SERVICE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

BACKGROUND:

Dualo Limited (the “Service Provider”) provides consulting services to business clients. The Service Provider has reasonable skill, knowledge, and experience in that field. These Terms and Conditions shall form the basis of contracts for the provision of services by the Service Provider to its clients.

1. Definitions and Interpretation

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the following meanings:

“Applicable Laws”	means all laws, statutes, regulations, and similar instruments from time to time in force applicable to the Parties, the Services, and to the Contract;
“Business Day”	means, any day (other than Saturday or Sunday) on which ordinary banks are open for their full range of normal business in the United Kingdom;
“Business Hours”	means 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on a Business Day;
“Client”	means the party procuring the Services from the Service Provider under the Contract;
“Client Materials”	means any and all information, documents, and other materials provided by the Client to the Service Provider in relation to the provision of the Services;
“Commencement Date”	means the date on which the Contract shall enter into effect, as set out in Clause 2 (Basis of Contract);
“Confidential Information”	means, in relation to either Party, information which is disclosed to that Party by the other Party pursuant to or in connection with the Contract (whether orally or in writing or any other medium, and whether or not the information is expressly stated to be confidential or marked as such);
“Contract”	means the contract entered into by the Service Provider and the Client for the provision of Services in accordance with and on the basis of these Terms and Conditions;
“Data Protection Legislation”	means all applicable legislation in force from time to time in the United Kingdom applicable to data protection and privacy including, but not limited to, the UK GDPR (as defined in section 3(10) (as supplemented by section 205(4)) of the Data Protection Act 2018; the Data Protection Act 2018 (and regulations made thereunder); and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 as amended;

“Fees”	means any and all sums due under the Contract from the Client to the Service Provider in consideration of the Services, as set out in Clause 5 (Fees, Payment, and Records);
“Intellectual Property Rights”	means patents, rights to inventions, copyright and related rights, trade marks, business names, domain names, rights in get-up and trade dress, goodwill and the right to passing off actions, design rights, database rights, rights subsisting in software, rights to use confidential information and the right to protect the same, and any and all other intellectual property rights, whether registered or unregistered, including applications and the right to apply for (and be granted) renewals or extensions of, and rights to claim priority from, any such rights and any and all equivalent rights or other forms of protection subsisting now or in the future anywhere in the world;
“Order”	means the Client’s order for the Services as set out in the Client’s written acceptance of the Service Provider’s Statement of Work;
“Services”	means the services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Client in accordance with the Contract, as fully defined in the Statement of Work; and
“Specification”	means the full description and specification of the Services as agreed in writing by the Client and the Service Provider.

- 1.2 Any reference to “writing”, and any similar expression, includes a reference to any communication sent by email.
- 1.3 Unless expressly stated otherwise, legislation or a provision thereof is a reference to that legislation or provision as amended or re-enacted from time to time.
- 1.4 Unless expressly stated otherwise, legislation or a provision thereof, shall include all subordinate legislation made from time to time under that legislation or provision.
- 1.5 A reference to “these Terms and Conditions” is a reference to these Terms and Conditions as amended or supplemented at the relevant time.
- 1.6 A reference to “the Contract” is a reference to the contract between the Parties as defined above in sub-Clause 1.1 and further set out below in Clause 2 (Basis of Contract).
- 1.7 A reference to a "Party" or the "Parties" refer to the parties to the Contract.
- 1.8 A reference to any other agreement or document is a reference to that agreement or document as amended or supplemented at the relevant time.
- 1.9 Any obligation on either Party not to do a particular thing includes an obligation to not allow that thing to be done.
- 1.10 The headings used in these Terms and Conditions are for convenience only and shall have no effect upon the interpretation of the Contract.

- 1.11 Words communicating the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa.
- 1.12 References to any gender shall include any other gender.
- 1.13 References to persons shall include natural persons, corporate, or unincorporated bodies (whether or not the same have a separate legal personality).
- 1.14 References to a company shall include companies, corporations, or other bodies corporate, however so and wherever incorporated or established.

2. Basis of Contract

- 2.1 An Order shall constitute a contractual offer by the Client to procure Services from the Service Provider in accordance with and on the basis of these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.2 An Order shall be deemed to be accepted by the Service Provider upon the Service Provider's issuing its acceptance of that Order in writing.
- 2.3 Upon the Service Provider's issuing of written acceptance under sub-Clause 2.2, a Contract shall come into existence between the Client and the Service Provider. The date of the Service Provider's written acceptance shall be the Commencement Date of the Contract.
- 2.4 These Terms and Conditions shall form the basis of the Contract. Subject to Clause 18 (Variation) and to sub-Clause 10.8 (Data Processing), any other terms that the Client or the Service Provider seek to impose or incorporate into the Contract, or which are implied by trade custom, practice, or course of dealing shall be excluded from the Contract.
- 2.5 No advertising, promotional literature, descriptive matter, drawings, samples, catalogues, brochures, or similar material issued or published by the Service Provider in any format or medium shall form part of the Contract or have any contractual force. Such material is provided by the Service Provider only for promotional purposes and for providing an approximate description of the services available from the Service Provider.

3. Provision of the Services and Service Provider's Obligations

- 3.1 With effect from the Commencement Date, the Service Provider shall, throughout the term of the Contract, provide the Services to the Client.
- 3.2 The Service Provider shall ensure that the Services conform at all times with the Specification in all material respects.
- 3.3 The Service Provider shall provide the Services with reasonable skill and care, commensurate with best practices in the research industry in the United Kingdom.
- 3.4 The Service Provider shall use reasonable endeavours to meet any dates set out in the Order. Such dates shall be estimates only and are subject to change based on the availability of the Client and Service Provider.
- 3.5 The Service Provider shall act in accordance with all reasonable instructions issued by the Client provided that such instructions are compatible with the Specification.
- 3.6 The Service Provider shall ensure that any and all of its personnel involved in the provision of the Services are suitably skilled, qualified, and experienced to perform the part(s) of the Services to which they are assigned.
- 3.7 The Service Provider shall use any Client Materials provided by the Client from time to time only to the extent reasonably necessary for and only for the purposes of the provision of the Services. The Service Provider shall hold any and all Client Materials in safe custody, at its own risk, and shall maintain the same in good condition. The Service Provider shall return or dispose of Client Materials in its possession at the Client's option and on the Client's written instruction.

4. Client's Obligations

- 4.1 The Client shall ensure that all information that it provides in the Order and the Specification shall be complete and accurate.
- 4.2 The Client shall provide:
 - a) all co-operation that is reasonably required by the Service Provider to enable the Service Provider to provide the Services; and
 - b) any and all Client Materials that are agreed upon by the Parties, or as otherwise reasonably required from time to time by the Service Provider, together with any necessary written authorisation and instructions relating to the Client Materials, to enable the Service Provider to provide the Services;
- 4.3 The Client may from time to time issue reasonable instructions to the Service Provider in relation to the Service Provider's provision of the Services. Any such instructions shall be within the scope of the agreed Specification.
- 4.4 In the event that the Service Provider requires the decision, approval, consent, authorisation, or any other communication from the Client in order to continue with the provision of the Services (or any part thereof) at any time, the Client shall provide the same in a reasonable and timely manner.
- 4.5 Any failure or delay in the provision of the Services by the Service Provider which results from the Client's failure or delay in complying with any of its obligations under the Contract or any other act or omission of the Client shall not be the responsibility or fault of the Service Provider.

5. Fees, Payment, and Records

- 5.1 The Fees shall be set out in the Order. The Fees shall be the full and only consideration payable to the Service Provider with respect to its provision of the Services.
- 5.2 Unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing, the Fees shall include all costs and expenses incurred by the Service Provider, whether directly or indirectly, in connection with the provision of the Services.
- 5.3 The Service Provider shall invoice the Client ahead of providing the Services.
- 5.4 All payments required to be made pursuant to the Contract in consideration of the Services shall be made within 30 calendar days of receipt of the relevant invoice by the Client.
- 5.5 All payments required to be made pursuant to the Contract in consideration of the Services shall be made in Pound Sterling (GBP) in cleared funds to such bank in the United Kingdom as the Service Provider may nominate in writing.
- 5.6 All sums payable by the Client under the Contract shall be exclusive of VAT. In the event that any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by the Service Provider to the Client, the Client shall, upon receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Service Provider, pay to the Service Provider such additional sums in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Services at the same time that payment is due for the provision of the Services.

- 5.7 If the Client receives an invoice and reasonably believes that it is incorrect, it may dispute that invoice in good faith as follows:
- a) the Client shall notify the Service Provider in writing as soon as reasonably possible and practicable;
 - b) the Client shall not be deemed to be in breach of the Contract for failure to pay the disputed sums while such a dispute is ongoing;
 - c) the Client shall pay any sum which is not in dispute by the due date for payment;
 - d) following the resolution of the dispute, the Client shall pay the sum agreed between the Parties including any interest charged on that sum by the Service Provider, as calculated in accordance with sub-Clause 5.8 (from the original due date for payment);
 - e) in the event that the Service Provider is required to refund any sums to the Client, interest shall be added to such sums, as calculated in accordance with sub-Clause 5.8; and
 - f) following the resolution of the dispute, in the event that either Party is required to make a balancing payment, that Party shall make such payment within 30 calendar days and, in the event that the Service Provider is required to issue a credit note, it shall issue the same within 30 calendar days.
- 5.8 Without prejudice to sub-Clause 14.1(a) (termination for late payment), any sums which remain unpaid by the due date for payment under the Contract shall incur interest on a daily basis at a rate of 3% per annum above the base rate of the Bank of England from time to time, or at 5% per annum for any period during which that base rate is below 0%, from the due date for payment until payment is made in full of any such outstanding sums, whether before or after judgement.
- 5.9 All sums due under the Contract shall be paid in full without any set-off, withholding, deduction, or counterclaim except any withholding or deduction (if any) of tax that is required by law.
- 5.10 The Service Provider shall keep or procure that are kept, such records and books of account as are necessary to enable the amount of any sums payable pursuant to the Contract to be accurately calculated.

6. Intellectual Property Rights

- 6.1 The Client (and, where applicable, its licensors) shall retain ownership of the Intellectual Property Rights subsisting in any and all Client Materials.

7. Confidentiality

- 7.1 Each Party undertakes that, except as provided by sub-Clause 7.2 or as authorised in writing by the other Party (such authorisation not to be unreasonably withheld), it shall, at all times during the term of the Contract:
- a) keep confidential all Confidential Information;
 - b) not disclose any Confidential Information to any other party;
 - c) not use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than as contemplated by the Contract; and

- d) ensure that (as applicable) none of its employees, directors, officers, agents, or sub-contractors does any act which, if done by that Party, would be a breach of the provisions of this Clause 7.

7.2 Subject to sub-Clause 7.3, either Party may disclose any Confidential Information to:

- a) any sub-contractors, substitutes, or suppliers;
- b) any governmental or other authority or regulatory body; or
- c) any employee or officer of that Party or of any of the aforementioned persons, parties, or bodies.

7.3 Disclosure under sub-Clause 7.2 may be made only to the extent that it is necessary for the purposes contemplated by the Contract, or as required by law. In each case, the disclosing Party must first inform the recipient that the Confidential Information is confidential. Unless the recipient is a body described in sub-Clause 7.2(b) or is an authorised employee or officer of such a body, the Party disclosing the Confidential Information under sub-Clause 7.2 must obtain and submit to the other Party a written undertaking from the recipient to keep the Confidential Information confidential and to use it only for the purposes for which the disclosure is made.

7.4 Either Party may use any Confidential for any purpose, or disclose it to any other party, where that Confidential Information is or becomes public knowledge through no fault of that Party.

7.5 When using or disclosing Confidential Information under sub-Clause 7.4, the Party using or disclosing that Confidential Information must ensure that it does not use or disclose any part of that Confidential Information which is not public knowledge.

7.6 The provisions of this Clause 7 shall continue in force in accordance with their terms, notwithstanding the termination or expiry of the Contract for any reason.

8. Law

8.1 The Service Provider shall, at all times, and at its own expense when performing its obligations under the Contract, comply with the Applicable Laws.

8.2 Each Party shall inform the other Party as soon as reasonably possible and practicable when it becomes aware of any changes to the Applicable Laws.

9. Data Protection

9.1 The Service Provider shall only use the Client's personal data as set out in the Service Provider's Privacy Policy, available at www.dualo.io/privacy.

10. Data Processing

10.1 In this Clause 10, the terms "personal data", "processing", "data subject", "controller", "processor", and "personal data breach" shall have the meanings defined in Article 4 of the UK GDPR, and the terms "Data Processor" and "Data Controller" shall have the same meanings as "processor" and "controller" respectively. The term "domestic law" means the law of the United Kingdom or a part thereof.

10.2 The Parties shall both comply with all applicable data protection requirements set out in the Data Protection Legislation. This Clause 10 shall not relieve either Party of any obligations set out in the Data Protection Legislation and does not remove or replace any of those obligations.

- 10.3 For the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation and for this Clause 10, the Client shall be the "Data Controller", and the Service Provider shall be the "Data Processor".
- 10.4 The scope, nature, and purpose of the processing; the duration of the processing; the type(s) of personal data; and the category or categories of data subject shall be set out in the Service Provider's Privacy Policy, available at www.dualo.io/privacy.
- 10.5 The Data Controller shall (without prejudice to the generality of sub-Clause 10.2) ensure that it has in place all necessary consents and notices required to enable the lawful transfer of personal data to and the lawful collection of personal data by the Data Processor, for the purposes described in the Order and the Specification for the duration of the Contract.
- 10.6 The Data Processor shall (without prejudice to the generality of sub-Clause 10.2), with respect to any personal data processed by it in relation to its performance of any of its obligations under the Contract:
- a) process the personal data only on the written documented instructions of the Data Controller unless the Data Processor is otherwise required to process such personal data by domestic law. The Data Processor shall promptly notify the Data Controller before carrying out such processing unless it is prohibited from doing so by that law;
 - b) ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures (as approved by the Data Controller) to protect the personal data from unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, damage, or destruction. Such measures shall be appropriate and proportionate to the potential harm resulting from such events and to the nature, scope, and context of the personal data and processing involved, taking into account the current state of the art in technology and the cost of implementing those measures;
 - c) ensure that any and all persons with access to the personal data (whether for processing purposes or otherwise) are contractually obliged to keep that personal data confidential;
 - d) not transfer any personal data outside of the UK without the prior written consent of the Data Controller and only if the following conditions are satisfied:
 - I. the Data Controller and/or the Data Processor has/have provided appropriate safeguards for the transfer of personal data;
 - II. affected data subjects have enforceable rights and effective legal remedies;
 - III. the Data Processor complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation, providing an adequate level of protection to any and all personal data so transferred; and
 - IV. the Data Processor complies with all reasonable instructions given in advance by the Data Controller with respect to the processing of the personal data;
 - e) assist the Data Controller, at the Data Controller's cost, in responding to any and all requests from data subjects and in ensuring its compliance with the Data Protection Legislation with respect to impact assessments, security, breach notifications, and consultations with supervisory authorities or other applicable regulatory authorities (including, but not limited to, the Information Commissioner's Office);

- f) notify the Data Controller without undue delay of any personal data breach of which it becomes aware;
 - g) on the Data Controller's written instruction, delete (or otherwise dispose of) or return all personal data and any and all copies thereof to the Data Controller on termination or expiry of the Contract unless it is required to retain any of the personal data by domestic law;
- 10.7 The Data Processor shall not sub-contract any of its obligations with respect to the processing of personal data under this Clause 10 to another processor without the prior written consent of the Data Controller (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld). In the event that the Data Processor appoints another processor, the Data Processor shall:
- a) enter into a written contract with the other processor, which shall impose upon that other processor substantially the same obligations as are imposed upon the Data Processor by this Clause 10, which the Data Processor shall ensure shall reflect the requirements of the Data Protection Legislation at all times;
 - b) ensure that the other processor complies fully with its obligations under that agreement and the Data Protection Legislation; and
 - c) remain fully liable to the Data Controller for the performance of that other processor's obligations and the acts or omissions thereof.
- 10.8 Either Party may, at any time, and on at least 30 calendar days notice, alter this Clause 10, replacing it with any applicable data processing clauses or similar terms adopted by the Information Commissioner or that form part of an applicable certification scheme. Such terms shall apply and replace this Clause 10 by attachment to the Service Terms and Conditions.

11. Insurance

- 11.1 The Service Provider shall supply the Client with copies of current certificates of insurance for the term of the Contract.

12. Liability

- 12.1 Nothing in the Contract shall limit or exclude either Party's liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, for the wilful misconduct of either Party or that of its employees or agents, for any breach of the terms implied by Section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982, or any other form of liability which cannot be limited or excluded by law.
- 12.2 Nothing in this Clause 12 shall exclude or limit either Party's payment obligations under the Contract.
- 12.3 Nothing in this Clause 12 shall exclude claims under or in relation to the Contract for direct financial loss that are not expressly excluded by categories (a) to (i) of sub-Clause 12.4.
- 12.4 Subject to sub-Clauses 12.1 to 12.3 and to any other provision to the contrary in the Contract, neither Party shall be liable under or in relation to the Contract for any loss suffered by the other, whether suffered directly or indirectly, or whether immediate or consequential, arising in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, which falls within any of the following categories:
- a) loss of profits;

- b) loss of sales or business;
 - c) loss of business opportunity;
 - d) loss of agreements or contracts;
 - e) loss of anticipated savings;
 - f) loss or corruption of data;
 - g) loss of, or damage to, goodwill;
 - h) indirect or consequential loss; or
 - i) special damages, even in the event that the relevant Party was aware of the circumstances in which the same could arise.
- 12.5 Subject to sub-Clauses 12.1, 12.2, 12.3, and 12.4, the total aggregate liability of the Service Provider under or in relation to the Contract for any and all related or unrelated acts or omissions, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall be limited to £1,000,000.
- 12.6 Subject to sub-Clause 12.1, 12.2, 12.3, and 12.4, the total aggregate liability of the Client under or in relation to the Contract for all related or unrelated acts or omissions, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall be limited to £1,000,000.
- 12.7 The limit on the Service Provider's liability referred to in sub-Clause 12.5 shall not be reduced by any sums awarded by any court or arbitrator using their statutory or procedural powers in relation to the costs of proceedings or interest for late payment.
- 12.8 Subject to the above provisions of this Clause 12, the Client's rights under the Contract shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, any common law rights or remedies.

13. Force Majeure

- 13.1 For the purposes of the Contract, "Force Majeure Event" means, in relation to either Party, any circumstances beyond that Party's reasonable control including, but not limited to collapse of buildings, fire, explosion, accident, acts of God, storm, flood, drought, earthquake, epidemic, pandemic, or other natural disaster; terrorist attack, civil commotion or riots, war, civil war, threat of preparation for war, armed conflict, imposition of sanctions, embargo, or breaking off diplomatic relations; nuclear, chemical, or biological contamination, or sonic boom.
- 13.2 If any Force Majeure Event occurs in relation to either Party which affects or may affect that Party's performance of its obligations under the Contract, the affected Party shall notify the other Party as soon as reasonably possible and practicable of the nature and extent of the circumstances in question. The affected Party shall use reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure Event on the performance of its obligations.
- 13.3 Subject to compliance with sub-Clause 13.2, neither Party shall be deemed to be in breach of the Contract or shall otherwise be liable to the other by reason of any delay in performance or non-performance of any of its obligations under the Contract to the extent that performance of that obligation is prevented, hindered, or delayed by a Force Majeure Event of which it has notified the other Party, and the time for that performance shall be extended accordingly.
- 13.4 If the performance by either Party of any of its obligations under the Contract is prevented, hindered, or delayed by a Force Majeure Event for a continuous period in excess of 30 calendar days, the Parties shall enter into bona fide discussions with a view to alleviating its effects, or to agreeing upon such alternative arrangements as may be fair and reasonable.

14. Termination

14.1 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it, either Party may terminate the Contract immediately by giving written notice to the other Party in the event that:

- a) the other Party does not pay any sum due under the Contract when it is due to be paid and such sum remains outstanding for at least 30 calendar days after receiving written notification to pay that sum;
- b) the other Party commits a material breach of any term of the Contract and (if that breach is capable of remedy) does not remedy that breach within 30 business days after receiving written notification to do so;
- c) the other Party threatens to, or does, suspend, payment of its debts as they fall due, admits that it is unable to pay its debts, or (being a company or limited liability partnership) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (as if the meaning of the words "it is proved to the satisfaction of the courts" contained in sections 123(1)(e) or 123(2) of the Insolvency Act 1986 did not appear in those sections), or (being an individual) is deemed either to be unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of paying its debts, in either case, within the meaning of section 268 of the Insolvency act 1986, or (being a partnership) has any partner to whom any of the foregoing applies;
- d) the other Party begins negotiations with any class or all of its creditors about the rescheduling of any of its debts, or proposes any compromise or arrangements with any of its creditors or enters into the same, other than (being a company) solely for the purpose of a scheme for the solvent amalgamation of that other Party with one or more other companies or for the solvent reconstruction of that other Party;
- e) the other Party applies to the court for, or obtains, a moratorium under Part A1 of the Insolvency Act 1986;
- f) a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or otherwise in connection with the winding up of the other Party (being a company, limited liability partnership, or a partnership) other than solely for the purpose of a scheme for the solvent amalgamation of that other Party with one or more other companies or for the solvent reconstruction of that Party;
- g) an application is made to the court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator, or a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given, or an administrator is appointed, over the other Party (being a company, limited liability partnership, or a partnership);
- h) the holder of a qualifying floating charge over the assets of that other Party (being a company or limited liability partnership) has become entitled to appoint, or has appointed, an administrative receiver;
- i) a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over any or all of the assets of the other Party, or a receiver is appointed over all or any of the assets of the other Party;

- j) the other Party (being an individual) is the subject of a bankruptcy petition, application, or order;
 - k) any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the other Party in any jurisdiction to which it is subject, that has a similar effect to any of the events set out above in sub-Clauses 14.1(c) to (k) (inclusive);
 - l) the other Party ceases or suspends, or threatens to cease or suspend, carrying on all or a substantial part of its business;
 - m) the other Party (being an individual) dies, or due to illness or incapacity (whether mental or physical), becomes incapable of managing their own affairs or becomes a patient under any mental health legislation; or
 - n) there is a change of control of the other Party (within the meaning of section 1124 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010).
- 14.2 For the purposes of sub-Clause 14.1(b), a breach shall be considered capable of remedy if the Party in breach can comply with the provision in question in all respects.

15. Effects of Termination

Upon the termination or expiry of the Contract for any reason:

- 15.1 any sum owing by either Party to the other Party under the Contract shall become immediately due and payable;
- 15.2 the Service Provider shall immediately return any and all Client Materials in its possession. The Service Provider shall be fully and solely responsible for Client Materials in its possession until they are returned to the Client and shall not use the same for any purpose which is not connected with the Contract;
- 15.3 each Party shall (except to the extent referred to in Clause 7 (Confidentiality)) immediately cease to use, either directly or indirectly, any Confidential Information belonging to the other Party, and shall immediately return to the other Party any documents in its possession or control which contain or record any Confidential Information;
- 15.4 termination or expiry shall not affect or prejudice any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities of the Parties that have accrued up to the date of termination or expiry including, but not limited to, the right to claim damages or any other remedy in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry; and
- 15.5 any provision of the Contract which either expressly or by implication is intended to continue in force or come into force after or upon the termination or expiry of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.

16. No Waiver

- 16.1 No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any of its rights under the Contract shall be deemed to be a waiver of that right, and no waiver by either Party of a breach of any provision of the Contract shall be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.

17. Further Assurance

- 17.1 Each Party shall execute and do all such further deeds, documents and things as
