- c. The parties may apply special protection to Messages by encryption or by other agreed means, and may apply designations to the Messages for protective Interchange, handling and storage procedures. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the party receiving a Message so protected or designated shall use at least the same level of protection and protective procedures for any further transmission of the Message and its Associated Data for all responses to the Message and for all other communications by Interchange or otherwise to any other person relating to the Message.

- d. Messages, when printed from electronic files and records established and maintained in the normal course of business will be admissible as between the parties to the same extent and under the same conditions as other business records originated and maintained in documentary form.

5. Integrity of Messages

- b. Each party will accord all Messages the same status as would be applicable to a document or to information sent other than by electronic means, unless a Message can be shown to have been corrupted as a result of technical failure on the part of a machine, system or transmission line involved in the process of Interchange.
- c. Upon either party becoming aware that a Message has been corrupted or if any Message is identified as incorrect then that party shall inform the other and the sending party shall re-transmit the Message as soon as practicable with a clear indication that it is a corrected Message. Any liability of the sending party which would otherwise accrue from its failure to comply with the provisions of this Sub-Clause 5.c. shall not accrue if Sub-Clause 5.d. applies.

- d. Notwithstanding Sub-Clauses 5.a. and 5.c. the sending party shall not be liable for the consequences of a corrupted or incorrect transmission or any failure to re-transmit if the error is or should in all the circumstances be reasonably obvious to the receiving party. In such event the receiving party shall immediately notify the sending party thereof.
- e. If the receiving party has reason to believe that a Message is not intended for them they shall notify the sending party and if so requested by the sending party shall, so far as is reasonably possible, Expunge from its system the information contained in such Message.

- c. - e. Acknowledgement in accordance with this clause shall not be deemed to constitute acceptance of any offer contained in any Message. Acceptance of an offer contained in any Message which is intended to create a legally binding obligation shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Contract.
- f. A Message shall be understood to have been received from the sender:
 - i. if transmitted between 09.00 and 17.00 hours on a business day (recipient's time) on receipt by the sender of a Functional Acknowledgement; or

The Authority shall be liable as between the Authority and the Contractor for any acts, failures or omissions of ePurchasing in its provision of the services of an intermediary as though they were the acts, failures or omissions of the Authority.

Any termination of this Agreement shall not affect contracts that call it up by reference prior to that termination.
- b. Notwithstanding termination for any reason, Clauses 3, 7 and 8 shall survive termination of this Agreement.
- c. Termination of this Agreement shall not affect any action required to complete or implement Messages which are sent prior to such termination.

10. Interruption of Service

- a. The parties acknowledge that service may be interrupted at times during the course of this Agreement. In such circumstances, the parties shall immediately consult each other on the use of alternative forms of communication to be used, including facsimile, telephone or paper. Any alternative forms of communication shall not be controlled by this Agreement.
- b. Applicable only in the absence of a relevant clause in the Contract:
 - i. Subject to Sub-Clause 10. a., a party shall not be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement by reason of any delay in performance, or non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that such delay or non-performance is due to any interruption of service or incident of Force Majeure as described in Sub-Clause 10.b.iii. below, of which he has notified the other party without delay
 - ii. The time for performance of that obligation shall then be extended accordingly. Sub-Clause 10. b. i. shall not operate so as to relieve liability for any matter which is a breach of Clause 3 of this Agreement

11. Invalidity and Severability

In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and any law, regulation or decree affecting this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement so affected shall be regarded as null and void or shall, where practicable, be curtailed and limited to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirements of such law, regulation or decree but otherwise it shall not render null and void other provisions of this Agreement.

15. Limit of Liability

- a. Each party agrees that, in relation to any claim, or series of connected claims, including claims for negligence but excluding claims resulting from wilful misconduct, arising from any delay or omission or error in the electronic transmission or receipt of any message pursuant to this Agreement, the liability of either party to the other shall be limited to £10,000 (exclusive of VAT), or where the Contract provides otherwise, to such other amount as is specified in the Contract.
- b. For the avoidance of doubt, liability in relation to any claim arising under the Contract shall be determined in accordance with the Contract.
- c. In the event that a delay, omission or error as referred to in Clause 15a occurs, which causes a delay in the performance of an obligation by either party under the Contract, the period for the performance of that obligation by the affected party shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of any such delay, omission or error.

16. Entire Agreement

This Agreement, including Annex A and any documents expressly referred to in this Agreement, represents the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all other agreements oral or written, and all other communications between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof provided that nothing in this Clause shall exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.
