Where other contracts are currently in place, the Contractor will be able to complete that work, but there may be some limitations as to the meetings they can attend in order to prevent a Contractor from reviewing their own work.

The Contractor must notify the STA immediately if it becomes aware of any potential conflict of interest under this clause.

7 Confidentiality

However, this is indicative only as the total number of days a Curriculum Advisor or Assessment Advisor is required will depend on the amount of work requiring completion for each subject and therefore there is likely to be variation between subjects. There is no minimum number of days associated with this contract.

8.2 Timelines for individual assignments will be defined upon commencing each test development cycle. Successful contractors will be required to confirm with the contract manager the anticipated number of days to complete each assignment.
