUK for the refreshing of the Guidance?

A1: TNA is still working under the umbrella of its Memorandum of Understanding with RLUK. The History UK partnership will bring in the academic perspective more deeply but the audience is broadly the same for the refreshed guidance as for the original version.
