

Major Corporate Membership - [REDACTED]

Major Corporate Membership provides a deep level of engagement with the institute through invitations to exclusive Director's Briefings, C-suite dinners, and VIP events, both in-person and virtual.

Major Corporate members receive:

- Complimentary virtual delegate places at the Chatham House series of online conferences. Each conference includes high-level panel discussions between policy makers, business leaders and international experts as well as online networking opportunities and live Q&A.
- Exclusive Breakfast Briefings with senior external speakers and Chatham House experts
- VIP receptions, expert panel discussions and special events, including our flagship London Conference and Europe's Strategic Choices conference in Berlin
- C-Suite dinners hosted by Chatham House's Chairman and Director
- Invitations to Chatham House's occasional overseas events
- Invitations to the annual corporate reception, which provides an excellent networking opportunity with representatives from the private sector, diplomatic and civil society community
- Public acknowledgement as a corporate member on Chatham House's website and members boards, which are displayed in a prominent position at the institute
- Discount of 20% on advertising in The World Today magazine
- Discount of 10% on room hire at Chatham House
- Opportunity to suggest topics and/or speakers for the Corporate Events programme

Major Corporate membership is much more flexible with 25 spaces that can be used for nominees and multiple 'Open Tickets', allowing non-nominated representatives to attend the programme of Members & Corporate Events.

Our Major Corporate nominees receive:

- Regular Director's Briefings, hosted by our Chief Executive, Dr Robin Niblett, offering interviews and discussion with high-level speakers
- Regular event series tailored to a corporate audience
- Invitations to over 120 Members Events online and in-person per year, offering unique insight from our network of experts
- Weekly newsletter containing updates on events, expert analysis and research publications
- Complimentary digital subscriptions to the International Affairs journal and The World Today magazine (hard copies available upon request)
- Use of the Chatham House Library and eLibrary resources
- Password access to the Members Area of the Chatham House website, which includes transcripts, podcasts and videos of past events

Find out who is already among our members: Current Corporate Members

Name: [REDACTED] Head of Commercial

Organization: DEPARTMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Signature:

[REDACTED]

Date: 19/4/2022