Annex 3 Specification

1. Introduction

Youth Custody Service (YCS) is a Directorate of HMPPS. YCS accommodates all children in custody across England and Wales. YCS aims to safeguard and promote the wellbeing of all children in custody whilst also providing opportunities to enable healthy development into adulthood and resettlement into the community. To achieve these aims, YCS ensures all services for children are based on up to date, evidence-based practice thereby also ensuring practice is ethical and cost and impact effective. One way this evidence based is achieved is via empirical research within YCS and the YCS Research Governance Board (RGB) provides assurance for the validity and reliability of all research conducted within YCS to ensure this meets a certain standard in accordance with Prison Service Instruction (PSI) 22/2014: Research Applications.

2. Background to the Requirement

The Business requires the Supplier to undertake a coherent and effective programme of research and evaluation that best enables learning from the experience of dealing with the threat of Covid-19 in the youth secure estate, in order to “build back better”.

The research activity would need to be coordinated in order to ensure that it met the big asks of informing:

- (a) ongoing response/recovery,
- (b) what the new normal would look like, in a way that is compatible with the YCS vision, and
- (c) preparations for any future crises.

In order to do that, the research needs to capture and utilise:

- (a) effects of the crisis on children and young people, staff, organisation, regime, relationships etc;
- (b) responses to the crisis, including innovations; and
- (c) effects of those responses. And it needs to be done in a way that is conscious of changes over time.

The person who undertakes this research needs to be independent so that they can provide:

- A) coordination of the research activity to ensure that the programme is able to answer the big questions/asks;
- B) independent constructive assessment of how well YCS has responded to C19, using that research activity;
- C) assurance of integration of the learning into wider YCS reform;
- D) informed (but one-step removed) perspective for recovery thinking and future narrative.

Covid 19 is a 'once in a generation' event. The learning from this and its impact on the delivery of custodial services for children will be unique. It is important to gain an evidence-based understanding of its impacts and weave this into the design of the YCS recovery strategy and future provision of services. Not doing this risks change being designed on anecdotal experience. This is, by its nature flawed and is likely to lead to poor policy and decision making.

Professor Neal Hazel has a history of conducting research within Youth Justice: he is the author of Constructive Resettlement which is the current national agenda for the Youth Justice Board and therefore YCS as a partner agency. It is vital YCS Covid 19 recovery is informed by child specific evidence based practice – as Covid 19 is unique this evidence base does not currently exist – not only do we therefore need to develop this evidence base but we also need to ensure it informs current business needs thereby aligning with current and future strategy – hence why Professor Neal Hazel is considered to be the best researcher to take this programme of work forward.

3. Requirement

It is anticipated that Neal Hazel will do one day a week for no more than 50 weeks (maximum 50 days) until the end of the project. Professor Hazel would engage with YCS Research Governance Board throughout this process to produce the agreed programme of research with all appropriate partners.

The Research Governance Board will measure both Professor Neal Hazels time and this will be evidenced in RGB minutes.

4. Aims

Overall Programme Aim

A coherent programme of research and evaluation that best enables learning from the experience of dealing with 'the threat of COVID-19' (C19) in the youth secure estate, in order to 'build back better'.

Programme overall research questions – 'CAN'-do research:

- 1) CAPTURE the experiences- How was the threat experienced in the YSE, in terms of:
 - a. Impacts of C19
 - b. Responses to C19
 - c. Impacts of responses?
 - By different constituents (e.g. children, frontline staff, leaders, organisation, partners)?
 - For specific elements (e.g. public health, mental wellbeing, safety, regime/daily life, development)?
 - Always asking: What was different? How was it different?
 - Always checking for: Changes over time?
- 2) ASSESS the experiences - How well has C19 been addressed, in relation to the YCS vision?

- How positive were the outcomes?
- What has worked well and not so well?
- What weaknesses and strengths did it reveal?
- What were the enablers and barriers to positive outcomes?

3) NAVIGATE the future better - What learning can we take to better guide:

- a. ongoing response/recovery
- b. the new normal, to better facilitate the YCS vision
- c. preparations for any future crises?

Impacts

When looking at impacts, outcomes to capture include stability/changes to the following elements:

- Public health (e.g. C19) – health, adherence to social distancing etc
- Mental wellbeing – self-esteem, anxiety, confidence, self-harm, feelings of support
- Safety and behaviour – positive peace, positive behaviour
- AIR – activities, interactions, roles in daily life etc
- Development – progress in identity, preparations for future

5. In / Out of Scope

YCS Covid 19 research programme – all associated research will be integrated into Professor Neal Hazel's programme – i.e. other researchers will not necessarily be excluded but this will be monitored via the RGB to ensure there is no overlap and to also minimise risks to the research programme such as research fatigue.

6. Location of Assignment

All of YCS is in scope i.e. HQ and YOI accommodating under 18 children, Secure Training Centres and secure Children's Homes across both England and Wales.

7. Regulatory Requirements

All research must be conducted in accordance with PSI 22/2014 which will be monitored via YCS RGB across the following criteria:

A. Link to HMPPS YCS priorities: Covid 19

B. Demand on resources (e.g. anticipated demands on staff time, office requirements, and demands on data providers): with due consideration of Covid impact e.g. 'interviewing'

C. Overlap with other (current/recent) research: YCS and associated with Covid

D. Appropriateness/robustness of methodology: with due consideration of Covid issues

E. Data protection/security: in accordance with GDPR

F. Ethical considerations: ensuring all appropriate ethical approval panels have been followed e.g. NHS

G. Applicants' research skills and/or experience: ensures reliable and valid information assets are generated

8. Security Arrangements

As per Annex 4 - Baseline Personnel Security Standards (of which Disclosure Scotland is a part) are a default requirement in any Research contract.

9. Key Features

Professor Neal Hazel has a history of conducting research within Youth Justice: he is the author of Constructive Resettlement which is the current national agenda for the Youth Justice Board and therefore YCS as a partner agency. 10. Expected Outcome

YCS RGB provides a robust escalation process via YCS Covid Recovery Board and also YCS Senior Leadership Team. YCS RGB will continue the programme of work in accordance with business needs.
