Section 1 – About UK Shared Business Services

Putting the business into shared services

UK Shared Business Services Ltd (UK SBS) brings a commercial attitude to the public sector; helping our Contracting Authorities improve efficiency, generate savings and modernise.

It is our vision to become the leading service provider for the Contracting Authorities of shared business services in the UK public sector, continuously reducing cost and improving quality of business services for Government and the public sector.

Our broad range of expert services is shared by our Contracting Authorities. This allows Contracting Authorities the freedom to focus resources on core activities; innovating and transforming their own organisations.

Core services include Procurement, Finance, Grants Admissions, Human Resources, Payroll, ISS, and Property Asset Management all underpinned by our Service Delivery and Contact Centre teams.

UK SBS is a people rather than task focused business. It's what makes us different to the traditional transactional shared services centre. What is more, being a not-for-profit organisation owned by the Department for Business, Energy & Industrial Strategy (BEIS), UK SBS' goals are aligned with the public sector and delivering best value for the UK taxpayer.

UK Shared Business Services Ltd changed its name from RCUK Shared Services Centre Ltd in March 2013.

Our Customers

Growing from a foundation of supporting the Research Councils, 2012/13 saw Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (BEIS) transition their procurement to UK SBS and Crown Commercial Services (CCS – previously Government Procurement Service) agree a Memorandum of Understanding with UK SBS to deliver two major procurement categories (construction and research) across Government.

UK SBS currently manages £700m expenditure for its Contracting Authorities. Our Contracting Authorities who have access to our services and Contracts are detailed here.

Section 2 – About the Contracting Authority

Section 4 – Specification

1. Background

NB: This research project is one of three related, but separate, projects being launched simultaneously – which explore equality, diversity and inclusion and bullying and harassment in UK and International contexts. Suppliers are invited to bid for one or more projects:

- Review of approaches to bullying and harassment in the national and international contexts

Everyone has a right to be treated with dignity and respect, and to be provided with opportunities to contribute and flourish in a supportive environment. Bullying and sexual harassment is a significant issue for society at large, and the research and innovation sector is not an exception. UKRI is very clear that these behaviours are completely unacceptable. While employers have a primary duty to prevent these incidents wherever possible, and to take appropriate action as required, UKRI, as the largest funder in the UK research and innovation landscape, can and will play an important role in setting the tone, providing research evidence, and influencing the wider environment.

Since its creation in April 2018, UKRI has been taking steps to help ensure research and innovation environments are safe, open and inclusive. We have established an external advisory group for equality diversity and inclusion (EDI). We are in the process of developing a comprehensive long-term EDI strategy and a set of evidence-led actions. As part of our work, the UKRI Board has agreed to commission an evidence review to inform our approach to bullying and harassment in the research and innovation sector.

In addition to this, we will also convene a “challenge workshop” with other stakeholders/funders to minimise duplication and/or identify gaps. We would anticipate supplier to be in attendance as part of the project.

2. Aims and Objectives of the Project

Aims

This is a requirement for a research organisation or company to carry out a review covering three main areas: 1) current challenges with respect to bullying and harassment in the research and innovation landscape (including in more challenging research environments) in the UK and internationally; 2) an overview of approaches to prevent and address bullying and harassment in research and innovation and/or other sectors, including, for example strategies, policies, procedures, activities, data capture practices and measures to boost disclosure rates; and 3) an assessment of the existing evidence for the effectiveness of those approaches and where the main gaps in knowledge in this area are. UKRI seeks to develop an understanding of what works and what has proven less effective nationally and internationally, in order to identify and learn from effective practice to address the challenge of bullying and harassment. We will share the findings widely with policy makers and other stakeholders.

Objectives

This review will establish:

1. What organisations have conducted reviews of the extent of bullying and harassment in the UK and international research and innovation bases (including in challenging research environments), and their findings
2. Who is leading nationally and internationally in terms of bullying and harassment thought leadership and practice in research and innovation
3. In national and international organisations comparable to UKRI, which approaches to prevent and address bullying and harassment have been successful and which have not, and to what extent
4. How the efficacy of those approaches has been measured
5. What good data capture strategies and practices to boost disclosure operate and how organisations can be encouraged to share information (for example by avoiding the use of non-disclosure agreements)
6. Any significant evidence gaps identified through the review.

3. Suggested Methodology

Scope

This piece of work will provide us with a review of reviews on the extent and nature of bullying and harassment in the UK and international research and innovation sectors, and where and how these challenges arise. In addition, the review will tell us what approaches to addressing bullying and harassment have been employed by comparable organisations from which we may draw transferable lessons (some approaches will be more context specific than others and some will have been trialled in multiple contexts, for example).

We are interested in approaches which have proven effective and those which have proven less effective, to what extent this is the case, with what level of confidence this is known, and the ways in which their efficacy has been measured. For this part of the work, the review will consult both academic papers and reports and publications of UK and international organisations and institutions such as (but not limited to) universities, the Wellcome Trust, the Royal Society, and other large research and innovation funders and research organisations, as well as government departments and agencies, civil society or non-governmental organisations, private companies and consultants. While we are flexible on the sources, we are interested in studies which report robust findings rigorously identified: the review will therefore provide a clear explanation of its methodology for assessing evidence. This review will also report on good strategic practice among comparable organisations on bullying and harassment data capture, on boosting disclosure and on good practice for sharing information between relevant organisations where cases of bullying and harassment have been proven.

4. Deliverables

The winning bidder will be expected to fully project manage the review and organise regular progress meetings with UKRI Strategy and the Executive Champion for EDI. They will be responsible for identifying sources and setting out a rigorous methodology (agreed with the UKRI team within the timescale of the contract).

Key deliverables include:

- Attendance and presentation at a 'challenge workshop' at the early stages of the research project, to gain the feedback from UKRI and external contacts, intended to refine the methodology and approach.
- A pre-submission presentation and draft/interim report will be due 31 January 2019
- A final written report with an executive summary will due by 14 February 2019.

The final written report with an executive summary will indicate:

- What organisations have conducted reviews of the extent of bullying and harassment in the UK and international research and innovation bases (including in challenging research environments), and their findings
- Who is leading nationally and internationally in terms of bullying and harassment thought leadership and practice in research and innovation
- In national and international organisations comparable in size, composition and function to UKRI, which approaches to prevent and address bullying and harassment have been successful and which have not, and to what extent
- How the efficacy of those approaches has been measured
- What good data capture strategies operate (including practices to boost disclosure) and how organisations can to encourage information sharing between organisations (for example by avoiding the use of non-disclosure agreements)
- Any significant evidence gaps identified through the review

Section 5 – Evaluation model

The evaluation model below shall be used for this ITQ, which will be determined to two decimal places.

Where a question is 'for information only' it will not be scored.

The evaluation team may comprise staff from UK SBS and the Contracting Authority and any specific external stakeholders the Contracting Authority deems required. After evaluation the scores will be finalised by performing a calculation to identify (at question level) the mean average of all evaluators (Example – a question is scored by three evaluators and judged as scoring 5, 5 and 6. These scores will be added together and divided by the number of evaluators to produce the final score of 5.33 ($5+5+6=16 \div 3 = 5.33$))

Scoring criteria
Evaluation Justification Statement In consideration of this particular requirement the Contracting Authority has decided to evaluate Potential Providers by adopting the weightings/scoring mechanism detailed within this ITQ. The Contracting Authority considers these weightings to be in line with existing best practice for a requirement of this type.
Questionnaire	Q No.	Question subject	Maximum Marks
Price	AW5.2	Price	15%
Quality	PROJ1.1	Approach	35%
Quality	PROJ1.2	Staff to Deliver	10%

Quality	PROJ1.3	Understanding the Environment	20%
Quality	PROJ1.4	Project Plan and Timescales	10%
Quality	PROJ1.6	Interview	10%

Evaluation of criteria

Non-Price elements

Each question will be judged on a score from 0 to 100, which shall be subjected to a multiplier to reflect the percentage of the evaluation criteria allocated to that question.

Where an evaluation criterion is worth 20% then the 0-100 score achieved will be multiplied by 20%.

Example if a Bidder scores 60 from the available 100 points this will equate to 12% by using the following calculation:

$$\text{Score} = \{\text{weighting percentage}\} \times \{\text{bidder's score}\} = 20\% \times 60 = 12$$

The same logic will be applied to groups of questions which equate to a single evaluation criterion.

The 0-100 score shall be based on (unless otherwise stated within the question):

0	The Question is not answered, or the response is completely unacceptable.
10	Extremely poor response – they have completely missed the point of the question.
20	Very poor response and not wholly acceptable. Requires major revision to the response to make it acceptable. Only partially answers the requirement, with major deficiencies and little relevant detail proposed.
40	Poor response only partially satisfying the selection question requirements with deficiencies apparent. Some useful evidence provided but response falls well short of expectations. Low probability of being a capable supplier.
60	Response is acceptable but remains basic and could have been expanded upon. Response is sufficient but does not inspire.
80	Good response which describes their capabilities in detail which provides high levels of assurance consistent with a quality provider. The response includes a full description of techniques and measurements currently employed.
100	Response is exceptional and clearly demonstrates they are capable of meeting the requirement. No significant weaknesses noted. The response is compelling in its description of techniques and measurements currently employed, providing full assurance consistent with a quality provider.

All questions will be scored based on the above mechanism. Please be aware that the final score returned may be different as there may be multiple evaluators and their individual scores will be averaged (mean) to determine your final score.

Example

Evaluator 1 scored your bid as 60

Evaluator 2 scored your bid as 60

Evaluator 3 scored your bid as 40

Evaluator 4 scored your bid as 40

Your final score will $(60+60+40+40) \div 4 = 50$

Price elements will be judged on the following criteria.

The lowest price for a response which meets the pass criteria shall score 100.

All other bids shall be scored on a pro rata basis in relation to the lowest price. The score is then subject to a multiplier to reflect the percentage value of the price criterion.

For example - Bid 1 £100,000 scores 100.

Bid 2 £120,000 differential of £20,000 or 20% remove 20% from price scores 80

Bid 3 £150,000 differential £50,000 remove 50% from price scores 50.

Bid 4 £175,000 differential £75,000 remove 75% from price scores 25.

Bid 5 £200,000 differential £100,000 remove 100% from price scores 0.

Bid 6 £300,000 differential £200,000 remove 100% from price scores 0.

Where the scoring criterion is worth 50% then the 0-100 score achieved will be multiplied by 50.

In the example if a supplier scores 80 from the available 100 points this will equate to 40% by using the following calculation: Score/Total Points multiplied by 50 ($80/100 \times 50 = 40$)

The lowest score possible is 0 even if the price submitted is more than 100% greater than the lowest price.

Section 6 – Evaluation questionnaire

Bidders should note that the evaluation questionnaire is located within the e-sourcing questionnaire.

Guidance on completion of the questionnaire is available at

PLEASE NOTE THE QUESTIONS ARE NOT NUMBERED SEQUENTIALLY

DO:

- 7.1 Do comply with Procurement document instructions. Failure to do so may lead to disqualification.
- 7.2 Do provide the Bid on time, and in the required format. Remember that the date/time given for a response is the last date that it can be accepted; we are legally bound to disqualify late submissions. Responses received after the date indicated in the ITQ shall not be considered by the Contracting Authority, unless the Bidder can justify that the reason for the delay, is solely attributable to the Contracting Authority
- 7.3 Do ensure you have read all the training materials to utilise e-sourcing tool prior to responding to this Bid. If you send your Bid by email or post it will be rejected.

You should note that we will release the answer to the question to all Bidders and where we suspect the question contains confidential information we may modify the content of the question to protect the anonymity of the Bidder or their proposed solution

- 7.9 Do provide clear, concise and ideally generic contact details; telephone numbers, e-mails and fax details.
- 7.10 Do complete all questions in the questionnaire or we may reject your Bid.
- 7.11 Do ensure that the Response and any documents accompanying it are in the English Language, the Contracting Authority reserve the right to disqualify any full or part responses that are not in English.

For these purposes, the Contracting Authority may disclose within Government any of the Bidders documentation/information (including any that the Bidder considers to be confidential and/or commercially sensitive such as specific bid information) submitted by the Bidder to the Contracting Authority during this Procurement. - 7.43 The Government introduced its new Government Security Classifications (GSC) classification scheme on the 2nd April 2014 to replace the current Government Protective Marking System (GPMS). A key aspect of this is the reduction in the number of security classifications used. All Bidders are encouraged to make themselves aware of the changes and identify any potential impacts in their Bid, as the protective marking and applicable protection of any material passed to, or generated by, you during the procurement process or pursuant to any Contract awarded to you as a result of this tender process will be subject to the new GSC. The link below to the Gov.uk website provides information on the new GSC:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/government-security-classifications>

The Contracting Authority reserves the right to amend any security related term or condition of the draft contract accompanying this ITQ to reflect any changes introduced by the GSC. In particular where this ITQ is accompanied by any instructions on safeguarding classified information (e.g. a Security Aspects Letter) as a result of any changes stemming from the new GSC, whether in respect of the applicable protective marking scheme, specific protective markings given, the aspects to which any protective marking applies or otherwise. This may relate to the instructions on safeguarding classified information (e.g. a Security Aspects Letter) as they apply to the procurement as they apply to the procurement process and/or any contracts awarded to you as a result of the procurement process.
