After this time, either Party may terminate the mediation process by notification to the other party (such notification may be verbal provided that it is followed up by written confirmation). - 23.5 If either Party is prevented or delayed in the performance of its obligations under this Contract by a Force Majeure Event, that Party shall as soon as reasonably practicable serve notice in writing on the other Party specifying the nature and extent of the circumstances giving rise to its failure to perform or any anticipated delay in performance of its obligations.
- 23.6 Subject to service of such notice, the Party affected by such circumstances shall have no liability for its failure to perform or for any delay in performance of its obligations affected by the Force Majeure Event only for so long as such circumstances continue and for such time after they cease as is necessary for that Party, using its best

Schedule 5

Contract Price

The Contract Price will be determined by reference to paragraphs 1 to 3 (below), subject always to the provisions of paragraph 5 of this Schedule 5:

1. A daily rate for each member of each category of Supplier Personnel (each such category being one of the “Role titles” referred to in the table entitled “Daily Rate Table” below) performing the Services in each calendar month of the Term, the actual aggregate monthly cost being calculated by multiplying:
 - a. the number of day(s) (pro-rated to reflect any part days) each such member of Supplier Personnel actually spends performing the Services on any day(s) falling in the relevant calendar month; by
 - b. the daily rate for the relevant member of Supplier Personnel,

(the “Daily Rate Element”),

as demonstrated in the worked example immediately below (the “Worked Example”). The Parties acknowledge and agree that the “Daily Rates” specified in the Worked Example and in the table entitled “Daily Rate Table” below are based on anticipated salaries and are indicative only. The Parties further acknowledge and agree that the daily rate (referred to in paragraph 1.b (above)) applicable to each member of Supplier Personnel will be determined once the member of Supplier Personnel has been appointed and the actual salary figure for such member of Supplier Personnel has been determined, provided always that (notwithstanding that the salaries used to produce the “Daily Rates” below are anticipated) the Supplier shall, in determining the actual daily rates applicable to the relevant member of Supplier Personnel for the purposes of paragraph 1.b (above), use the same logic and formula (including the approach to apportionment of the Fixed Costs (as defined in paragraph 2 (below)) as it applied to determine the indicative “Daily Rates” below for a member of Supplier Personnel falling within the same category as such member of Supplier Personnel, such logic and formula being adjusted only to reflect the actual salary for the appointed member of Supplier Personnel in question in place of the anticipated salary for a member of Supplier Personnel falling within the same category.
