[REDACTED] could I ask which option you have gone for and the total PO value as I can then start setting things up.

Hello [redacted]

Good news. We have made our decision and will be awarding the above contract to you.

I have raised the purchase order today (PO-3001787), however, this requires final approval before it is created as a hard copy on our system.

Unfortunately, the designated approver is out of the office today, but is back tomorrow.

Once the purchase order has been approved, I will send this on to you via the portal so you can commence discussions/implementation as necessary.

Kind regards
