- 20.2 A person who is not a party to the Agreement shall have no right to enforce any of its provisions which, expressly or by implication, confer a benefit on him, without the prior written agreement of the Parties.
- 20.3 The Agreement cannot be varied except in writing signed by a duly authorised representative of both the Parties.

- 20.5 Any waiver or relaxation either partly, or wholly of any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement shall be valid only if it is communicated to the other Party in writing and expressly stated to be a waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other breach of the Agreement.
- 20.6 The Agreement shall not constitute or imply any partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship or other relationship between the Parties other than the contractual relationship expressly provided for in the Agreement. Neither Party shall have, nor represent that it has, any Customer to make any commitments on the other Party's behalf.
- 20.7 Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Agreement, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Agreement (whether under the Agreement, statute or common law) are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.
- 20.8 If any provision of the Agreement is prohibited by law or judged by a court to be unlawful, void or unenforceable, the provision shall, to the extent required, be severed from the Agreement and rendered ineffective as far as possible without modifying the remaining provisions of the Agreement, and shall not in any way affect any other circumstances of or the validity or enforcement of the Agreement.

2. BACKGROUND TO THE CONTRACTING AUTHORITY

3. BACKGROUND TO REQUIREMENT/OVERVIEW OF REQUIREMENT

- 3.1 In FY21/22, HM Treasury needs to deliver a period of considerable corporate change including moving to hybrid working, opening a new site in Darlington and achieving significant diversity goals. All this will require changes in culture and has a high dependency on the SCS to lead the department through the change. Executive and director level change leadership competency has not been recently tested and they have not delivered corporate change as a team before.
- 3.2 In preparation for this period of change, Treasury has chosen the PROSCI change methodology to follow. There are a number of reasons for this: It is research based, with input from the experience and insights of thousands of change leaders across the world over two decades; it provides concrete benchmarks and clear goalposts that allow for measurement of the success of change initiatives, and return on investment; it provides access to simple models and tools so that employees across the organization can leverage change management practices; and the tools it offers are highly practical and tailored to different roles in the organization (eg HR, line managers, executives)
- 3.3 Treasury has already made a significant investment in sending multiple change practitioners for training in this methodology, as well as stipulating a PROSCI qualification in recruitment for new change managers. In addition, our Executive Management Board have taken part in a one day PROSCI 'Sponsor Briefing Session' and are already using the tools and techniques provided.
- 3.4 Successful delivery of this training will equip SCS with the understanding and tools to undertake their role as leaders of the change programme, and to support and coach their staff through the changes planned for the department
- 3.5 Currently the only partner for PROSCI in the UK is CMC partnership, they are the only supplier who are licensed to deliver PROSCI training and tools.
