Introduction

Connecting Classrooms is the British Council's flagship international education programme, delivered in partnership with the Department for International Development (DFID). Connecting Classrooms is designed to help young people develop the knowledge, skills and values to live and work in a globalised economy, and make a positive contribution locally and globally. The programme, running from 2015-2018, aims to build the capacity of 45,000 teachers and 12,000 school leaders worldwide to support them to integrate a range of core skills into the curriculum, with a focus on:

- Digital Literacy
- Critical Thinking and Problem Solving
- Creativity and Imagination
- Student Leadership
- Collaboration and Communication
- Citizenship

Connecting Classrooms aims to improve teaching in both the UK and other countries in the following key areas:

- Professional Development for teachers and school leaders in over 30 countries including the UK;
- Sustainable Partnerships between schools in the UK and over 30 countries in the Middle East, Sub Saharan Africa and South and East Asia;
- Professional Dialogue opportunities for policy makers that will support national and regional level debate, reflection and action;
- Awards to schools which are successful in equipping young people with the knowledge and skills to work in a globalised economy;
- Online access to high quality resources to support teachers in delivering improved learning outcomes for young people.

The new programme builds upon the success of the previous phase of Connecting Classrooms, which ran from June 2012 to June 2015, and focused on building global awareness and cross-cultural learning amongst young people. This has so far enabled over 18,000 teachers around the world to benefit from professional development training, with over 70% of schools reporting improvements to global citizenship teaching practice as a result.

Connecting Classrooms contributes towards the core purpose of the British Council's work in school systems to improve learning outcomes through:

- Building a body of research that is publically available on best international practice;
- Providing and enabling consultancy on system improvement on a continuum from access to quality to innovation;
- Providing services that support practitioners to deliver high quality education.

A logical framework, developed in collaboration with DFID, and available as Annex 3, identifies four outputs for the programme:

- Output 1: Teachers across the UK and overseas have improved professional knowledge and competencies in how to deliver core skills to young people. Teachers have improved confidence in their ability to plan and deliver core skills teaching;
- Output 2: School Leaders have an increased understanding of the importance of core skills and ability to create an enabling school environment within which these are delivered in the curriculum. School leaders are committed to ensuring a focus on the international dimension within the curriculum;
- Output 3: More schools across the UK and overseas have productive and lasting school partnerships;
- Output 4: Participant policy makers and senior practitioners develop enhanced understanding of international best practice.

Crucial to the success of the programme is the ability to be able to measure and demonstrate the outcomes and impact of our interventions. In support of this objective the British Council recently commissioned an external supplier to develop a range of instruments designed to measure the educational impact of the programme, in particular the Core Skills training packages (see Annexes 4-6). We are now seeking a new supplier to complement this work by implementing a rigorous monitoring and evaluation strategy for the overall programme.

Scope of Work

The British Council seeks to appoint a specialist education evaluation supplier to help shape and implement the monitoring and evaluation strategy closely aligned to the recently developed data collection tools and guidance documents. The overall strategy will need to provide an effective system to clearly demonstrate the programmes impact in accordance with the outcome and output targets set out in the programme logframe (see Annex 3).

The supplier will be required to provide the following services:

1. Review the proposed Connecting Classrooms logframe, tools and approach to data collection to ensure these are logical and coherent (see Annexes 3 and 4);
2. Provide ongoing support and guidance to the British Council to ensure quality, consistency and robustness of the approach to monitoring and evaluation within Connecting Classrooms;
3. Conduct quarterly analysis and quality assurance of quantitative and qualitative data provided from British Council's internal database/monitoring systems, and provide summary reports to the British Council for internal and external dissemination. The quarterly reports should include summary level highlights and recommendation for each of the five regions in which the programme operates (UK, South Asia, East Asia, Sub-Saharan Africa and Middle East and North Africa). (See Annexes 7 and 8 for examples from the previous phase of the programme);
4. Produce an annual outcomes evaluation report (in Sep 2016, Sep 2017 and Sep 2018 for each year of the programme), drawing together all monitoring data at output/outcome/impact level and presenting findings in terms of success and impact achieved. The report will evaluate the success and impact of the programme against logframe indicators, and make recommendations for programme improvements, including ongoing improvements to M&E systems and processes.

Please note in relation to the quality assurance of British Council generated data referred to in point 1, whilst every effort will be made to ensure this data is accurate it is the supplier who will ultimately be responsible for cleaning the data, removing errors and duplicate records to ensure that numbers stated in the reports are an accurate reflection of programme activity.

In order to carry out the services described above the British Council will provide the appoint supplier with access to the following:

- All data collection instruments and guidance documents developed for the programme;
- The programme logframe and technical business case;

- Details of the global delivery resource and information on local educational contexts;
- Access to global and regional management and delivery teams (face to face and telephone meetings to discuss context and needs);
- Examples from range of reports produced under the Connecting Classrooms 2012-15 programme

- 10.3 The Supplier shall meet any dates related to the performance of the Services under this Agreement and time shall be of the essence in respect of such dates.
- 10.4 The Supplier shall comply with, and complete and return any forms or reports from time to time required by, the British Council Requirements.
- 10.5 The Supplier shall comply with the End Client Requirements (if any) and shall do nothing to put the British Council in breach of the End Client Requirements (if any).
- 10.6 Where applicable, the Supplier shall, subject to the prior written approval of the British Council, appoint or, at the written request of the British Council, replace without delay any member of the Supplier's Team, each such member to be suitably skilled, experienced and qualified to carry out the Services. The Supplier shall not, without the British Council's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), replace any of the Key Personnel. The British Council acknowledges that the Supplier will have to replace a member of the Key Personnel where such person leaves the employment of the Supplier, in which case the British Council shall have a right of approval over the proposed replacement (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).
- 10.7 The Supplier shall:
 - 10.7.1 observe, and ensure that, where applicable, the Supplier's Team observes, the British Council's Acceptable Usage Policy, Roam User Policy (where access to the relevant information technology systems has been granted), Information Security Policy and any applicable security policy or health and safety policy notified to the

- 10.7.2 before the date on which the Services are to start, obtain and at all times maintain and comply with all licences and consents required to enable the Supplier to provide the Services (including in relation to the installation of the Supplier's Equipment) and the Goods in accordance with this Agreement.
- 10.8 The Supplier shall not at any time during the Term do or say anything which damages or which could reasonably be expected to damage the interests or reputation of the British Council or the End Client (if any) or their respective officers, employees, agents or contractors.
- 10.9 If the Supplier is unable to provide the Services due to its own illness or injury or the illness or injury of any Relevant Person, the Supplier shall advise the British Council of that fact as soon as reasonably practicable and shall provide such evidence of any Relevant Person's or its own (as the case may be) illness or injury as the British Council may reasonably require. For the avoidance of doubt, no Charges shall be payable to the Supplier in respect of any period during which the Services are not provided.

- 10.12 Where the Supplier is not an individual, it shall provide one or more Relevant Person(s) to provide the Services and shall procure that such Relevant Person(s) comply with the terms of this Agreement to the extent that such terms are applicable to such Relevant Person(s). Notwithstanding the deployment of any such Relevant Person(s), the Supplier shall remain wholly liable to the British Council and shall be responsible for all acts and omissions (howsoever arising) in the performance of the Services. The British Council may, in its discretion, require the Relevant Person(s) to enter into direct undertakings with the British Council including with regard to confidentiality and intellectual property.
- 10.13 Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Supplier from being engaged, concerned or having any financial interest in any capacity in any other business, trade, profession or occupation during the Term provided that such activity does not cause a breach of any of the Supplier's obligations under this Agreement.

- 10.14 The Supplier shall use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that it does not become involved in any conflict of interests between the interests of the British Council and/or the End Client and the interests of the Supplier itself or any client of the Supplier. The Supplier shall notify the British Council in writing as soon as is practically possible of any potential conflict of interests and shall follow the British Council's reasonable instructions to avoid, or bring to an end, any conflict of interests. 11 The British Council's Obligations

- 11.1 The British Council shall:
- 11.1.1 co-operate with the Supplier in all matters relating to the Services and the Goods and appoint the British Council's Manager in relation to the Services, who shall have the authority to represent the British Council on day-to-day matters relating to this Agreement; and
 - 11.1.2 inform the Supplier of all health and safety rules and regulations and any other reasonable security requirements, policies and British Council instructions that apply at the Premises and/or in the country in which the Services are being provided from time to time during the Term.
- 11.2 The Supplier acknowledges and agrees that if it considers that the British Council is not or may not be complying with any of the British Council's obligations, it shall only be entitled to rely on this as relieving the Supplier's performance under this Agreement:
- 11.2.1 to the extent that it restricts or precludes performance of the Services or the provision of the Goods by the Supplier; and
 - 11.2.2 if the Supplier, promptly after the actual or potential non-compliance has come to its attention, has notified details to the British Council in writing.

12 Status

- 12.1 The relationship of the Supplier to the British Council will be that of independent contractor and nothing in this Agreement shall render the Supplier or any Relevant Person an employee, worker, agent or partner of the British Council and the Supplier shall not hold itself out as such.
- 12.2 This Agreement constitutes a contract for the provision of services and not a contract of employment and accordingly the Supplier shall be fully responsible for and shall indemnify the British Council for and in respect of payment of the following within the prescribed time limits:
- 12.2.1 any income tax, national insurance and social security contributions and any other employment related liability, deduction, contribution, assessment or claim in any applicable jurisdiction arising from or made in connection with either the performance of the Services, or any payment or benefit received by the Supplier (or, where applicable, any Relevant Person) in respect of the Services, where such recovery is not prohibited by law and the Supplier shall further indemnify the British Council against all reasonable costs, expenses and any penalty, fine or interest incurred or payable by the British Council in connection with or in consequence of any such liability, deduction, contribution, assessment or claim other than where the latter arise out of the British Council's negligence or wilful default; and 12.2.2 any liability for any employment-related claim or any claim based on worker status (including reasonable costs and expenses) brought by the Supplier (or, where applicable, any Relevant Person) against the British Council arising out of or in connection with the provision of the Services, except where such claim is as a result of any act or omission of the British Council.

12.3 The British Council may at its option satisfy the indemnities set out in clause 12.2 above (in whole or in part) by way of deduction from any outstanding Charges or other payments due to the Supplier.

12.4 Where applicable, the Supplier:

12.4.1 acknowledges and agrees that it is intended that all employees of the Supplier (if any) shall remain employees of the Supplier and that termination of this Agreement (or any part of it) shall not operate to transfer the contracts of employment of any employees to the British Council or any third party; and

12.4.2 shall use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that no member of its staff is deployed in the delivery of the Services to such an extent that the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (or any applicable equivalent legislation in any relevant jurisdiction, including in the European Union the Acquired Rights Directive (Council Directive 77/187 as amended) and any national legislation enacting to such Directive) may operate to transfer the employment of such member of staff to the British Council or any successor service provider upon termination of this Agreement.

13 Price and Payment

13.1 Unless stated otherwise, the Charges are exclusive of value added tax (VAT) or any equivalent sales tax in any applicable jurisdiction, which, if properly chargeable, the British Council shall pay at the prevailing rate subject to receipt from the Supplier of a valid and accurate tax invoice. In the event that the British Council is required by the laws or regulations of any applicable jurisdiction to deduct any withholding tax or similar taxes from the Charges, the British Council shall deduct and account for such taxes before paying the remainder of the Charges to the Supplier and shall notify the Supplier in writing of all such sums properly deducted.

13.2 Under current UK legislation it is the responsibility of a supplier to assess its VAT liability for the supply of services. Where UK VAT is applicable, the Supplier's invoice should show all the necessary entries thereon to make it a valid tax invoice for VAT purposes; and in particular it must show the amount of VAT charged separately. However, the British Council may be of the opinion that the Services being supplied under this Agreement may not be subject to UK VAT, due to the place of supply not being the UK, and the charging of UK VAT would therefore be inappropriate. The British Council reserves the right to dispute payment of the UK VAT charged by the Supplier until the issue has been resolved by a ruling in writing obtained from HM Revenue & Customs by the Supplier, and that ruling shown to the British Council.

- 13.3 The Supplier shall indemnify and keep indemnified the British Council from and against any liability, including any interest, penalties or costs incurred, which is levied, demanded or assessed on the British Council at any time in respect of the Supplier's failure to account for or to pay any VAT relating to payments made to the Supplier under this Agreement. Any amounts due under this clause 5.3 shall be paid in cleared funds by the Supplier to the British Council not less than seven calendar days before the date on which the tax or other liability is payable by the British Council. The British Council may grant the Supplier further time to pay where this is deemed appropriate by the British Council taking account of the relevant circumstances.
- 13.4 Unless stated otherwise, the Supplier shall invoice for the Charges monthly in arrears and all such invoices shall be accompanied by a statement setting out the Services and/or Goods supplied in the relevant month in sufficient detail to justify the Charges charged (including any timesheets or other information required by, and to be provided in the format set out in, the British Council Requirements).
- 13.5 Subject to clauses 13.6 to 13.8 below, the British Council shall, unless agreed otherwise by the parties in writing, pay each of the Supplier's valid and accurate invoices by automated transfer into the Supplier's nominated bank account no later than 30 days after the invoice is received.
- 13.6 Provided that it notifies the Supplier in writing in advance, and works in good faith to resolve any issues or disputes, the British Council shall be entitled to withhold payment of any sums in respect of any Services or Deliverables which have not been provided by the Supplier to the British Council's satisfaction and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 13.7 In the event that the British Council makes any overpayment in connection with this Agreement (or any other agreement between the parties), the British Council may, upon written notice to the Supplier, deduct the amount of such overpayment from any future invoice or require repayment of such sum within 30 days after the date on which it serves written notice on the Supplier.
- 13.8 Where there is an End Client, the British Council shall not be obliged to pay any invoice to the extent that it has not received payment relating to that invoice from the End Client.
- 13.9 If the British Council fails to pay any sum properly due and payable (other than any sum disputed in good faith) by the due date for payment, the Supplier may charge interest on the amount of any such late payment at the rate of 4% per annum above the official bank rate set from time to time by the Bank of England. Such interest will accrue from the date on which payment was due to the date on which payment is actually made. The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that this rate of interest is a substantial remedy for any late payment of any sum properly due and payable.

14 Quality and Performance

- 14.1 Any person authorised by the British Council and/or the End Client shall be entitled, subject to reasonable notice, to inspect work being undertaken in relation to the Services and the Goods at all reasonable times at the Supplier's premises or at the premises of any sub-contractor or agent of the Supplier.

- 14.2 The British Council reserves the right to reject any Goods and/or reject or require re-performance (at no additional cost to the British Council) of any Services which are defective or which are otherwise not in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement. Rejected Goods may be returned at the Supplier's risk and expense and the Supplier will refund any monies paid by the British Council in relation to such rejected Goods (or the British Council shall be entitled to deduct the amount of such monies from any future invoice payable by the British Council).
- 14.3 If at any time within 12 months following the date of provision of any Services or delivery of any Goods, any such Services or Goods (or any part thereof) are found to be defective or otherwise not in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, the Supplier shall promptly on request and without charge, remedy the deficiency by re-performing the Services, or repairing, or supplying replacements for, the Goods.
- 14.4 Risk in Goods shall pass when the Goods are delivered as specified in this Agreement. Unless otherwise specified, the Supplier shall be responsible for all carriage, insurance and other costs incurred in delivering the Goods to the delivery location and, where requested, unloading Goods at that location.
- 14.5 Ownership of Goods shall pass to the British Council on delivery, payment or part payment, whichever is the first to occur.

15 Change Control

- 15.1 If either party wishes to change the scope or provision of the Services, it shall submit details of the requested change to the other in writing and such change shall only be implemented if agreed in accordance with the remainder of this clause.
- 15.2 If the British Council requests a change to the scope or provision of the Services:
- 15.2.1 the Supplier shall, within a reasonable time (and in any event not more than fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the British Council's request), provide a written estimate to the British Council of:

18.12 Each party shall promptly give written notice to the other party of any actual, threatened or suspected infringement of the Project IPR or the other party's Background IPR of which it becomes aware.

36 Counterparts

36.1 This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which when executed shall constitute a duplicate original, but all counterparts shall together constitute one agreement. Where this Agreement is executed in counterparts, following execution each party must promptly deliver the counterpart it has executed to the other party. Transmission of an executed counterpart of this Agreement by email in PDF, JPEG or other agreed format shall take effect as delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement.

37 Third party rights

37.1 Subject to clause 9.2.4, this Agreement does not create any rights or benefits enforceable by any person not a party to it except that a person who under clause 31 is a permitted successor or assignee of the rights or benefits of a party may enforce such rights or benefits.

38 No partnership or agency

38.1 Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or shall operate to, create a partnership between the parties, or to authorise either party to act as agent for the other, and neither party shall have authority to act in the name or on behalf of or otherwise to bind the other in any way (including the making of any representation or warranty, the assumption of any obligation or liability and the exercise of any right or power) and neither party shall incur any expenditure in the name of or for the account of the other.
