Bidder Guidance

Bidders are required to insert a daily rate for each job title. This is a scenario based price schedule based on 20 days effort split between job titles per year. This is not a commitment to taking 20 year per year but for evaluation purpose only. The figure shown in cell in F46 shall be used for evaluation purposes only. To note the discounted daily rates provided will form the daily rates for the contract up to the maximum value of the contract should your bid be successful. Please complete all cells highlighted yellow.
