JOINT SCHEDULE 11 (PROCESSING DATA) – ANNEX 1 The Parties acknowledge that they are Independent Controllers for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation in respect of the Personal Data shared for the delivery of the Services pursuant to this Call-Off Contract. The Personal Data shared shall be limited to official staff position and contact data.
CLIENT ACCOUNT The Supplier may deposit the Buyer's monies with such banks as the Supplier may from time to time decide in accordance with its regulators' Accounts Rules. The details of the bank where your funds are held shall be provided to the Buyer on request. The Supplier has no immediate control over these monies while they are held on deposit and the Supplier will not be liable to the Buyer for any monies lost as a result of the failure of the bank. In these circumstances, the Buyer may be entitled to compensation under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme. Interest is earned on the Supplier's Client Account. The Supplier shall have an interest rate policy which is designed to ensure the Buyer is treated fairly and which complies with the Supplier's regulatory requirements. This shall be provided to the Buyer, on request.
RESIDUAL BALANCES If the Supplier is holding any of the Buyer's money at the end of a matter the Supplier will either send it to the Buyer or, if there are other ongoing matters that the Supplier is working on for the Buyer, the Supplier may transfer the money to the Buyer's account on one of those other open matters (where this is permitted by the Supplier's regulators' Accounts Rules).

Where the Supplier does send the money to the Buyer the Supplier will usually send it by electronic transfer to a bank account confirmed by Buyer. If the Supplier does not hold such bank account details, then the Supplier will send the money by cheque to the address stipulated in this Order Form.

If the Buyer does not present the cheque for clearing within six months the Supplier will cancel it for security reasons and endeavour to let the Buyer know that the Supplier has done so. The Supplier will try to contact the Buyer by email, phone or in writing (at the Buyer's last known address) to seek instructions or consent to donate the balance to charity. If the Supplier is unable to contact the Buyer or get instructions within a further three months, the Supplier will make arrangements to donate the funds to charity in accordance with its regulators' Accounts Rules.

GENERAL

The Supplier's advice and services are for the Buyer's benefit only in connection with the particular work that the Buyer instructs the Supplier to do. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, the Supplier's advice is not intended to be used or relied upon by anyone else, or for a different purpose. The Buyer should not, therefore, disclose the Supplier's advice to anyone else without the Supplier's consent or rely on it in connection with any other matter.

The Supplier will take instructions from the contact(s) named in this Order Form, as confirmed by the Buyer. The Supplier may also take instructions from and provide advice in this matter to other individuals within the Buyer's organisation.

The Supplier's bank account details are unlikely to change. Should the Buyer receive any suspicious correspondence the Supplier shall contact the Buyer on a verified number. Numbers can be verified on the Supplier's website, or by contacting the Supplier using the details set out in the Solicitors Register hosted on the Solicitors Regulation Authority website.

CALL-OFF SCHEDULES

The following Call-Off Schedules are incorporated into this Call-Off Contract, as amended or supplemented as follows:

CALL-OFF SCHEDULE 1 (TRANSPARENCY REPORTS)

Annex 1: List of Transparency Reports and/or other reports

The Supplier shall provide regular written work in progress updates detailing the legal support provided to date, the legal issues to be considered and the fees incurred to assist MoD Legal Advisors in managing the progress of the project.
