Attachment 1

1. Services to be provided and associated information

This review should develop a holistic understanding of this economy, and an assessment of its potential to flex and grow, given sectoral restructures and increasing West End accessibility. In order to be capable of informing public policy decisions, this assessment should take account of different growth scenarios, and provide robust numeric evidence of their impact on the economy and return to HM Treasury. The output of this work should also enable public and private sector partners to develop coordinated investment strategies that maximise potential growth.
