If, however, the Authority does specify or agree to delivery by instalments, delivery of any instalment later than the date specified or agreed for its delivery shall, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Authority, entitle the Authority to terminate the whole of any unfulfilled part of the Contract without further liability to the Authority.

B3.8 The Authority may inspect and examine the manner in which the Contractor supplies the Services at the Premises during normal business hours on reasonable notice. The Contractor shall provide free of charge all such facilities as the Authority may reasonably require for such inspection and B3.9 If reasonably requested to do so by the Authority, the Contractor shall co-ordinate its activities in supplying the Services with those of the Authority and other contractors engaged by the Authority.

B3.10 Timely supply of the Services is of the essence of the Contract, including in relation to commencing the supply of the Services within the time agreed or on a specified date. If the Contractor fails materially to deliver the Services within the time promised or specified in the Specification, the Authority is released from any obligation to accept and pay for the Services and may terminate the Contract, in either case without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of the Authority.

B4 Risk and Ownership

- B8.4 Unless otherwise agreed, Equipment brought onto the Premises remains the property of the Contractor.
- B8.5 If the cost of any Equipment is reimbursed to the Contractor such Equipment is the property of the Authority and shall on request be delivered to the Authority as directed by the Authority. The Contractor shall comply with any such requirements and inform the Authority of the same. This clause B16.3 shall be without prejudice to the generality of clause B10.1.

B16.4 Failure to comply with any obligation in clause B16 shall amount to a Material Breach for the purpose of clause H2 (Termination on Default). For the avoidance of doubt, where no Biological Materials are, or are to be, collected by or on behalf of the Contractor in the course of performance of the Contract all references to Biological Materials in this clause B16 or elsewhere in the Contract shall have no effect.

 - ii) such other information in relation to the Occasion of Tax Non-Compliance as the Authority may reasonably require.
- E11.2 If the Contractor or any Staff are liable to be taxed in the UK or to pay NICs in respect of consideration received under the Contract, the Contractor shall:
- (a) at all times comply with ITEPA and all other statutes and regulations relating to income tax, and SSCBA and all other statutes and regulations relating to NICs, in respect of that consideration; and
 - (b) indemnify the Authority against any income tax, NICs and social security contributions and any other liability, deduction, contribution, assessment or claim arising from or made in connection with the provision of the Services by the Contractor or any Staff.

F. CONTROL OF THE CONTRACT

F1 Failure to meet Requirements

- F1.1 If the Authority informs the Contractor in writing that the Authority reasonably believes that any part of the Services do not meet the requirements of the Contract or differs in any way from those requirements, and this is not as a result of a default by the Authority, the Contractor shall at its own expense re-schedule and carry out the Services in accordance with the requirements of the Contract within such reasonable time as may be specified by the Authority.
- F1.2 The Authority may by notice to the Contractor reject any of the Goods which fail to conform to the approved sample or fail to meet the Specification. Such notice shall be given within a reasonable time after delivery to the Authority of such Goods. If the Authority rejects any of the Goods pursuant to this clause the Authority may (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies) either:

- (a) have such Goods promptly, free of charge and in any event within 5 Working Days, either repaired by the Contractor or replaced by the Contractor with Goods which conform in all respects with the approved sample or with the Specification and due delivery shall not be deemed to have taken place until such repair or replacement has occurred; or
- (b) treat the Contract as discharged by the Contractor's breach and obtain a refund (if payment for the Goods has already been made) from the Contractor in respect of the Goods concerned together with payment of any additional expenditure reasonably incurred by the Authority in obtaining other goods in replacement.

F1.3 The Authority will be deemed to have accepted the Goods if it expressly states the same in writing or fails to reject the Goods in accordance with clause F1.2.

F1.4 The issue by the Authority of a receipt note for delivery of the Goods shall not constitute any acknowledgement of the condition, quantity or nature of those Goods, or the Authority's acceptance of them.

F1.5 The Contractor hereby guarantees the Goods against faulty materials or workmanship for such period as may be specified in the Specification or, if no period is specified, for a period of 18 months from the date of delivery. If the Authority shall within such period or within 25 Working Days thereafter give notice to the Contractor of any defect in any of the Goods as may have arisen during such period under proper and normal use, the Contractor shall (without prejudice to any other rights and remedies which the Authority may have) promptly remedy such defects (whether by repair or replacement as the Authority shall elect) free of charge.

F1.6 Any Goods rejected or returned by the Authority as described in clause F1.2 shall be returned to the Contractor at the Contractor's risk and expense.

F2 Monitoring of Contract Performance

F2.1 The Contractor shall immediately inform the Authority if any of the Services are not being or are unable to be performed, the reasons for non-performance, any corrective action and the date by which that action will be completed.

F2.2 At or around 6 Months from the Commencement Date and each anniversary of the Commencement Date thereafter (each being a "Review Date"), the Authority shall carry out a review of the performance of the Contractor ("Checkpoint Review"). Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Authority may in respect of the period under review consider such items as (but not limited to): the Contractor's delivery of the Services; the Contractor's contribution to innovation in the Authority; whether the Services provide the Authority with best value for money; consideration of any changes which may need to be made to the Services; a review of future requirements in relation to the Services and progress against key milestones.

F2.3 The Contractor shall provide at its own cost any assistance reasonably required by the Authority to perform such Checkpoint Review including the provision of data and information.

F2.4 The Authority may produce a report (a "Checkpoint Review Report") of the results of each Checkpoint Review stating any areas of exceptional performance and areas for improvement in the provision of the Services and where there is any shortfall in any aspect of performance reviewed as against the Authority's expectations and the Contractor's obligations under this Contract.

F2.5 The Authority shall give the Contractor a copy of the Checkpoint Review Report (if applicable). The Authority shall consider any Contractor comments and may produce a revised Checkpoint Review Report.

F2.6 The Contractor shall, within 10 Working Days of receipt of the Checkpoint Review Report (revised as appropriate) provide the Authority with a plan to address resolution of any shortcomings and implementation of improvements identified by the Checkpoint Review Report.

F2.7 Actions required to resolve shortcomings and implement improvements (either as a consequence of the Contractor's failure to meet its obligations under this Contract identified by the Checkpoint Review Report, or those which result from the Contractor's failure to meet the Authority's expectations notified to the Contractor or of which the Contractor ought reasonably to have been aware) shall be implemented at no extra charge to the Authority.

F3 Reporting

F3.1 Unless otherwise authorised in writing by the Authority, the Contractor shall submit an annual report (the "Annual Report") for each Project Year to the Authority in accordance with this clause F3.

F3.2 The Contractor shall provide one hard copy of the Annual Report and one copy on either computer readable disk or e-mail in the format specified by or agreed with the Authority, no later than 4 weeks after the end of each Project Year, or, for work lasting one year or less, no later than 4 weeks after completion of the Services.

F3.3 The Annual Report shall:

- (a) list the scientific objectives set out in the Specification, indicating where amendments have been agreed;
- (b) indicate in non-scientific terms the scientific progress achieved since the Commencement Date or since the last Annual Report; how this relates to the policy objectives as set out in the relevant current statement of policy rationale and programme objectives relating to research and development issued by the Authority in accordance with the Specification, plus any findings of particular interest;
- (c) indicate whether the scientific objectives in the Specification are appropriate for the remainder of the Contract Period, giving reasons for any changes, together with financial, Staff and time implications;
- (d) list the milestones for the relevant Project Year as set out in the Specification, indicating which milestones have been met and whether the remaining milestones appear realistic (subject to clause F4);
- (e) list any outputs, for example, published papers or presentations and identify any opportunities for exploiting any Intellectual Property Rights or technology transfer arising out of the Services and any action taken to protect and exploit such Intellectual Property Rights; and
- (f) comment briefly on any new scientific opportunities which may arise from the Services.

F3.4 Unless Approved, the Contractor shall submit by the completion date of the Services a final report (the "Final Report") consisting of 2 hard copies and one electronic copy on either computer readable disk or by e-mail in a format specified by the Authority. The Final Report shall include the following:

- (a) the Services' code and title as set out in the Specification; the name of the Contractor; the total costs; and the Commencement Date and date of completion of the Services;
- (b) an executive summary of not more than 2 sides of A4 written in a style understandable to the intelligent non-scientist. This should include the main objectives of the Services; the methods and findings of the research; and any other significant events and options for new work; and
- (c) a scientific report.

F3.5 The scientific report referred to in clause F3.4(c) above shall contain:

- (a) the scientific objectives as set out in the Specification;
- (b) the extent to which the objectives set out in the Specification have been met;

- (c) details of methods used and the Results obtained, including statistical analysis where appropriate;
- (d) a discussion of the Results and their reliability;
- (e) the main implications of the findings;
- (f) possible future work; and
- (g) any action resulting from the research, for example, protection of Intellectual Property Rights and knowledge transfer.

F3.6 Notwithstanding clause E6 (Publicity, Media and Official Enquiries), the Authority may publish the Final Report on a website. When submitting the Final Report to the Authority the Contractor shall indicate any information contained in the Final Report which it considers to be commercially sensitive or which might otherwise merit non-publication and the Authority shall not disclose such information without first having consulted the Contractor (without prejudice to the Authority's discretion as to whether to publish following such consultation).

F3.7 The Authority reserves the right to reject any Annual Report or Final Report submitted by the Contractor which is not, in the reasonable opinion of the Authority, satisfactory, either in form or content, having regard to the provisions of this Schedule. If an Annual Report or Final Report is rejected by the Authority, the Contractor shall remedy any deficiencies identified by the Authority and submit a revised version at no additional cost to the Authority or the Co-funders.

F3.8 The Contractor shall supply any additional reports, including financial reports, in respect of the Services, at such time or times, and in such form, as the Authority may reasonably require. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Contractor shall provide to the Authority such information as the Authority may reasonably require regarding commercial exploitation of the Results, including details of any licences granted to third parties in respect of any Intellectual Property Rights in the same. The Contractor shall further keep at its normal place of business detailed accurate and up to date records and accounts showing details of its commercial exploitation of the Results including the sale of products or services which incorporate the Results, Income received, allowable costs deducted and the amount of licensing revenues received by it in respect of the Results in a format sufficient to ascertain that revenue sharing pursuant to the Contract has been properly accounted for and apportioned in accordance with the Contract.

F3.9 The Contractor shall, subject to reasonable notice, attend all meetings specified in the Contract or otherwise arranged by the Authority for the purpose of discussion of the Services.

F4 Remedies for inadequate performance

F4.1 If the Authority reasonably believes the Contractor has committed a Material Breach it may, without prejudice to its rights under clause H2 (Termination on Default), do any of the following:

- (a) without terminating the Contract, itself supply or procure the supply of all or part of the Services until such time as the Contractor has demonstrated to the Authority's reasonable satisfaction that the Contractor will be able to supply the Services in accordance with the Specification;
- (b) without terminating the whole of the Contract, terminate the Contract in respect of part of the Services only (whereupon a corresponding reduction in the Price shall be made) and thereafter itself supply or procure a third party to supply such part of the Services;
- (c) withhold or reduce payments to the Contractor in such amount as the Authority reasonably deems appropriate in each particular case; and/or
- (d) terminate the Contract in accordance with clause H2.

F4.2 Without prejudice to its right under clause C3 (Recovery of Sums Due), the Authority may charge the Contractor for any costs reasonably incurred and any reasonable administration costs in respect of the supply of any part of the Services by the Authority or a third party to the extent that such costs exceed the payment which would otherwise have been payable to the Contractor for such part of the Services.

- F4.3 If the Authority reasonably believes the Contractor has failed to supply all or any part of the Services in accordance with the Contract, professional or industry practice which could reasonably be expected of a competent and suitably qualified person, or any legislative or regulatory requirement, the Authority may give the Contractor notice specifying the way in which its performance falls short of the requirements of the Contract or is otherwise unsatisfactory.
- F4.4 If the Contractor has been notified of a failure in accordance with clause F4.3 the Authority may:
- (a) direct the Contractor to identify and remedy the failure within such time as may be specified by the Authority and to apply all such additional resources as are necessary to remedy that failure at no additional charge to the Authority within the specified timescale; and/or
 - (b) withhold or reduce payments to the Contractor in such amount as the Authority deems appropriate in each particular case until such failure has been remedied to the satisfaction of the Authority.
- F4.5 If the Contractor has been notified of a failure in accordance with clause F4.3, it shall:
- (a) use all reasonable endeavours to immediately minimise the impact of such failure to the Authority and to prevent such failure from recurring; and
 - (b) immediately give the Authority such information as the Authority may request regarding what measures are being taken to comply with the obligations in this clause F4.5 and the progress of those measures until resolved to the satisfaction of the Authority.
- F4.6 If, having been notified of any failure, the Contractor fails to remedy it in accordance with clause F4.5 within the time specified by the Authority, the Authority may treat the continuing failure as a Material Breach and may terminate the Contract immediately on notice to the Contractor.

F5 Transfer and Sub-Contracting

- F5.1 Except where clauses F5.5 and F5.6 both apply, the Contractor shall not transfer, charge, assign, sub-contract or in any other way dispose of the Contract or any part of it without Approval. All such documents shall be evidenced in writing and shown to the Authority on request. Sub-contracting any part of the Contract shall not relieve the Contractor of any of its obligations or duties under the Contract.
- F5.2 The Contractor is responsible for the acts and/or omissions of its Sub-Contractors as though they are its own. If it is appropriate, the Contractor shall provide each Sub-Contractor with a copy of the Contract and obtain written confirmation from them that they will provide the Services fully in accordance with the Contract.
- F5.3 The Contractor shall ensure that its Sub-Contractors and suppliers retain all records relating to the Services for at least 6 years from the date of their creation and make them available to the Authority on request in accordance with the provisions of clause E10 (Audit). If any Sub-Contractor or supplier does not allow the Authority access to the records then the Authority shall have no obligation to pay any claim or invoice made by the Contractor on the basis of such documents or work carried out by the Sub-Contractor or supplier.
- F5.4 If the Authority has consented to the award of a Sub-Contract the Contractor shall ensure that:
- (a) the Sub-Contract contains a right for the Contractor to terminate the Sub-Contract if the relevant Sub-Contractor does not comply in the performance of its contract with legal obligations in environmental, social or labour law;
 - (b) the Sub-Contract includes a provision having the same effect as set out in clause F5.4 (a) in any Sub-Contract which it awards; and

- (c) copies of each Sub-Contract shall, at the request of the Authority, be sent by the Contractor to the Authority immediately.

F5.5 If the Authority believes there are:

- (a) compulsory grounds for excluding a Sub-Contractor pursuant to regulation 57 of the Regulations, the Contractor shall replace or not appoint the Sub-Contractor; or
- (b) non-compulsory grounds for excluding a Sub-Contractor pursuant to regulation 57 of the Regulations, the Authority may require the Contractor to replace or not appoint the Sub-Contractor and the Contractor shall comply with such requirement.

F5.6 Notwithstanding clause F5.1, the Contractor may assign to a third party (the “Assignee”) the right to receive payment of the Price or any part thereof due to the Contractor (including any interest which the Authority incurs under clause C2 (Payment and VAT)). Any assignment under this clause F5.6 shall be subject to:

- (a) reduction of any sums in respect of which the Authority exercises its right of recovery under clause C3 (Recovery of Sums Due);
- (b) all related rights of the Authority under the Contract in relation to the recovery of sums due but unpaid; and
- (c) the Authority receiving notification under both clauses F5.7 and F5.8.

F5.7 If the Contractor assigns the right to receive the Price under clause F5.6, the Contractor or the Assignee shall notify the Authority in writing of the assignment and the date upon which the assignment becomes effective.

F5.8 The Contractor shall ensure that the Assignee notifies the Authority of the Assignee’s contact information and bank account details to which the Authority shall make payment.

F5.9 The provisions of clause C2 shall continue to apply in all other respects after the assignment and shall not be amended without Approval.

F5.10 Subject to clause F5.11, the Authority may assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof to:

- (a) any Contracting Authority;
- (b) any other body established or authorised by the Crown or under statute in order substantially to perform any of the functions that had previously been performed by the Authority; or
- (c) any private sector body which substantially performs the functions of the Authority provided that any such assignment, novation or other disposal shall not increase the burden of the Contractor’s obligations under the Contract.

F5.11 Any change in the legal status of the Authority such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority shall not, subject to clause F5.12, affect the validity of the Contract and the Contract shall bind and inure to the benefit of any successor body to the Authority.

F5.12 If the rights and obligations under the Contract are assigned, novated or otherwise disposed of pursuant to clause F5.10 to a body which is not a Contracting Authority or if there is a change in the legal status of the Authority such that it ceases to be a Contracting Authority (in the remainder of this clause F5 both such bodies being referred to as the “Transferee”):

- (a) the rights of termination of the Authority in clauses H1 and H2 shall be available to the Contractor in respect of the Transferee; and

- (b) the Transferee shall only be able to assign, novate or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof with the prior consent in writing of the Contractor.

F5.13 The Authority may disclose to any Transferee any Confidential Information of the Contractor which relates to the performance of the Contractor's obligations under the Contract. In such circumstances the Authority shall authorise the Transferee to use such Confidential Information only for purposes relating to the performance of the Contractor's obligations under the Contract and for no other purpose and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Transferee gives a confidentiality undertaking in relation to such Confidential Information.

F5.14 Each Party shall at its own cost and expense carry out, or use all reasonable endeavours to ensure the carrying out of, whatever further actions (including the execution of further documents) the other Party reasonably requires from time to time for the purpose of giving that other Party the full benefit of the provisions of the Contract.

F6 Waiver

F6.1 The failure of either Party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of the Contract, or the failure of either Party to exercise, or any delay in exercising, any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy and shall not cause a diminution of the obligations established by the Contract.

F6.2 No waiver shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and communicated to the other Party in writing in accordance with clause A4.2 (Notices).

F6.3 A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other or subsequent breach of the Contract.

F7 Variation

F7.1 If, after the Commencement Date, the Authority's requirements change, the Authority may request a Variation subject to the terms of this clause 7.

F7.2 The Authority may request a Variation by notifying the Contractor in writing of the Variation and giving the Contractor sufficient information to assess the extent of the Variation and consider whether any change to the Price is required in order to implement the Variation within a reasonable time limit specified by the Authority. If the Contractor accepts the Variation it shall confirm it in writing.

F7.3 If the Contractor is unable to accept the Variation or where the Parties are unable to agree a change to the Price, the Authority may:

- (a) allow the Contractor to fulfil its obligations under the Contract without the Variation to the Specification; or
- (b) terminate the Contract immediately except where the Contractor has already delivered all or part of the Services or where the Contractor can show evidence of substantial work being carried out to fulfil the requirements of the Specification; and in such case the Parties shall attempt to agree upon a resolution to the matter. If a resolution cannot be reached, the matter shall be dealt with under the Dispute Resolution procedure detailed in clause I2 (Dispute Resolution).

F7.4 No Variation will take effect unless and until recorded in a validly executed CCN. Execution of a CCN shall be made via electronic signature as described in clause 1.2 of Section 1 of the Contract.

F7.5 A CCN takes effect on the date both Parties communicate acceptance of the CCN via Bravo and, on the date it communicates its acceptance of the CCN in this way, the Contractor is deemed to warrant and represent that the CCN has been executed by a duly authorised representative of the Contractor in addition to the warranties and representations set out in clause G2.

F7.6 The provisions of clauses F7.4 and F7.5 may be varied in an emergency if it is not practicable to obtain the Authorised Representative's approval within the time necessary to make the Variation in order to address the emergency. In an emergency, Variations may be approved by a different representative of the Authority. However, the Authorised Representative shall have the right to review such a Variation and require a CCN to be entered into on a retrospective basis which may itself vary the emergency Variation.

F8 Severability

F8.1 If any provision of the Contract which is not of a fundamental nature is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect as if the Contract had been executed with the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision eliminated.

F9 Remedies Cumulative

F9.1 Except as expressly provided in the Contract all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Contract are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of any one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.

F10 Entire Agreement

F10.1 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in respect of the matters dealt with therein. The Contract supersedes all prior negotiations between the Parties and all representations and undertakings made by one Party to the other, whether written or oral, except that this clause shall not exclude liability in respect of any fraudulent misrepresentation.

F11 Counterparts

F11.1 The Contract may be executed in counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall constitute an original but all counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

- G1.12 The Contractor shall not take any action or fail to take any reasonable action, or (to the extent that it is reasonably within its power) permit anything to occur in relation to the Contractor, which would entitle any insurer to refuse to pay any claim under any insurance policy in which the Contractor is an insured, a co-insured or additional insured person.

extent that the performance of those obligations is directly affected by a Force Majeure Event. Any failure or delay by the Contractor in performing its obligations under the Contract which results from a failure or delay by an agent, Sub-Contractor or supplier shall be regarded as due to a Force Majeure Event only if that agent, Sub-Contractor or supplier is itself impeded by a Force Majeure Event from complying with an obligation to the Contractor.

H2 Termination on Default

H2.1 The Authority may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice if the Contractor commits a Default and:

- (a) the Contractor has not remedied the Default to the satisfaction of the Authority within 25 Working Days or such other period as may be specified by the Authority, after issue of a notice specifying the Default and requesting it to be remedied;

- (c) the Default is a Material Breach.

H2.2 If, through any Default of the Contractor, data transmitted or processed in connection with the Contract is either lost or sufficiently degraded as to be unusable, the Contractor shall be liable for the cost of reconstitution of that data and shall reimburse the Authority in respect of any charge levied for its transmission and any other costs charged in connection with such Default.

H2.3 If the Authority fails to pay the Contractor undisputed sums of money when due, the Contractor shall give notice to the Authority of its failure to pay. If the Authority fails to pay such undisputed sums within 90 Working Days of the date of such notice, the Contractor may terminate the Contract in writing with immediate effect, save that such right of termination shall not apply where the failure to pay is due to the Authority exercising its rights under clause C3.1 (Recovery of Sums Due) or to a Force Majeure Event.

H3 Termination on Notice

H3.1 The Authority may terminate the Contract at any time by giving 30 days' notice to the Contractor.

H4 Other Termination Grounds

H4.1 The Authority may terminate the Contract on written notice to the Contractor if:

- (a) the Contract has been subject to a substantial modification which requires a new procurement procedure pursuant to regulation 72(9) of the Regulations;

- (b) the Contractor was, at the time the Contract was awarded, in one of the situations specified in regulation 57(1) of the Regulations, including as a result of the application of regulation 57 (2), and should therefore have been excluded from the procurement procedure which resulted in its award of the Contract;
- (c) the Contract should not have been awarded to the Contractor in view of a serious infringement of the obligations under the Treaties and the Regulations that has been declared by the Court of Justice of the European Union in a procedure under Article 258 of the TFEU; or
- (d) the Contractor has not, in performing the Services, complied with its legal obligations in respect of environmental, social or labour law.

H5 Consequences of Expiry or Termination

- H5.1 If the Authority terminates the Contract under clauses H2 or H4 and makes other arrangements for the supply of the Services the Authority may recover from the Contractor the cost reasonably incurred of making those other arrangements and any additional expenditure incurred by the Authority throughout the remainder of the Contract Period.
- H5.2 If Contract is terminated under clauses H2 or H4 the Authority shall make no further payments to the Contractor (for Services supplied by the Contractor prior to termination and in accordance with the Contract but where the payment has yet to be made by the Authority), until the Authority has established the final cost of making the other arrangements envisaged under this clause.
- H5.3 If the Authority terminates the Contract under clause H3 the Authority shall make no further payments to the Contractor except for Services supplied by the Contractor prior to termination and in accordance with the Contract but where the payment has yet to be made by the Authority.
- H5.4 Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract:
 - (a) termination or expiry of the Contract shall be without prejudice to any rights, remedies or obligations accrued under the Contract prior to termination or expiration and nothing in the Contract shall prejudice the right of either Party to recover any amount outstanding at such termination or expiry; and
 - (b) termination of the Contract shall not affect the continuing rights, remedies or obligations of the Authority or the Contractor under clauses C2 (Payment and VAT), C3 (Recovery of Sums Due), D1 (Prevention of Fraud and Bribery), E2 (Data Protection), E3 (Official Secrets Acts 1911 to 1989, Section 182 of the Finance Act 1989), E4 (Confidential Information), E5 (Freedom of Information), E8 (Intellectual Property Rights), E10 (Audit), F10 (Remedies Cumulative), G1 (Liability, Indemnity and Insurance), H5 (Consequences of Expiry or Termination), H7 (Recovery upon Termination) and I1 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction).

- H6.2 The Contractor shall immediately inform the Authority of any actual or potential industrial action, whether such action be by its own employees or others, which affects or might affect its ability at any time to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- H6.3 If there is industrial action by the Staff, the Contractor shall seek Approval to its proposals to continue to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- H6.4 If the Contractor's proposals referred to in clause H6.3 are considered insufficient or unacceptable by the Authority acting reasonably, then the Contract may be terminated with immediate effect by the Authority by notice.

H6.5 If the Contractor is unable to deliver the Services owing to disruption of the Authority's normal business, the Contractor may request a reasonable allowance of time, and, in addition, the Authority will reimburse any additional expense reasonably incurred by the Contractor as a direct result of such disruption.

H7 Recovery upon Termination

H7.1 On termination of the Contract for any reason, the Contractor shall at its cost:

- (a) immediately return to the Authority all Confidential Information, Personal Data and IP Materials in its possession or in the possession or under the control of any permitted suppliers or Sub-Contractors, which was obtained or produced in the course of providing the Goods and Services;
- (b) immediately deliver to the Authority all Property (including materials, documents, information and access keys) provided to the Contractor in good working order;

- (e) promptly provide all information concerning the provision of the Services which may reasonably be requested by the Authority for the purposes of adequately understanding the manner in which the Services have been provided and/or for the purpose of allowing the Authority and/or the Replacement Contractor to conduct due diligence.

H7.2 If the Contractor does not comply with clauses H7.1(a) and (b), the Authority may recover possession thereof and the Contractor grants a licence to the Authority or its appointed agents to enter (for the purposes of such recovery) any premises of the Contractor or its permitted suppliers or Sub-Contractors where any such items may be held.

H8 Retendering and Handover

H8.1 Within 21 days of being requested by the Authority, the Contractor shall provide, and thereafter keep updated, in a fully indexed and catalogued format, all the information necessary to enable the Authority to issue tender documents for the future provision of the Services.

H8.2 The Authority shall take all necessary precautions to ensure that the information referred to in clause H8.1 is given only to potential providers who have qualified to tender for the future provision of the Services.

H8.3 The Authority shall require that all potential providers treat the information in confidence; that they do not communicate it except to such persons within their organisation and to such extent as may be necessary for the purpose of preparing a response to an invitation to tender issued by the Authority; and that they shall not use it for any other purpose.

H8.4 The Contractor indemnifies the Authority against any claim made against the Authority at any time by any person in respect of any liability incurred by the Authority arising from any deficiency or inaccuracy in information which the Contractor is required to provide under clause H8.1.

H8.5 The Contractor shall allow access to the Premises in the presence of the Authorised Representative, to any person representing any potential provider whom the Authority has selected to tender for the future provision of the Services.

H8.6 If access is required to the Contractor's Premises for the purposes of clause H8.5, the Authority shall give the Contractor 7 days' notice of a proposed visit together with a list showing the names of all persons who will be visiting. Their attendance shall be subject to compliance with the Contractor's security procedures, subject to such compliance not being in conflict with the objectives of the visit.

H8.7 The Contractor shall co-operate fully with the Authority during any handover at the end of the Contract. This co-operation shall include allowing full access to, and providing copies of, all documents, reports, summaries and any other information necessary in order to achieve an effective transition without disruption to routine operational requirements.

H8.8 Within 10 Working Days of being requested by the Authority, the Contractor shall transfer to the Authority, or any person designated by the Authority, free of charge, all computerised filing, recording, documentation, planning and drawing held on software and utilised in the provision of the Services. The transfer shall be made in a fully indexed and catalogued disk format, to operate on a proprietary software package identical to that used by the Authority.

H9 Exit Management

H9.1 Upon termination the Contractor shall render reasonable assistance to the Authority to the extent necessary to effect an orderly assumption by a Replacement Contractor in accordance with the procedure set out in clause H10.

H10 Exit Procedures

H10.1 Where the Authority requires a continuation of all or any of the Services on expiry or termination of this Contract, either by performing them itself or by engaging a third party to perform them, the Contractor shall co-operate fully with the Authority and any such third party and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure the timely and effective transfer of the Services without disruption to routine operational requirements.

H10.2 The following commercial approach shall apply to the transfer of the Services if the Contractor:

- (a) does not have to use resources in addition to those normally used to deliver the Services prior to termination or expiry, there shall be no change to the Price; or
- (b) reasonably incurs additional costs, the Parties shall agree a Variation to the Price based on the Contractor's rates either set out in Schedule 2 or forming the basis for the Price.

H10.3 When requested to do so by the Authority, the Contractor shall deliver to the Authority details of all licences for software used in the provision of the Services including the software licence agreements.

H10.4 Within one Month of receiving the software licence information described above, the Authority shall notify the Contractor of the licences it wishes to be transferred, and the Contractor shall provide for the approval of the Authority a plan for licence transfer.

H11 Knowledge Retention

H11.1 The Contractor shall co-operate fully with the Authority in order to enable an efficient and detailed knowledge transfer from the Contractor to the Authority on the completion or earlier termination of the Contract and in addition, to minimise any disruption to routine operational requirements. To facilitate this transfer, the Contractor shall provide the Authority free of charge with full access to its Staff, and in addition, copies of all documents, reports, summaries and any other information requested by the Authority. The Contractor shall comply with the Authority's request for information no later than 15 Working Days from the date that that request was made.

I DISPUTES AND LAW

I1 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

I1.1 Subject to the provisions of clause I2 the Contract, including any matters arising out of or in connection with it, shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English Law and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales. The submission to such jurisdiction shall not limit the right of the Authority to take proceedings against the Contractor in any other court of competent jurisdiction, and the taking of proceedings in any other court of competent jurisdiction shall not preclude the taking of proceedings in any other jurisdiction whether concurrently or not.

I2 Dispute Resolution

- I2.1 The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Contract within 20 Working Days of either Party notifying the other of the dispute and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the dispute to the finance director of the Contractor and the commercial director of the Authority.
- I2.2 Nothing in this dispute resolution procedure shall prevent the Parties from seeking from any court of competent jurisdiction an interim order restraining the other Party from doing any act or compelling the other Party to do any act.
- I2.3 If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Parties pursuant to clause I2.1 either Party may refer it to mediation pursuant to the procedure set out in clause I2.5.
- I2.4 The obligations of the Parties under the Contract shall not cease, or be suspended or delayed by the reference of a dispute to mediation (or arbitration) and the Contractor and the Staff shall comply fully with the requirements of the Contract at all times.
- I2.5 The procedure for mediation and consequential provisions relating to mediation are as follows:
- (a) a neutral adviser or mediator (the “Mediator”) shall be chosen by agreement between the Parties or, if they are unable to agree upon a Mediator within 10 Working Days after a request by one Party to the other or if the Mediator agreed upon is unable or unwilling to act, either Party shall within 10 Working Days from the date of the proposal to appoint a Mediator or within 10 Working Days of notice to either Party that he is unable or unwilling to act, apply to the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution to appoint a Mediator;
 - (b) the Parties shall within 10 Working Days of the appointment of the Mediator meet with him in order to agree a programme for the exchange of all relevant information and the structure to be adopted for negotiations. If appropriate, the Parties may at any stage seek assistance from the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution to provide guidance on a suitable procedure;
 - (c) unless otherwise agreed, all negotiations connected with the dispute and any settlement agreement relating to it shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any future proceedings;
 - (d) if the Parties reach agreement on the resolution of the dispute, the agreement shall be recorded in writing and shall be binding on the Parties once it is signed by their duly authorised representatives;
 - (e) failing agreement, either of the Parties may invite the Mediator to provide a non-binding but informative written opinion. Such an opinion shall be provided on a without prejudice basis and shall not be used in evidence in any proceedings relating to the Contract without the prior written consent of both Parties; and
 - (f) if the Parties fail to reach agreement within 60 Working Days of the Mediator being appointed, or such longer period as may be agreed by the Parties, then any dispute or difference between them may be referred to the Courts unless the dispute is referred to arbitration pursuant to the procedures set out in clause I2.6.
- I2.6 Subject to clause I2.2, the Parties shall not institute court proceedings until the procedures set out in clauses I2.1 and I2.3 have been completed save that:
- (a) The Authority may at any time before court proceedings are commenced, serve a notice on the Contractor requiring the dispute to be referred to and resolved by arbitration in accordance with clause I2.7;

- (b) if the Contractor intends to commence court proceedings, it shall serve notice on the Authority of its intentions and the Authority shall have 21 days following receipt of such notice to serve a reply on the Contractor requiring the dispute to be referred to and resolved by arbitration in accordance with clause I2.7; and
- (c) the Contractor may request by notice to the Authority that any dispute be referred and resolved by arbitration in accordance with clause I2.7, to which the Authority may consent as it sees fit.

I2.7 If any arbitration proceedings are commenced pursuant to clause I2.6,

- (a) the arbitration shall be governed by the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 and the Authority shall give a notice of arbitration to the Contractor (the "Arbitration Notice") stating:
 - (i) that the dispute is referred to arbitration; and
 - (ii) providing details of the issues to be resolved;
- (b) the London Court of International Arbitration ("LCIA") procedural rules in force at the date that the dispute was referred to arbitration in accordance with I2.7(b) shall be applied and are deemed to be incorporated by reference to the Contract and the decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on the Parties in the absence of any material failure to comply with such rules;
- (c) the tribunal shall consist of a sole arbitrator to be agreed by the Parties;
- (d) if the Parties fail to agree the appointment of the arbitrator within 10 days of the Arbitration Notice being issued by the Authority under clause I2.7(a) or if the person appointed is unable or unwilling to act, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the LCIA;
- (e) the arbitration proceedings shall take place in London and in the English language; and
- (f) the arbitration proceedings shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, English Law.

SCHEDULE 1 - SPECIFICATION

SPECIFICATION OF REQUIREMENTS

Aim

To review future resource risks faced by UK business in relation to non-biotic resources with a particular focus on raw materials which are or may become critical to the economy, for which production or supply is constrained by technical, environmental or geopolitical factors, and to make policy recommendations for government and business.

Background

Over recent years the issue of resource scarcity has continued to be a key challenge facing businesses and governments. Drivers of scarcity include population growth, economic growth, uneven worldwide distribution of resources, governance issues, unrest or conflict, jeopardising future investment and production. At an international level, the increasing influence of emerging economies may alter global governance structures or shift the power distribution within existing institutions.

Effective forecasting of resource availability and management can mitigate the problem for businesses and can open up new opportunities for innovation and future success.

This research seeks to identify the resources essential to the UK most at risk of future scarcity, implications for government policy and for how businesses need to negotiate these difficulties in order to ensure their operations are sustainable and profitable.

The resources covered in this research are non-biotic (non-living) resources, such as minerals and metals. This includes materials that are, for example, used in new technology, such as electric vehicles and renewables such as wind turbines. The overlap with these environmentally related technologies and hence our clean growth targets and the importance of finite non biotic resources in terms of natural capital makes this project important to Defra.

Defra's recently published Resources and Waste Strategy for England Our Waste, Our Resources; a Strategy for England commits (at page 120) to updating previous research on resource risks 'Future Resource Risks Faced by Business and an Assessment of Future Viability' which was published by Defra in December 2010 and to establishing cross-government oversight, reinvigorating our Resource Security Action Plan which will involve:

- Oversight of the material supply chains required to meet our wider clean growth targets, such as ending the sale of new conventional petrol and diesel cars and vans by 2040, including the capacity to reprocess and manage materials at end of life;

- Oversight of raw materials which are or may become critical to the economy, for which production and/or supply is constrained by technical, environmental and/or geopolitical factors;
- Consideration of the issue of resource nationalism in relation to metal and mineral supplies and implications for the UK.

Objectives

- Identify those resource issues which represent the greatest threats and opportunities for businesses in the short, medium and long term, including possible impacts of EU Exit in terms of trade with EU and non EU countries;
- Assemble information and data on the nature and scale of those threats and opportunities in order to provide a stronger evidence base for the business case for resource efficiency within specific sectors;
- To measure the criticality of materials used by the UK economy by considering the supply risks, the economic importance of the materials and how these might change going forward. For example, the OECD 2018 Global material outlook provided the figures below, in respect to OECD countries in 2012. As part of the project, researchers would be expected to build on this by creating a UK analysis and developing it in any other ways they consider helpful.

Table 4. Criticality of selected materials in the OECD in 2012

- Identify impacts from EU exit, even though details of future trading arrangements with EU and non-EU countries are not always clear;
- Identify where the UK can learn from other countries on risk management approaches to resource availability;
- Explore the business perceptions and impacts of resource risks, focussing on specific sectors, such as green technology and renewables, identified during the project;
- Consider how resource scarcity can be affected by factors such as technology change and government policy;
- Make recommendations for policy around resource scarcity and managing resource risks, at business level and for government.

Approach and Methodology

It is expected that much of this research will be desk-based along with stakeholder engagement.

Literature sources will need to draw on a wide range of material including non-academic, such as think-tanks, NGOs and commercial sectors including the banking sector and the MOD's Global Strategic Trends report.

Researchers should draw on domestic and international documentation/reports of relevant research, including the last research commissioned by Defra, Review of the Future Resource Risks Faced by UK Business and an Assessment of Future Viability, which was published by Defra in December 2010.

Researchers should also consult with stakeholders and other key players in industry, the wider economy, including SME's and society, including stakeholder views on resource risk and how they anticipate their business will be affected.

Among the risks, researchers should consider resource 'nationalism', anti-competitive behaviour designed to restrict the international supply of a natural resource. This includes geo political forces which might be influencing resources production, ownership and distribution. Specific examples include:

- China' sphere of influence over global resource markets e.g. the role of the Belt and Road Initiative in connecting China to resource supplies.
- Rising volatility in resource rich regions (e.g. Latin America) and internal pressures within the EU
- Impact of weakening of global governance structures on resource dispute resolution, eg in recent years there has been some weakening of supranational institutions such as WTO driven by anti-globalisation sentiment.

In terms of sectors, the research should include the renewables sector and green technology, given requirements for strategic resources, for example Cobalt and Lithium in solar panels, batteries and electric vehicles.

The research should also consider opportunities arising from resource scarcity, e.g. alternative sources domestically and internationally, production innovation, recycling of materials, including the recovery of resources from waste products. The research should consider if there are any market failures, bringing out implications and recommendations for policy at business level and for government.

The project will require a mix of disciplines and experience including macro-economics, statistics, geopolitics, environment science, policy awareness and knowledge of business behaviour.

Eunomia Research & Consulting Ltd Technical Responses

E01 - Understanding of the Specification of Requirements

The complex geological history of the UK and its adjacent Continental Shelf has contributed much to our national wealth. Indigenous mineral resources are valuable national assets, and unlike many other aspects (e.g. human capital) they are unportable. Adequate supplies of minerals are essential for the UK economy; especially as we seek to promote clean growth and aim to lead the world in the development, manufacture and use of low carbon technologies, systems and services that cost less than high carbon alternatives.

This project comes at a time when the UK is laying the groundwork for new long-term policy in the areas of industry and environment, through the *Industrial Strategy*¹, *Our Waste, Our Resources: a Strategy for England*², and *A Green Future: Our 25 Year Plan to Improve the Environment*³. In addition to this emphasis on how the UK will manage its resources internally, the prospect of the UK's exit from the EU requires a reassessment of its place on the world stage. This includes the trade relationships which secure the essential natural resources not available domestically. It is in this context, at an important time of planning for the future, that Defra has seen the need to review the future resource risk faced by the UK economy. We understand that the Government anticipates high-level issues to arise in the case of a possible EU Exit not only in terms of trading with the EU but with non-EU countries as well. The outputs of this project will have great strategic value to not only Defra but also other government departments such as the Department for International Trade and the Department for Business, Energy & Industrial Strategy.

Assessing the Criticality of Materials

Policy-makers in several OECD countries have developed reports that assess the vulnerability of their respective economies to disruptions in the supply of minerals.⁴ For example, in 2017, the European Commission identified 27 CRMs, comprising both metals and minerals.⁵

Raw materials that are under significant market demand but which lack supply security are called Critical Raw Materials (CRMs). Criticality is typically measured against two key parameters:

- Economic Importance (EI) – a measure of a raw material's level of use in end-products, taking into account the potential availability of substitute materials. EI indicates how essential minerals and metals are for the production of many goods and services, as well as for technological development and economic growth.
- Supply Risk (SR) – a measure of the risk of supply disruption based on several factors, including the level of import reliance, supplier diversity, recycling capabilities and available substitute materials.

Material types that may be assessed for criticality include:

- Metals – these fall into two types: ferrous (those containing iron) and non-ferrous (those not containing iron), which may be further classified as base, precious or critical metals. Metals tend to be traded on global exchange markets, and supply is not dependant on specific trade between mine owners and manufacturers. Critical metals are typically used in low volumes in new and green technologies. For many applications, critical metals are not readily substitutable and end-of-life recycling rates are low.
- Minerals – these can be categorised into two main types: industrial and construction. Construction minerals include sand, gravel, and other crushed rocks which tend not to be critical as they are in ample supply, and are therefore not a key focus of this project. Industrial minerals are often valued for their physical or chemical composition, as they are used in the production of chemicals, fertiliser, paint, electronics, paper, plastics, glass, ceramics, detergents and many other products, as well as in metal casting and foundry. Seven of the EU's designated CRMs are industrial minerals.

In 2010, Defra's last full UK-specific resource risk assessment identified four non-biotic groups of interest:⁶

Rare earth elements (REEs), the supply of which is dominated by China (86% of global refined production in 2017), are in high demand for the clean technology sector but insufficient in supply, with the introduction of tariffs on REE products between China and the USA making supply markets more unstable.⁷

Indium, used heavily in electronics and the solar energy sector, is a by-product of zinc production, with China its largest global supplier (accounting for 56% of the market share).

Lithium is mainly (95%) sourced as a primary product and, despite being in surplus at the start of 2018, has grown in demand due to its use in the electronic vehicle sector.

Phosphorus/phosphate rock (the terms are used interchangeably in the 2010 report) is used in the agriculture sector within fertilisers, with China supplying 44% of global phosphate rock and 58% of phosphorus (making China the largest global supplier of both).

We understand that this project is important in determining an updated review of UK CRMs using tailored EI and SR parameters, explaining the reasons behind each material's criticality. The CRM list can then be used to provide recommendations to government and businesses to mitigate any upcoming supply shortage risks.

Resource Threats and Opportunities

Determining measures that will maintain supply chains and ultimately grow and protect British businesses is a key output. The main anticipated risks associated with current (short-term) and future supply are:

1) Supplier Diversity Limitations

If a single country has a monopoly of supply over other nations, this creates geopolitical concern, potentially causing regional conflict or change in diplomatic relations. China is the leading global supplier of 30 of the 43 materials that make up the 27 CRMs identified by the EU. It has a global market share of over 80% for 19 of the EUs CRMs, including REEs, Antimony (87% of market share), Bismuth (82%), Magnesium (87%), and Tungsten (84%). China poses a potential SR for the UK by limiting supplier diversity, as it represents 60% of global suppliers of the EU CRMs. Other countries also have significant shares in the global market for the EU CRMs – such as South Africa (5% share), Chile (4%) and the USA (9%) – but their reach is limited to fewer materials. For UK-specific imports, a specific picture will be painted as part of this project, likely highlighting countries such as Russia and the Democratic Republic of Congo.⁸

Resource Scarcity

Scarcity of material relates to the overall availability of materials to businesses. Scarcity affects the price of raw materials, with demand for limited supplies driving higher prices. Implementing risk aversion measures to support the continuity of product supply chains is vital to our economy. Such measures will be outlined in this project. The most significant drivers of resource scarcity from the UK's perspective are:

a. Resource Nationalism

Resource nationalism is defined as the tendency of people and governments to assert control over natural resources located in their territory through fiscal and regulatory measures. Often seen in the run-up to elections in developing nations, it is marked by a shift in power from foreign investors (after immovable investments have been made) to the state (which may lack sufficient capital or technological knowledge for profitable extraction).

Resource nationalism can be seen happening across Africa. It is reported that the Democratic Republic of Congo has increased its mining royalties from 2% to 3.5%, significantly affecting UK-based companies Glencore and Randgold.⁹ Other major London-based mining companies are also feeling the impacts of resource nationalism. This study will assess resource nationalism and identify some of the key examples, as identified in the specification:

China's sphere of influence over global resource markets, e.g. the role of the Belt and Road Initiative in connecting China to resource supplies.

Rising volatility in resource-rich regions (e.g. Latin America) and internal pressures within the EU

Impact of weakening of global governance structures on resource dispute resolution, e.g. in recent years there has been some weakening of supranational institutions such as WTO driven by anti-globalisation sentiment.

This is a major risk for the UK, as the future of its mining companies (some of which are heading to African courts over the changes) and hence the UK's access to minerals and metals is unclear.

b. EU Exit

EU Exit poses a threat due to the significant uncertainty surrounding any future deals. It is somewhat unprecedented territory, and its outcomes are unpredictable. Part of this project will be to assess the UK's relationship with the EU re trade in resources.

c. Product Supply Chain Changes

The criticality of material is heavily dependent on a nation's need for it, as determined businesses' use of it in their products. As product supply chains change to adopt cleaner, greener processes and products, the materials in demand will change accordingly. For example, the promotion of electric vehicles increases demand for lithium and cobalt, used in the vehicles' batteries. Although lithium supplies are speculated to meet demand, cobalt's supply is considered at greater risk. Unlike lithium, the majority of cobalt is produced as a by-product of copper and nickel mines, over 65% of which occurs in the Democratic Republic of Congo (adding a country risk). Reprocessing and end of life management are expected to improve as collection rates and extended producer responsibility promotes recycling and reuse. This has the potential to reduce supply risk by minimising the need for imports.

To conclude, the project will generate an updated, detailed list of CRMs using tailored EI and SR parameters, while providing a thorough contextual discussion of the supply chain risks the UK faces in terms of supplier diversity limitations and resource scarcity.

E02 - Methodology

The objectives of the project focus on identifying the threats and opportunities of the supply of non-biotic minerals in the UK economy. The ITT indicates 6 clear requirements that need to be met to make this project a success:

Identification of critical non-biotic materials used by the UK economy. Whilst this is the third objective in the ITT, we suggest that this is the necessary first analysis to enable effective focussed research in the subsequent sections.

Identification of the greatest threats and opportunities with regards to UK resource issues. This identification will prioritise the critical materials identified, though it is not to be exclusively focussed on these.

Identification of the impacts of departure of the UK from the EU on this situation. We note that this situation is evolving and will continue to do so through the life of the project.

Identification of good practice risk management approaches in other countries.

Assessment of the impact of resource risk on businesses in the UK, and the ways in which this is likely to vary in the future. As part of this, the key sectors that may be impacted will be identified and analysed.

Make policy recommendations at business and government levels.

Whilst only mentioned with regards to opportunities associated with resource scarcity, it would be our contention that the analysis needs to be conducted with reference to both the availability of primary raw minerals and recycled (sometimes described as secondary) minerals. Both are legitimate sources of raw minerals, and in many cases the recycled materials form a significant resource for manufacturers. Our methodology therefore comprises analysis of both supply chains. This is important as often one supply chain will pose a threat to the other, and this dynamic must be properly understood and fed into any policy proposals.

Eunomia's experience in identifying the Competitiveness of the EU Minerals sector¹ on behalf of DG GROW has enabled us to produce a focussed methodology that takes account of information availability. This will give a significant advantage in delivering this project within the timescales indicated by Defra as we will not need to develop new assessment frameworks from scratch. We therefore propose the following methodology to meet the requirements:

¹ Eunomia Research & Consulting, British Geological Survey, and Wardell Armstrong (2015) Study on the Competitiveness of the EU Primary and Secondary Mineral Raw Materials Sectors, Report for DG GROW, January 2015, <http://www.euromines.org/files/news/ec-report-study-competitiveness-eu-primary-and-secondary-mineral-raw-materials-sectors/study-competitiveness-eu-primary-and-secondary-mrms-april2015.pdf>

Task 1: Literature Review. This task will commence immediately following project inception and run parallel to data collection for the criticality analysis. In this task we will seek to obtain all relevant information relating to:

- Past, present, and future minerals supply for the UK (both extractive and recycling);
- Past, present, and future minerals demand from the UK economy (by sector);
- Existing assessments of mineral criticality; and
- Existing analysis of strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats in mineral supply chains, including resource nationalism.

Task 2: Data Collection. As discussed in Task 3, the criticality analysis forms a major component of this work and requires very particular data for calculation, much of which can also be of use for other analysis. The data to be collected is discussed in Table 1.

Task 3: Criticality Analysis. The ITT requests a measurement of the criticality of minerals used in the UK economy. This sits at the heart of the project, but poses a number of challenges. There are a variety of methods for calculating criticality of minerals, with the ITT explicitly requesting the use of the OECD method as the basis for a UK analysis. As all methods broadly use the same elements – Supply Risk and Economic Importance – we concur that the use of the OECD method is most appropriate in this situation as it is the simpler calculation. This is beneficial as obtaining the data at UK-level will be more challenging than at EU or OECD level and it is therefore likely to provide a more robust analysis if the datasets required for calculation are more complete.

The Calculation of criticality requires diverse sets of data. Table 1 describes the considerations around the data and the sources anticipated to be used for a UK-specific analysis.

Table 1: Data for Criticality Analysis

Data	Considerations	Source(s)
Substitutability	This is an index based on expert judgement and is largely a qualitative assessment. Previous assessments may need to be updated depending on technological developments and local considerations.	Most recent OECD calculations ² tested with key UK stakeholders to update for local considerations and changes in usage since last assessment.
Share of mineral consumption by economic sector	This is the most challenging aspect of data collection. Whilst mineral production and trade is relatively well determined, the link to the economic sector is not readily available. For the UK, we will need to match up ONS Inter-Departmental Business Register (IDBR) data with HMRC’s overseas trade statistics using company codes. In order to do this, we would need access to these datasets. The data has previously been aggregated at a high-level, but a more detailed analysis would be needed for this work. To achieve this, we may obtain Approved Researcher Status, a process we have experience from previously. We have already approached ONS to give forewarning of the need for this data should we be selected. Access to these datasets is critical to the successful delivery of this project to the timescales requested. We would therefore seek to achieve access at the earliest opportunity. Where production data is required, we will use data from British Geological Survey. We have obtained approval from the NERC for this in advance. Trade data is publicly available from UN Comtrade. However, there may well be challenges in identifying internal EU trade for this data. Given the free movement of goods there will not be the same detailed assessment of trade into and out of the UK with other EU countries which will pose problems for a UK only analysis.	Production: British Geological Survey³ Trade: UN Comtrade⁴ Link of Consumption to Economic Sector: ONS IDBR and HMRC Overseas Trade Statistics
Recycling rate	Recycling rates are not well documented, with the latest comprehensive figures coming from the 2013 OECD analysis. The United States Geological Survey (USGS) produces estimates of recycling rates in their Commodity Reports which are more up-to date though not particularly detailed. This will therefore be a process of combining data sources and testing with key stakeholders.	OECD calculations; USGS data; Tested with stakeholders.

Economic and political stability	The OECD drew on three key indicators: The World Governance Index (WGI), Political Risk Services (PRS), and The Open Market Index (OMI). We will seek to identify the most appropriate blend of these indicators for the UK situation, reflecting on the OECD balance (mostly based on WGI). This balance will be tested with stakeholders.	OECD calculations; WGI PRS OMI Tested with stakeholders
Gross Value Added by economic sector	Gross Value Added is recorded by the ONS and available by industry type.	ONS

As discussed, access to particular data held by ONS will be critical to the successful delivery of the project and we would seek support from Defra in achieving this. Even when this is achieved, we anticipate data gaps as this has been the case for previous EU and OECD studies. This is because data for different minerals is often recorded together.

Projecting future criticality is possible in terms of the technicality of modelling, but will be highly dependent on projected changes in the key data areas – for example, substitutability and political stability. We note that in many cases the OECD study kept these values static in projections. We would tend to use a similar approach unless there was evidence to the contrary. Part of this will involve an analysis of trends over time. For example, the USGS recycling rates for each mineral could be analysed for rate of change, and this projected forward.

Task 4: Select Key Minerals and Industry Sectors. Having conducted the criticality analysis, we will move to identifying the scope of the remaining project. This will be in the form of determining both the minerals for detailed analysis and industry sectors that will be most impacted by mineral supply.

Key Minerals. Having completed the criticality analysis, there will be a list of critical minerals for the UK economy. This list will provide a significant input into the selection of minerals for analysis, but the minerals considered will not be limited to these. Our approach will be to select the most critical minerals as well as a small number of additional minerals that may have particular economic importance despite current supply risk being low.

Industry Sectors. The ITT identifies Green Technology and Renewables as specific sectors that will need to be analysed in this work. Drawing on our literature review we will develop a suggested selection of industry sectors that would be most appropriate for analysis. A major source of guidance in this will be the information from the criticality analysis about the exposure of industry sectors to critical minerals. We will also consider the key sectors identified by EU analysis as well as the UK Industrial Strategy. Furthermore, we will consider emerging sectors that may become significantly exposed to minerals in the future. As part of the Industrial Strategy a ‘Future Sectors’ team was set up as part of BEIS and, if possible, we would seek to discuss with this team any emergent sectors that could warrant inclusion.

As part of this analysis the link between the two groupings will be made, identifying how the key minerals map onto the industry sectors – this will be achieved using the data gathered and processed for the criticality analysis. This mapping is critical to subsequent analysis.

Our proposed minerals and sectors for analysis will be shared with Defra for discussion and approval. The number of minerals and industry sectors will be selected to allow sufficient oversight of the UK economy whilst achieving a detail of analysis that allows for accurate recommendations to be made. This balance will form part of the discussions with Defra.

Task 5: Consult with Stakeholders. Once we have determined the key minerals and industries for analysis, we will consult with up to 8 stakeholders through a set of semi-structured interviews. This will comprise engaging with two different groups of stakeholders.

Minerals Supply Chain	Industry Sectors
Producers/Recyclers/Importers	Industry Trade Associations
Test our initial findings from the criticality analysis including recycling rates and economic and political stability in the supply chain	Test our initial findings from the criticality analysis including substitutability in the industry for the minerals in question
Identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats in the supply chain	Identify threats and opportunities to industry sectors
Collect additional information not available in the public domain	Collect additional information not available in the public domain
Assess the likely impacts of the UK's departure from the EU given the information available at the time	Assess the likely impacts of the UK's departure from the EU given the information available at the time
Identify the impact of policy and technology change on resource security	Identify the impact of policy and technology change on resource security
	Identify industry perceptions around the above issues

We will develop a pro-forma of interview questions to enable us to ensure all critical topics are covered, whilst allowing the conversation to flow naturally. This semi-structured approach often creates opportunities for significant insights to emerge that would not otherwise occur in more formal interviews. The pro-forma will be updated and developed in response to the experience of the first interviews. If the findings of this research indicate changes to the criticality analysis or even selection of minerals, this will be tested, checked with Defra, and fed back into the analysis.

Task 6: SWOT Analysis for Key Minerals. Drawing on the previous tasks we will assess the supply chains of the representative minerals using a Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats (SWOT) Framework. This focuses on the internal and external environments, examining the strengths and weaknesses in the internal environment, and analysing opportunities and threats in the external environment. In many instances there may be little to no internal production and recycling in the UK (for example Rare Earth Elements) and so there would be very little analysis of Strengths and Weaknesses; whilst for others this analysis would be significant. In all cases there will be significant Opportunities and Threats for the supply chain, which relate directly to some of the key objectives of the project. In order to ensure all major issues are captured in the analysis, the areas for analysis, and the sources of information required for this analysis have been summarised in Table 2. This is not a comprehensive selection as it would be extended following the literature review, the criticality analysis, and the stakeholder consultation. Nevertheless, it provides an indication of starting point.

This analysis is anticipated to be qualitative, with descriptions of the issues, an indication of the (potential) scale of each issue, and a rough indication where relevant of likelihood of the issue arising. This will be combined together and displayed graphically to communicate the analysis clearly and effectively, to highlight where resource efficiency is most critical.

Task 7: Map to Selected Industry Sectors. Having identified the opportunities and threats associated with each key mineral, we will map these onto the industry sectors as per Task 4 and develop a detailed description of the opportunities and threats that mineral supply poses to each sector. This will highlight the number of key minerals to which each sector is exposed, their level of exposure and associated impacts. The analysis will then synthesize these findings into a SWOT analysis for each industry sector with relation to key minerals. This will enable a clear oversight for each sector as well as a useful basis for comparison, identifying the most exposed sectors.

Whilst tempting to develop a form of index or indicator to express this, many of the potential issues are qualitative and it would be misleading to ascribe numerical analysis to this. It is proposed, however, that this analysis takes the form of a matrix, that shows graphically the exposure and risk for each industry sector. The same would be conducted for opportunities, to highlight where effort should be focussed. These would be designed for clear communication with industry members to ensure the need for resource efficiency and investment can be quickly and readily comprehended.

Task 8: Synthesis and Recommendations. We will draw on all the previous analysis and synthesise it into a set of recommendations both for government and business in managing resource scarcity and risks, as well as taking advantage of the associated opportunities. These will be designed to be practical and easily implemented, and will draw on best practice identified throughout the analysis. This synthesis process will be achieved through a project-team workshop to maximise the opportunity for creative proposals and stress-testing of ideas. We find this is a highly effective way to deliver innovative and implementable recommendations. These initial recommendations will be shared with Defra for comment.

Task 9: Final Recommendations and Report. Following initial feedback from Defra, Eunomia produce final recommendations. We will then produce a Draft Final Report. The report will have a clear structure and offer signposting that usefully guide the reader through the commentary. Key messages will also be highlighted and summarised so to ensure that they can be easily identified. Following one set of consolidated feedback, we will produce the Final Report.

E03 - Project planning, management and delivery

Team Structure

Eunomia has put together a project team that provides considerable expertise and experience in the key areas identified in the methodology. As outlined in Figure 3-1 project team is as follows:

The Figure below provides a detailed overview of the planned timetable. Based on the staff from Eunomia allocated to this project, there is sufficient fieldwork capacity to deliver the research requirements and to address any support needs within the required timetable. Quality Assurance Eunomia has developed a reputation for delivering work of the highest quality. We pride ourselves on providing independent and unbiased analysis, demonstrating academic rigour, and adhering to ethical standards at all times. The Project Manager will be responsible for ensuring that all team members are familiar with the requirements of the AQUA book, particularly ‘RIGOUR’ (repeatable, independent, grounded in reality, objective, uncertainty-managed, and robust). These are principles that Eunomia adheres to on all projects. We are committed to ‘The Joint Code of Practice for Research’ and wholly comply with the code to maintain a climate of good scientific practice.

This project will be subject to Eunomia’s internal Quality Management System (QMS), which is ISO 9001:2015 accredited. The QMS has been developed based on industry best practice and backed by the PRINCE2® project management framework. It is also backed by a management team with significant project and programme management experience for major public and private organisations. Our drive towards continuous improvement goes to the heart of the organisation, ensuring that performance feedback is built into this QMS.

Quality registers are our key quality delivery tool. They link tasks, actions and ultimately deliverables to ‘quality reviews.’ Reviews are carried out by a separate member of staff to the person who created the quality register in the first instance. The method for the quality review is also set out in the quality register, along with target / actual review date, review comments, results and whether there is any root cause or repeat issues. These quality registers are linked to the specific quality review tasks, which are identified in detailed project plans.

Internal Monitoring: Our internal processes – used to deliver projects – are based upon the PRINCE2™ project management framework. The Project Manager will lead the team in adhering to these principles.

Review Processes: The Project Manager will undertake the initial review of deliverables to ensure that the required level of quality is achieved. Key deliverables will be reviewed by key staff prior release to Defra.

Risk Assessment and Mitigation

A central Risk Register will be used to record details of the risk identified, their potential impact and likelihood, and appropriate mitigation strategies. A central Issues Log will be set up, which will be used to maintain an up-to-date record of all tasks that arise as part of the ongoing management of the project. This allows the Project Manager to assign levels of urgency to each task and identify who is responsible for resolving the issue.

The Project Manager will be responsible for the day-to-day management of the project risks. Risks will be identified from the previous experience of our senior staff and further discussed with the Defra Project Manager to ensure that risks are defined appropriately. The Risk Registers will be ‘live’ documents, and pilot development may lead to the identification of additional risks, which would be included within the registers as they arise. Some risks include:

Risk	Potential to Affect Project Delivery	Mitigation Measures
Project needs change	Inability to adapt to change could hinder the research and delivery of this project.	Having worked with Defra on previous projects, the project team knows to be adaptive.
Lack of data availability	Data gaps result in a partial analysis	Having completed a similar exercise with the EU, Eunomia are well versed at obtaining data on the minerals sector.
Loss of key personnel	Key staff could become unavailable (e.g. due to illness), leading to knowledge gaps and an overwhelming workload.	Identification of sufficient and appropriate ‘reserve’ staff to step into all key roles.
Participants give biased responses	Participants could use this research as a platform to lobby Defra for a certain outcome.	We will seek to validate the findings of the interviews using data and discussions with Defra.
Conflicts of Interest	Biased research could skew the results and lead to misleading findings.	Eunomia is an independent research consultancy and during update meetings, all parties will be asked about new potential conflicts.
Scope Creep	There is a risk that the scope could	Use of a Project Initiation Document (PID) following extend beyond its original purpose.	the inception meeting. Adherence to specification and planned milestones.

Delays	There are multiple stages to the research, creating a risk of not meeting deadlines.	We will develop a detailed project plan. Sufficient capacity and skills to deliver volume of work on time and to a high quality. Rigorous project management; early notification of anticipated problems to client.

E04 - Expertise and Experience

Eunomia specialises in strategic evaluation and policy-related work focussed on environmental issues. Established in 2001, Eunomia has grown to an organisation of 80 consultants undertaking a range of challenging research and analysis throughout the entire policy cycle within the environmental sector. We are well known for the quality and objectivity of our work and have in-depth understanding of policies focussed on addressing environmental issues. Eunomia’s client base for provision of research, analysis, and evaluation spans all levels of government, from local authorities (over 150 in the UK), through to national government departments and agencies in the UK including BEIS, Defra, Ofgem, DCLG and the Environment Agency (EA).

Team Structure and Key Personnel

In the following sections we have sought to outline the key skills of the key personnel. The project team provides value for money, whilst retaining a good balance of expertise on the more challenging tasks. Overall some 43% of the project days are allocated to senior members of staff – this reflects the need to ensure that significant expertise is required to deliver the project. A full breakdown of staff time against the tasks is outlined in the staff time workbook.

The Contractor also acknowledges the confidentiality of Authority Data.

- 2.2 The Contractor shall be responsible for the security of the Contractor System and shall at all times provide a level of security which:
- 2.2.1 is in accordance with Good Industry Practice and Law;
 - 2.2.2 complies with Security Policy Framework; and

- 2.3 Without limiting paragraph 2.2, the Contractor shall at all times ensure that the level of security employed in the provision of the Services is appropriate to maintain the following at acceptable risk levels (to be defined by the Authority):

If the Security Plan is not approved by the Authority the Contractor shall amend it within 10 Working Days of a notice of non-approval from the Authority and re-submit to the Authority for approval. The Parties will use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that the approval process takes as little time as possible and in any event no longer than 15 Working Days (or such other period as the Parties may agree in writing) from the date of its first submission to the Authority. If the Authority does not approve the Security Plan following its resubmission, the matter will be resolved in accordance with clause 12 (Dispute Resolution). No approval to be given by the Authority pursuant to this paragraph 3.4 may be unreasonably withheld or delayed. However any failure to approve the Security Plan on the grounds that it does not comply with the requirements set out in paragraphs 3.1 to 3.4 shall be deemed to be reasonable.
- 3.5 The Security Plan will set out the security measures to be implemented and maintained by the Contractor in relation to all aspects of the Services and all processes associated with the delivery of the Services and shall at all times comply with and specify security measures and procedures which are sufficient to ensure that the Services comply with:

- 3.7 If there is any inconsistency in the provisions of the above standards, guidance and policies, the Contractor should notify the Authorised Representative of such inconsistency immediately upon becoming aware of the same, and the Authorised Representative shall, as soon as practicable, advise the Contractor which provision the Contractor shall be required to comply with.
- 3.8 The Security Plan will be structured in accordance with ISO/IEC27002 and ISO/IEC27001 or other equivalent policy or procedure, cross-referencing if necessary to other schedules of the Contract which cover specific areas included within that standard.

- 5.2 The Authority shall be entitled to send a representative to witness the conduct of the Security Tests. The Contractor shall provide the Authority with the results of such tests (in an Approved form) as soon as practicable after completion of each Security Test.

- 5.3 Without prejudice to any other right of audit or access granted to the Authority pursuant to the Contract, the Authority shall be entitled at any time and without giving notice to the Contractor to carry out such tests (including penetration tests) as it may deem necessary in relation to the Security Plan and the Contractor's compliance with and implementation of the Security Plan. The Authority may notify the Contractor of the results of such tests after completion of each such test. Security Tests shall be designed and implemented so as to minimise the impact on the delivery of the Services.
- 5.4 Where any Security Test carried out pursuant to paragraphs 5.2 or 5.3 reveals any actual or potential security failure or weaknesses, the Contractor shall promptly notify the Authority of any changes to the Security Plan (and the implementation thereof) which the Contractor proposes to make in order to correct such failure or weakness. Subject to Approval in accordance with paragraph 4.3, the Contractor shall implement such changes to the Security Plan in accordance with the timetable agreed with the Authority or, otherwise, as soon as reasonably possible. For the avoidance of doubt, where the change to the Security Plan to address a non-compliance with the Security Policy Framework or security requirements, the change to the Security Plan shall be at no additional cost to the Authority. For the purposes of this paragraph, a weakness means a vulnerability in security and a potential security failure means a possible breach of the Security Plan or security requirements.

- 6.3 Such steps shall include any action or changes reasonably required by the Authority. If such action is taken in response to a breach that is determined by the Authority acting reasonably not to be covered by the obligations of the Contractor under the Contract, then the Contractor shall be entitled to refer the matter to the CCN procedure set out in Schedule 3.
- 6.4 The Contractor shall as soon as reasonably practicable provide to the Authority full details (using such reporting mechanism as may be specified by the Authority from time to time) of such actual, potential or attempted breach and of the steps taken in respect thereof.

SCHEDULE 9- CO-FUNDING_N/A

1. PURPOSE OF THIS SCHEDULE

- 1.1 This Schedule 9 sets out additional terms to apply to the Contract where Co-funders are party to the Contract.

2. INTERPRETATION

- 2.1 Any reference to Co-funders shall be read in the singular where only one Co-funder is a party to the Contract.
- 2.2 Any reference to “either Party” in the Contract shall be interpreted to mean “any Party” and references to “neither Party” shall be interpreted to mean “no Party”; corresponding references to “the other Party” shall be read as “the other Parties” accordingly.

3. CONTRACT PROVISIONS APPLYING TO THE CO-FUNDERS

- 3.1 If the Co-funders fail to make any payment in accordance with Schedule 2 the Authority may issue a notice to the Contractor in accordance with clause A4.2 (Notices) identifying the default of the Co-funders and, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, terminating the Contract with immediate effect.

- 3.2 Each Co-funder agrees to comply with the obligations expressed to apply to the Authority in clause C with respect to that part of the Price which is payable by the relevant Co-funder as set out in Schedule 2. Any reference to “the Authority” in clause C shall be interpreted as if it read “the Authority or the Co-funders, as the case may be”.

- 3.3 Clause E8.5 (Intellectual Property Rights) is deleted and replaced with the following:

“E8.5 The Contractor shall not infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party in supplying the Services and the Contractor shall, during and after the Contract Period, indemnify and keep indemnified the Authority and the Crown and the Co-funders from and against all actions, suits, claims, demands, losses, charges, damages, costs and expenses and other liabilities which the Authority, the Crown or the Co-funders (as the case may be) may suffer or incur as a result of or in connection with any breach of this clause E8.5, except to the extent that any such claim results directly from:

- (a) items or materials based upon designs supplied by the Authority; or
- (b) the use of data supplied by the Authority which is not required to be verified by the Contractor under any provision of the Contract.”

- 3.4 The Contractor shall, in addition to informing the Authority of the matters referred to in clause F2.1 (Monitoring of Contract Performance), immediately inform the Co-funders of the same matter(s). The Authority shall pay due regard to any representations made by the Co-funders in exercising its rights under clauses F2.2 to F2.7 and the reference to “no extra charge to the Authority” in clause F2.7 shall be interpreted to mean “no extra charge to the Authority or the Co-funders”.

- 3.5 The indemnity from the Contractor to the Authority set out in clause G1.2 (Liabilities) is also given to the Co-funders, so that each reference to “the Authority” in that clause should be read as “the Authority and the Co-funders”. Accordingly, each reference to “the Authority” in clause G1.3 shall be read as “the Authority and the Co-funders”.

- 3.6 The Contractor shall not (and shall ensure that any other person engaged in relation to the Contract shall not) say or do anything that might lead any other person to believe that the Contractor is acting as the agent or employee of the Co-funders.
