

CPwN Monitoring Tool

Project Information Form

This on-line evaluation tool is aimed at monitoring the number and representation of adults who have taken part in a nature-based activity or project with NE or funded by NE. It is also piloting how we can evidence emerging outcomes around wellbeing and nature connection as well as collecting engagement data from participants.

This form collects detailed information about your project so that you can link your participant data to your project. This detail will also help us review data across projects and demonstrate our reach and engagement.

Please ensure you have read the guidance first.
