except where such prohibited acts are undertaken with persons who are also participants in the Potential Provider's Tender, such as subcontractors, consortium members, advisors or companies within its group, or where disclosure to such person is made in confidence in order to obtain quotations necessary for the preparation of the Tender or obtain any necessary security.

- 2.2.2 If the Potential Provider breaches paragraph 2.2.1, the Crown Commercial Service may (without prejudice to any other criminal or civil remedies available to it) disqualify the Potential Provider from further participation in the Procurement.
- 2.2.3 The Crown Commercial Service may require the Potential Provider to put in place any procedures or undertake any such action(s) that the Crown Commercial Service in its sole discretion considers necessary to prevent or curtail any collusive behaviour.

- 7.5 The Crown Commercial Service is required to form an independent judgement upon whether the information is exempt from disclosure under the FoIA or the EIR and whether the public interest favours disclosure or not. The Crown Commercial Service cannot guarantee that any information indicated as being “confidential” or “commercially sensitive” by the Potential Provider will be withheld from publication.
- 7.6 If the Potential Provider receives a request for information under the FoIA or the EIR during the Procurement process, it should be immediately referred to the Crown Commercial Service.
