16.3 The Supplier shall notify the Customer as soon as practicable of any change of control as referred to in clause 16.2.4 or any potential such change of control.

16.4 The Supplier may terminate the Agreement by written notice to the Customer if the Customer has not paid any undisputed amounts within 90 days of them falling due.

17.2.2 notify the Customer immediately in the event of any incident occurring in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement on the Customer's premises where that incident causes any personal injury or damage to property which could give rise to personal injury.

17.3 The Supplier shall:

17.3.1 perform its obligations under the Agreement in accordance with all applicable equality Law and the Customer's equality and diversity policy as provided to the Supplier from time to time; and

17.3.2 take all reasonable steps to secure the observance of clause 17.3.1 by all Staff.

17.4 The Supplier shall supply the Services in accordance with the Customer's environmental policy as provided to the Supplier from time to time.

17.5 The Supplier shall comply with, and shall ensure that its Staff shall comply with, the provisions of:

17.5.1 the Official Secrets Acts 1911 to 1989; and

17.5.2 section 182 of the Finance Act 1989.

18 Prevention of Fraud and Corruption

18.1 The Supplier shall not offer, give, or agree to give anything, to any person an inducement or reward for doing, refraining from doing, or for having done or refrained from doing, any act in relation to the obtaining or execution of the Agreement or for showing or refraining from showing favour or disfavour to any person in relation to the Agreement.

18.2 The Supplier shall take all reasonable steps, in accordance with good industry practice, to prevent fraud by the Staff and the Supplier (including its shareholders, members and directors) in connection with the Agreement and shall notify the Customer immediately if it has reason to suspect that any fraud has occurred or is occurring or is likely to occur.

18.3 If the Supplier or the Staff engages in conduct prohibited by clause 18.1 or commits fraud in relation to the Agreement or any other contract with the Crown (including the Customer) the Customer may:

18.3.1 terminate the Agreement and recover from the Supplier the amount of any loss suffered by the Customer resulting from the termination, including the cost reasonably incurred by the Customer of making other arrangements for the supply of the Services and any additional expenditure incurred by the Customer throughout the remainder of the Agreement; or

- 18.3.2 recover in full from the Supplier any other loss sustained by the Customer in consequence of any breach of this clause.

19 Dispute Resolution

- 19.1 The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Agreement and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the dispute to an appropriately senior representative of each Party.
- 19.2 If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Parties within one month of being escalated as referred to in clause 19.1, the dispute may by agreement between the Parties be referred to a neutral adviser or mediator (the "Mediator") chosen by agreement between the Parties. All negotiations connected with the dispute shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any further proceedings.
- 19.3 If the Parties fail to appoint a Mediator within one month, or fail to enter into a written agreement resolving the dispute within one month of the Mediator being appointed, either Party may exercise any remedy it has under applicable law.

20 General

- 20.1 Each of the Parties represents and warrants to the other that it has full capacity and authority, and all necessary consents, licences and permissions to enter into and perform its obligations under the Agreement, and that the Agreement is executed by its duly authorised representative.
- 20.2 A person who is not a party to the Agreement shall have no right to enforce any of its provisions which, expressly or by implication, confer a benefit on him, without the prior written agreement of the Parties.
- 20.3 The Agreement cannot be varied except in writing signed by a duly authorised representative of both the Parties.
- 20.4 The Agreement contains the whole agreement between the Parties and supersedes and replaces any prior written or oral agreements, representations or understandings between them. The Parties confirm that they have not entered into the Agreement on the basis of any representation that is not expressly incorporated into the Agreement. Nothing in this clause shall exclude liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 20.5 Any waiver or relaxation either partly, or wholly of any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement shall be valid only if it is communicated to the other Party in writing and expressly stated to be a waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other breach of the Agreement.
- 20.6 The Agreement shall not constitute or imply any partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship or other relationship between the Parties other than the contractual relationship expressly provided for in the Agreement. Neither Party shall have, nor represent that it has, any authority to make any commitments on the other Party's behalf.
- 20.7 Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Agreement, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Agreement (whether under the Agreement, statute or common law) are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.
- 20.8 If any provision of the Agreement is prohibited by law or judged by a court to be unlawful, void or unenforceable, the provision shall, to the extent required, be severed from the Agreement and rendered ineffective as far as possible without modifying the remaining provisions of the Agreement, and shall not in any way affect any other circumstances of or the validity or enforcement of the Agreement.

21 Notices

- 21.1 Any notice to be given under the Agreement shall be in writing and may be served by personal delivery, first class recorded or, subject to clause 21.3, e-mail to the address of the relevant Party set out in the Award Letter, or such other address as that Party may from time to time notify to the other Party in accordance with this clause:
- 21.2 Notices served as above shall be deemed served on the Working Day of delivery provided delivery is before 5.00pm on a Working Day. Otherwise delivery shall be deemed to occur on the next Working Day. An email shall be deemed delivered when sent unless an error message is received.
- 21.3 Notices under clauses 15 (Force Majeure) and 16 (Termination) may be served by email only if the original notice is then sent to the recipient by personal delivery or recorded delivery in the manner set out in clause 21.1.

22 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

The validity, construction and performance of the Agreement, and all contractual and non contractual matters arising out of it, shall be governed by English law and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to which the Parties submit.

Annex 2 Specification of Service

1. The Supplier shall provide the Services with all due diligence and in accordance with the Agreement.
2. The purpose of this Agreement is to:
 - i) Establish a mechanism for the provision of advice on animal health and welfare for work conducted in accordance with the Animals (Scientific Procedures) Act 1986.
 - ii) Formally nominate a Named Veterinary Surgeon.
3. The background to, and details of, the Services to be provided to Cefas by the Supplier is as follows:

4. Background

The Cefas Weymouth laboratory has been designated as a 'scientific procedure establishment' and, as such, has been authorised by the Secretary of State for the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs to apply regulated procedures to protected animals.

The control of the regulated procedures, and places designated under the Act, is exercised by:

- i) Personal Licenses for those performing the regulated procedures;
- ii) Project Licenses for those responsible for managing programmes of work;
- iii) Certificates of Designation issued to individuals responsible for compliance with the provisions of the Act at establishments where laboratory animals are bred, kept or used and for the provision of appropriate standards of accommodation and care.

In accordance with the Act, the Certificate Holder is:

- i) Required to nominate one or more:
 - a. Named Animal Care Welfare Officers (NACWOs). To be responsible for the day to day care of animals.
 - b. Named Veterinary Surgeons. To be responsible for providing advice on animal health and welfare.
- ii) Accountable to the Home Office for the performance and conduct of the Named Veterinary Surgeons and Named Animal Care and Welfare Officers. These nominees are not directly accountable to the Home Office. Certificate Holders have a responsibility to ensure that those named in the Certificate understand their responsibilities, are properly trained and resourced, are seen to have senior management's support, and function effectively.

5. Accountability

For the purposes of the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966, the protected animals at the Cefas Weymouth Laboratory are deemed to be under the care of the Named Veterinary Surgeon. Thus, in addition to being accountable to the Certificate Holder for the provision of expert advice on the health and welfare of protected animals, Named Veterinary Surgeons are also accountable to the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons for their professional standards and conduct.

6. Scope

The duties of the Named Veterinary Surgeon, covered by this Agreement, are specified in the Animals (Scientific Procedures) Act 1986 and shall include:

- i) monitoring and provision of advice on the health, welfare and treatment of animals and should help the establishment licence holder to fulfil his/her responsibilities.
- ii) Active involvement, on a day to day basis, in safeguarding the welfare of the protected animals bred, kept, and maintained in the laboratory.
- iii) The provision of advice on the welfare of animals to Project and Personal License Holders.
- iv) Attendance at the laboratory Ethical Review Process Committee (ERPC) meetings (twice per annum).
- v) Input into the Laboratory ethical review process.
- vi) Access to licenses and other relevant documentation relating to the production, care and use of animals within the laboratory.

7. Guidelines and Responsibilities

In undertaking the duties of Named Veterinary Surgeon the Supplier will be required to:

- i) Operate within the guidelines on professional conduct for Named Veterinary Surgeons, produced by the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, namely:
 - a. Keeping abreast of developments in the use of laboratory animals, including the selection of appropriate animal models;
 - b. Being able to advise on methods of reducing adverse effects on animals by refinement of experimental techniques and husbandry methods; and
 - c. Being able to contribute to ensuring that consideration is given to the use of non-sentient alternatives.
- ii) Be familiar with the main provisions of the Act.
- iii) Ensure that adequate veterinary cover and services are available at all times, and that the necessary contact details are known to those with relevant responsibilities for the care and welfare of protected animals at the designated establishment;
- iv) Visit all parts of the establishment designated in the certificate at a frequency, which will allow effective monitoring of the health and welfare of the protected animals under their care;
- v) Notify the personal licensee who is in charge of a protected animal if they become aware that the health or welfare of that animal is giving rise to concern. If there is no such licensee, or if one is not available, the Named Veterinary Surgeon must take steps to ensure that the animal is cared for and, if necessary, that it is humanely killed using an appropriate method. If there is any doubt about what action should be taken, a Home Office inspector should be notified;

- vi) Be familiar with relevant methods of humane killing listed in Schedule 1 to the Act, together with any additional approved methods set out in the conditions of the certificate of designation;
- vii) Have a thorough knowledge of the husbandry and welfare requirements of the species kept at the establishment (including the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of disease); and be able to advise on quarantine requirements and health screening, and the impact of housing and husbandry systems on the welfare and needs of a protected animal;
- viii) Control, supply and direct the use of controlled drugs, prescription-only medicines and other therapeutic substances for use on protected animals in the establishment;
- ix) Maintain animal health records to the required professional standard relating to all the protected animals at the establishment, including advice or treatment given; and ensure that such records are readily available to the Named Animal Care & Welfare Officer, the certificate holder and (if requested) the Home Office;
- x) Certify that an animal is fit to travel to a specified place;
- xi) Have regular contact with the certificate holder and the Named Animal Care & Welfare Officer(s); and
- xii) Take an active part in the ethical review process at the establishment.
- xiii) Advise licensees, applicants and others on how to implement the principles of replacement, reduction and refinement. In particular, to advise about the impact of experimental procedures on the welfare of protected animals; the recognition of pain, suffering, distress or lasting harm; general and experimental surgical techniques, and post-operative care; appropriate methods of general anaesthesia, analgesia and euthanasia; strategies to minimise the severity of protocols, including the recognition or implementation of suitable humane end-points;
- xiv) Be familiar with the main provisions of the project licences in use, in particular the adverse effects expected for each protocol; the means by which they are to be avoided, recognised and alleviated; and the humane endpoints to be applied;
- xv) Ensure that an appropriate clinical investigation or therapy is undertaken for the welfare of a protected animal undergoing regulated procedures, but that the data or other products being collected as part of the programme of work are not compromised as a result; and
- xvi) When appropriate, determine that an animal may remain alive at the end of a series of regulated procedures, or certify that its welfare will not be compromised if it is removed from the designated place.
