Transport for London (TfL) operates as a functional body of the Greater London Authority (GLA) under the direction of the Mayor of London and as a provider of transport services, including providing services for Surface Transport.

The Contracting Authority is acting as a central purchasing body on behalf of itself (all members of the TfL group of companies) and the Greater London Authority and its other functional bodies (currently including the Metropolitan Police, the London Fire and Emergency Planning Authority). The framework will be also available to London boroughs, educational institutions, schools, colleges, universities and other education centres, Network Rail and Train Operating Companies in London, London Alliance Highways Contractors, Businesses, Charities and other Employers across London.

Any of these bodies may award a contract to the successful bidder substantially on the terms of the contract awarded by the Contracting Authority (if any). Further details are given in the invitation documents.

If and when this requirement is offered to tender, this may be awarded at the authority's discretion by electronic-tendering or e-award system. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to award the contract in whole or in part or not at all as a result of this call for competition. The Contracting Authority shall not be liable for any costs or expenses incurred by any bidders in responding to this notice or in tendering for the proposed contract(s). The Contracting Authority may interview or call any companies who express an interest in tendering for this work. Applicants should note that notwithstanding previous registration on TfL's list of vendors, they must re-apply if they wish to be considered for the scheme advertised. TfL embraces diversity and welcomes applications from all suitably skilled suppliers of all sizes, who can meet the requirements, regardless of gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, faith, disability or age of supplier workforce and/or ownership. TfL strongly supports and implements the Greater London Authority Group Responsible Procurement policy. Details as to the application of the greater London authority group responsible procurement policy to this procurement are set out in the tender documents. Further information on TfL may be found at www.tfl.gov.uk
