37. TRANSFER AND SUB-CONTRACTING

- 37.1 The Supplier shall not assign, novate, sub-contract or in any other way dispose of the Contract or any part of it without prior Approval. Sub-contracting any part of the Contract shall not relieve the Supplier of any obligation or duty attributable to the Supplier under the Contract.
- 37.2 The Supplier shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of its sub-contractors as though they are the actions and or omissions of its own Staff.
- 37.3 Where the Customer has consented to the placing of sub-contracts, copies of each sub-contract shall, at the request of the Customer, be sent by the Supplier to the Customer as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 37.4 Subject to Clause 37.6, the Customer may assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof to:
- 37.4.1 any Contracting Authority; or

37.4.2 any other Authority established by the Crown or under statute in order substantially to perform any of the functions that had previously been performed by the Customer; or

37.4.3 any private sector Authority which substantially performs the functions of the Customer provided that any such assignment, novation or other disposal shall not increase the burden of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract.

37.5 Any change in the legal status of the Customer such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority shall not, subject to Clause 37.6, affect the validity of the Contract. In such circumstances, the Contract shall bind and inure to the benefit of any successor Authority to the Customer.

37.6 If the rights and obligations under the Contract are assigned, novated or otherwise disposed of pursuant to Clause 37.4 to a Authority which is not a Contracting Authority or if there is a change in the legal status of the Customer such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority (in the remainder of this clause both such Authorities being referred to as the "Transferee"):

37.6.1 the rights of termination of the Customer in Clause 51 shall be available to the Supplier in the event of, respectively, the bankruptcy or insolvency, or Default of the Transferee; and

37.6.2 the Transferee shall only be able to assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof with the previous consent in writing of the Supplier.

37.7 The Customer may disclose to any Transferee any Confidential Information of the Supplier which relates to the performance of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract. In such circumstances the Customer shall authorise the Transferee to use such Confidential Information only for purposes relating to the performance of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract and for no other purposes and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Transferee gives a Confidential Information undertaking in relation to such Confidential Information.

37.8 Each Party shall at its own cost and expense carry out or use all reasonable endeavours to ensure the carrying out of, whatever further actions (including the execution of further documents) the other Party reasonably requires from time to time for the purpose of giving that other Party the full benefit of the provisions of the Contract.

38. WAIVER

38.1 The failure of either Party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of the Contract, or the failure of either Party to exercise, or any delay in exercising, any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy and shall not cause a diminution of the obligations established by the Contract.

38.2 No waiver shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and communicated to the other Party in writing in accordance with Clause 8.

38.3 A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other or subsequent breach of the Contract.

39. VARIATION

39.1 Subject to the provisions of this Clause 39.1, the Customer may request a variation to Services ordered provided that such variation does not amount to a material change to the Order. Such a change is hereinafter called a "Variation".

39.2 The Customer may request a Variation by completing and sending the Call-Off Terms and Conditions Variation form attached at Appendix 4 ("the Variation Form") to the Supplier giving sufficient information for the Supplier to assess the extent of the Variation and any additional cost that may be incurred. The Supplier shall respond to a request for a Variation within the time limits specified in the Variation Form. Such time limits shall be reasonable having regard to the nature of the Order.

39.3 In the event that the Supplier is unable to provide the Variation to the Services or where the Parties are unable to agree a change to the Contract Price, the Customer may:

39.3.1 agree to allow the Supplier to continue to perform their obligations under the Contract without the Variation; or 39.3.2 terminate the Contract with immediate effect, except where the Supplier has already delivered part or all of the Order in accordance with the Order Form or where the Supplier can show evidence of substantial work being carried out to fulfil the Order, and in such a case the Parties shall attempt to agree upon a resolution to the matter. Where a resolution cannot be reached, the matter shall be dealt with under the Dispute Resolution Procedure detailed at Clause 60.

39.3.3 If the Parties agree the Variation and any variation in the Contract Price, the Supplier shall carry out such Variation and be bound by the same provisions so far as is applicable, as though such Variation was stated in the Contract.

40. SEVERABILITY

40.1 If any provision of the Contract is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect as if the Contract had been executed with the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision eliminated.

40.2 In the event of a holding of invalidity so fundamental as to prevent the accomplishment of the purpose of the Contract, the Customer and the Supplier shall immediately commence good faith negotiations to remedy such invalidity.

41. NOT USED

42. REMEDIES IN THE EVENT OF INADEQUATE PERFORMANCE OF THE SERVICES

42.1 Where a complaint is received about the manner in which any Services have been supplied or work has been performed or about the materials or procedures used or about any other matter connected with the performance of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract, then the Customer shall take all reasonable steps to investigate the complaint. The Customer may, in its sole discretion, uphold the complaint, or take further action in accordance with Clause 51 of the Contract.

42.2 In the event that the Customer is of the reasonable opinion that there has been a material breach of the Contract by the Supplier, then the Customer may, without prejudice to its rights under Clause 51, do any of the following:

42.2.1 without terminating the Contract, itself supply or procure the supply of all or part of the Services until such time as the Supplier shall have demonstrated to the reasonable satisfaction of the Customer that the Supplier will once more be able to supply all or such part of the Services in accordance with the Contract;

42.2.2 without terminating the whole of the Contract, terminate the Contract in respect of part of the Services only (whereupon a corresponding reduction in the Contract Price shall be made) and thereafter itself supply or procure a third party to supply such part of the Services;

42.2.3 terminate, in accordance with Clause 51, the whole of the Contract; and/or

42.2.4 charge the Supplier for and the Supplier shall pay any costs reasonably incurred by the Customer (including any reasonable administration costs) in respect of the supply of any part of the Services by the Customer or a third party to the extent that such costs exceed the payment which would otherwise have been payable to the Supplier for such part of the Services and provided that the Customer uses its reasonable endeavours to mitigate any additional expenditure in obtaining replacement Services.

42.3 If the Supplier fails to supply any of the Services in accordance with the provisions of the Contract and such failure is capable of remedy, then the Customer shall instruct the Supplier to remedy the failure and the Supplier shall at its own cost and expense remedy such failure (and any damage resulting from such failure) within ten (10) Working Days of the Customer's instructions or such other period of time as the Customer may direct.

42.4 In the event that the Supplier:

42.4.1 fails to comply with Clause 42.3 above and the failure is materially adverse to the interests of the Customer or prevents the Customer from discharging a statutory duty; or the Customer may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving the Supplier notice in writing.

42.4.2 persistently fails to comply with Clause 42.3 above

43. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

43.1 If the Supplier fails to deliver the Services by the date(s) agreed/specified in the Order Form or (where an extension of time has been agreed by the Parties) the revised date for delivery (as the context requires, the "Agreed Delivery Date"):

43.1.1 the Supplier shall pay the Customer a sum by way of liquidated damages for each day between the Agreed Delivery Date and the date on which the Services are delivered equal to 0% of the Contract Price for the relevant Goods and/or Services, up to a maximum amount of 0% of the Contract Price for the relevant Services ("Liquidated Damages Threshold"). Subject to Clause 43.3, during the period in which liquidated damages are payable under this Clause 43.1 ("Liquidated Damages Period").

43.2 if the sums payable by the Supplier pursuant to Clause 43.1 meet or exceed the Liquidated Damages Threshold, the Customer shall be entitled to:

43.2.1 claim any remedy available to it (whether under the Contract or otherwise) for loss or damage incurred or suffered over and above the Liquidated Damages Threshold; and 43.2.2 without prejudice to Clause 43.1 the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving notice in writing to the Supplier.

43.3 The Supplier shall not be obliged to pay any sums pursuant to Clause 43.1 if and to the extent the failure by the Supplier to deliver the Services by the Agreed Delivery Date directly results from the Customer Default provided that the Supplier notifies the Customer immediately of such circumstances in sufficient detail to enable the Customer to remedy the situation. Except as set out in this Clause 43.2, no payment or concession to the Supplier by the Customer or other act or omission of the Customer shall in any way affect its rights to liquidated damages pursuant to Clause 43.1 or be deemed to be a waiver of the right of the Customer to recover any damages unless such waiver has been expressly made in writing by the Customer.

43.4 Notwithstanding Clause 43.1 the Supplier does not exclude responsibility for performing or re-performing the obligation or duty which gave rise to the relevant claim at its own cost in such manner as would (if possible) result in the same or substantively similar effect for the Customer, whether or not such performance or re-performance gives rise to additional costs for the Supplier and the cost of re-performance shall be borne solely by the Supplier and shall not be re-charged to the Customer whether by way of costs, reimbursement or otherwise.

43.5 Having given careful consideration to this matter, all monies payable by the Supplier under Clause 43.1 are considered by the Parties to be a genuine pre-estimate of the losses which the Customer will incur in relation to the Supplier's failure to deliver the Services by the Agreed Delivery Date it being impossible to quantify the actual aggregate losses sustainable by the Customer in terms of both loss of revenue as well as loss of reputation and prestige (the Parties acknowledging that hypothetically the losses sufferable by the Customer might be more or less than the agreed liquidated damages calculation); arrived at without any inequality of bargaining position as between the Parties as a true bargain between the Parties; fair, given the nature and circumstances of the Contract; neither excessive, extravagant, unconscionable or oppressive in all the circumstances; and as such these monies are payable as liquidated damages such that the Supplier waives absolutely any entitlement to challenge the enforceability in whole or in part of this Clause 43.4. The Parties' joint intention in agreeing a scheme of liquidated damages in such circumstances is to substantially reduce and, to the fullest extent possible in Law, eliminate, the risk of a dispute and potential litigation in relation to such circumstances.

43.6 Each Party confirms that:

43.6.1 it has taken specific legal advice on the effect of this clause; and

43.6.2 based on such advice, it does not enter into the Contract in anticipation that, or with any expectation that this Clause will be unenforceable for any reason.

44. CUMULATIVE REMEDIES

44.1 Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Contract, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Contract are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of any one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.

45. MONITORING OF CONTRACT PERFORMANCE

45.1 The Supplier shall comply with the monitoring arrangements set out in the Order Form including, providing such data and information as the Supplier may be required to produce under the Contract.

- 46.6 Nothing in the Contract shall impose any liability on the Customer in respect of any liability incurred by the Supplier to any other person, but this shall not be taken to exclude or limit any liability of the Customer to the Supplier that may arise by virtue of either a breach of the Contract or by negligence on the part of the Customer, or the Customer's employees, servants or agents.
- 46.7 The Supplier shall affect and maintain with a reputable insurance company a policy or policies of insurance providing an adequate level of cover in respect of risks which may be incurred by the Supplier, arising out of the Supplier's performance of its obligations under the Contract, including death or personal injury, loss of or damage to property or any other loss. Such policies shall include cover in respect of any financial loss arising from any advice given or omitted to be given by the Supplier.
- 46.8 The Supplier shall affect and maintain, where required, the following insurances in relation to the performance of the Contract: -

- 46.10 The Supplier shall give the Customer, on request, copies of all insurance policies referred to in this clause or a broker's verification of insurance to demonstrate that the appropriate cover is in place, together with receipts or other evidence of payment of the latest premiums due under those policies.
- 46.11 If, for whatever reason, the Supplier fails to give effect to and maintain the insurances required by the provisions of the Contract the Customer may make alternative arrangements to protect its interests and may recover the costs of such arrangements from the Supplier.
- 46.12 The provisions of any insurance or the amount of cover shall not relieve the Supplier of any liabilities under the Contract. It shall be the responsibility of the Supplier to determine the amount of insurance cover that will be adequate to enable the Supplier to satisfy any liability referred to in Clause 46.
- 46.13 The Supplier shall maintain the insurances referred to in this Clause 46 above for the Contract Period and for a minimum of six (6) years following expiry or earlier termination of the Contract.

The Supplier shall at all times indemnify the Customer and keep the Customer indemnified in full from and against all claims, proceedings, actions, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities and demands whatsoever and howsoever arising by reason of any circumstances whereby the Customer is alleged or determined to have been assumed or imposed with the liability or responsibility for the Staff (or any of them) as an employer of the Staff and/or any liability or responsibility to HM Revenue or Customs as an employer of the Staff whether during the Contract Period or arising from termination or expiry of the Contract.

54.4 Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract:

54.4.1 termination or expiry of the Contract shall be without prejudice to any rights, remedies or obligations accrued under the Contract prior to termination or expiration and nothing in the Contract shall prejudice the right of either Party to recover any amount outstanding at such termination or expiry;

54.4.2 Within thirty (30) Working Days of the date of termination or expiry of the Contract, the Supplier shall return to the Customer any data and Confidential Information belonging to the Customer that is in the Supplier's possession, power or control, either in its then current format or in a format nominated by Customer, together with all training manuals and other related documentation, and any other information and all copies thereof owned by the Customer, save that it may keep one copy of any such data or information for a period of up to twelve (12) Months to comply with its obligations under the Contract, or such period as is necessary for such compliance.

54.4.3 termination of the Contract shall not affect the continuing rights, remedies or obligations of the Customer or the Supplier under Clauses 20 (Payment and VAT), 22 (Recovery of Sums Due), 24 (Prevention of Bribery and Corruption), 29 (Data Protection Act), 30 (Freedom of Information), 31 (Official Secrets Acts 1911 to 1989, Section 182 of the Finance Act 1989), 32 (Confidential Information), 35 (Intellectual Property Rights), 36 (Records and Audit Access), 44 (Cumulative Remedies), 46 (Liability, Indemnity and Insurance), 47 (Professional Indemnity), 54 (Consequences of Expiry or Termination), 56 (Recovery upon Termination) and 58 (Governing Law).

55. DISRUPTION

55.1 The Supplier shall take reasonable care to ensure that in the performance of its obligations under the Contract it does not disrupt the operations of the Customer, its employees or any other Supplier employed by the Customer.

55.2 The Supplier shall immediately inform the Customer of any actual or potential industrial action, whether such action is by their own employees or others, which affects or might affect its ability at any time to perform its obligations under the Contract.

55.3 In the event of industrial action by the Staff, the Supplier shall seek the Customer's Approval to its proposals for the continuance of the supply of the Services in accordance with its obligations under the Contract.

55.4 If the Supplier's proposals referred to in Clause 55.3 are considered insufficient or unacceptable by the Customer acting reasonably then the Contract may be terminated with immediate effect by the Customer by notice in writing.

55.5 If the Supplier is temporarily unable to fulfil the requirements of the Contract owing to disruption of normal business by direction of the Customer, an appropriate allowance by way of extension of time will be Approved by the Customer. In addition, the Customer will reimburse any additional expense reasonably incurred by the Supplier as a direct result of such disruption.

56. RECOVERY UPON TERMINATION

56.1 On the termination of the Contract for any reason, the Supplier shall:

- 56.1.1 immediately return to the Customer all Confidential Information, Personal Data and Customer's Pre-Existing IPR's and the Project Specific IPR's in its possession or in the possession or under the control of any permitted suppliers or sub-contractors, which was obtained or produced in the course of providing the Services;
  - 56.1.2 immediately deliver to the Customer all Property (including materials, documents, information and access keys) provided to the Supplier under this Contract. Such property shall be handed back in good working order (allowance shall be made for reasonable wear and tear);
  - 56.1.3 assist and co-operate with the Customer to ensure an orderly transition of the provision of the Goods and/or Services to the Replacement Supplier and/or the completion of any work in progress.
  - 56.1.4 promptly provide all information concerning the provision of the Services which may reasonably be requested by the Customer for the purposes of adequately understanding the manner in which the Services have been provided or for the purpose of allowing the Customer or the Replacement Supplier to conduct due diligence.
- 56.2 If the Supplier fails to comply with Clause 56.1 the Client may recover possession thereof and the Supplier grants a licence to the Client or its appointed agents to enter (for the purposes of such recovery) any premises of the Supplier or its permitted suppliers or sub-contractors where any such items may be held.
- 56.3 Where the end of the Contract Period arises due to the Supplier's Default, the Supplier shall provide all assistance under Clause 56.1 free of charge. Otherwise, the Customer shall pay the Supplier's reasonable costs of providing the assistance and the Supplier shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate such costs.
- 56.4 The Supplier shall provide the Customer with such assistance, at no cost to the Customer, prior to and for a period of six (6) Months after termination or expiry of this Contract to ensure a transfer of the Services to a Replacement Supplier. Any assistance required after the six (6) Month period will be provided by the Supplier for a reasonable cost, to be agreed in writing between the Parties.
- 56.5 Such assistance provided in accordance with Clause 56.4 above may include, but is not limited to, delivery, transfer, storage and retention of records, documents and data in the Supplier's possession or control relating to the provision of, or the performance, monitoring or management of the Services, including any documents and data the Supplier may be obligated to disclose.
- 56.6 At the end of the Contract Period (howsoever arising) the licence granted pursuant to Clause 35 shall automatically terminate without the need to serve notice.

57. FORCE MAJEURE

- 57.1 Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party for any delay in performing, or failure to perform, its obligations under the Contract (other than a payment of money) to the extent that such delay or failure is a result of Force Majeure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party shall use all reasonable endeavours to continue to perform its obligations under the Contract for the duration of such Force Majeure. However, if such Force Majeure prevents either Party from performing its material obligations under the Contract for a period in excess of six (6) Months, either Party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing.
- 57.2 Any failure or delay by the Supplier in performing its obligations under the Contract which results from any failure or delay by an agent or sub-contractor shall be regarded as due to Force Majeure only if that agent or sub-contractor is itself impeded by Force Majeure from complying with an obligation to the Supplier.

- 57.3 If either Party becomes aware of a Force Majeure event or occurrence which gives rise to or is likely to give rise to any such failure or delay on its part as described in Clause 57.1 it shall immediately notify the other by the most expeditious method then available and shall inform the other of the period during which it is estimated that such failure or delay shall continue.
- 57.4 It is expressly agreed that any failure by the Supplier to perform or any delay by the Supplier in performing its obligations under the Contract which results from any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations by any person, firm or company with which the Supplier shall have entered into any contract, supply arrangement or sub-contract or otherwise shall be regarded as a failure or delay due to Force Majeure only in the event that such person firm or company shall itself be prevented from or delayed in complying with its obligations under such contract, supply arrangement or sub-contract or otherwise as a result of circumstances of Force Majeure.
- 57.5 For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby expressly declared that the only events which shall afford relief from liability for failure or delay shall be any event qualifying for Force Majeure hereunder.

DISPUTES AND LAW

58. GOVERNING LAW

- 58.1 The Contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law and the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts and agree that the Contract is to be governed exclusively by and construed under English law.
- 58.2 This Contract is binding on the Customer and its successors and assignees and the Supplier and the Supplier's successors and permitted assignees.

59. TUPE

- 59.1 During the period of six (6) Months preceding the expiry of this Contract or after the Customer has given notice to terminate the Contract or the Supplier stops trading, and within twenty (20) Working Days of being so requested by the Customer, the Supplier shall fully and accurately disclose to the Customer, for the purposes of TUPE, all information relating to its Staff engaged in providing the Services under the Contract, in particular but not necessarily restricted to, the following:
- 59.1.1 the total number of Staff whose employment with the Supplier is liable to be terminated at the expiry of the Contract but for any operation of Law;
  - 59.1.2 for each person, age and gender, details of their salary, and pay settlements covering that person which relate to future dates but which have already been agreed and their redundancy entitlements (the names of individual members of employed Staff do not have to be given);
  - 59.1.3 full information about the other terms and conditions on which the affected Staff are employed (including their working arrangements), or about where that information can be found;
  - 59.1.4 details of pensions entitlements, if any; and
  - 59.1.5 job titles of the members of Staff affected and the qualifications required for each position.
- 59.2 The Supplier shall permit the Customer to use the information for the purposes of TUPE and of re-tendering. The Supplier will co-operate with the re-tendering of the Service by allowing the transferee to communicate with and meet the affected Staff and/or their representatives.
- 59.3 The Supplier agrees to indemnify the Customer fully and to hold it harmless at all times from and against all actions, proceedings, claims, expenses, awards, costs and all other liabilities whatsoever in any way connected with or arising from or relating to the provision of information under Clause 59.

- 59.4 In the event that the information provided by the Supplier in accordance with Clause 59.1 above becomes inaccurate, whether due to changes to the employment and personnel details of the affected Staff made subsequent to the original provision of such information or by reason of the Supplier becoming aware that the information originally given was inaccurate, the Supplier shall notify the Customer of the inaccuracies and provide the amended information.
- 59.5 The provisions of this Clause 59 shall apply during the continuance of the Contract and indefinitely after its termination.

60. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 60.1 The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Contract within twenty (20) Working Days of either Party notifying the other of the dispute and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the dispute to the finance director (or equivalent) of each Party.
- 60.2 Nothing in this dispute resolution procedure shall prevent the Parties from seeking from any court of competent jurisdiction an interim order restraining the other Party from doing any act or compelling the other Party to do any act.
- 60.3 If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Parties pursuant to Clause 66.1 the Parties shall refer it to mediation pursuant to the procedure set out in Clause 60.5 unless:
- 60.3.1 the Customer considers that the dispute is not suitable for resolution by mediation; or
- 60.3.2 the Supplier does not agree to mediation.
- 60.4 The obligations of the Parties under the Contract shall not be suspended, cease or be delayed by the reference of a dispute to mediation (or arbitration) and the Supplier and the Staff shall comply fully with the requirements of the Contract at all times.
- 60.5 The procedure for mediation and consequential provisions relating to mediation are as follows:
- 60.5.1 A neutral adviser or mediator (the "Mediator") shall be chosen by agreement between the Parties or, if they are unable to agree upon a Mediator within then (10) Working Days after a request by one Party to the other or if the Mediator agreed upon is unable or unwilling to act, either Party shall within ten (10) Working Days from the date of the proposal to appoint a Mediator or within ten (10) Working Days of notice to either Party that he is unable or unwilling to act, apply to specify relevant mediation Supplier to appoint a Mediator;
- 60.5.2 The Parties shall within ten (10) Working Days of the appointment of the Mediator meet with him in order to agree a programme for the exchange of all relevant information and the structure to be adopted for negotiations to be held. If considered appropriate, the Parties may at any stage seek assistance from the Advice, Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) to provide guidance on a suitable procedure;
- 60.5.3 Unless otherwise agreed, all negotiations connected with the dispute and any settlement agreement relating to it shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any future proceedings;
- 60.5.4 If the Parties reach agreement on the resolution of the dispute, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and shall be binding on the Parties once it is signed by their duly authorised representatives;
- 60.5.5 Failing agreement, either of the Parties may invite the Mediator to provide a non-binding but informative opinion in writing. Such an opinion shall be provided on a without prejudice basis and shall not be used in evidence in any proceedings relating to the Contract without the prior written consent of both Parties; and

- 60.5.6 If the Parties fail to reach agreement in the structured negotiations within sixty (60) Working Days of the Mediator being appointed, or such longer period as may be agreed by the Parties, then any dispute or difference between them may be referred to the courts.
