

University Health Centre - Premises University Floor Plan

The GP Practice will be located within the existing location on the Lincoln University Campus, Brayford Pool, which is located approximately 0.5 miles from Lincoln City Centre. The Surgery is located on the Campus itself, but is in close proximity of the student accommodation and other residential areas. There are also employment and retail developments close by.

