ANNEX D3 Defence and security

Justification for the award of the contract without prior publication of a contract notice in the Official Journal of the European Union (OJEU) Directive 2009/81/EC

1) Justification for the choice of the negotiated procedure without prior publication of a contract notice in the OJEU in accordance with art. 28 of Directive 2009/81/EC

The works/goods/services can be provided only by a particular tenderer for reasons that are:

Technical

Connected with the protection of exclusive rights

2) Other justification for the award of the contract without prior publication of the contract notice in the OJEU

In order to benefit from the reduced time-limit referred to above, in addition to the box(es) to be ticked above, please explain in a clear and comprehensive manner why the award of the contract without prior publication of a contract notice in the Official Journal of the European Union is lawful, by stating in any case the relevant facts and, as appropriate, the conclusions of law in accordance with the Articles in Directive 2009/81/EC (500 words maximum):

DSG, part of the UK Ministry of Defence, intends to place a contract with Serco for the supply, calibration, repair and post design services of General Purpose Suspension Equipment Test Sets and associated Role Sets. It is considered that a contract may be placed using the negotiated procedure without prior publication of a contract notice pursuant to Article 28(1)(e) of Directive 2009/81/EC (regulation 16(1) (a) (ii) of the UK Defence and Security Public Contracts Regulation 2011. This is because Serco is the Original Equipment Manufacturer for the items, holds the exclusive rights in a number of the items and only Serco have the necessary knowledge, data packs, procedures and facilities to provide the requirement to the required safety standards.
