17 FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall have any liability under or be deemed to be in breach of the Contract for any delays or failures in performance of the Contract which result from circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Party affected. Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing when such circumstances cause a delay or failure in performance and when they cease to do so. If such circumstances continue for a continuous period of more than 30 days, either Party may terminate the Contract by written notice to the other Party.

18 TERMINATION

18.1 UKRI may terminate the Contract in whole or in part at any time before the Goods and/or Services are provided with immediate effect by giving the Supplier written notice, whereupon the Supplier shall discontinue the provision of the Goods and/or Services (in whole or in part as applicable). UKRI shall pay to the Supplier:

- (a) such Charges or that part of the Charges for Goods which have been Delivered to UKRI or, on the deemed date of service of the notice of cancellation, are already in transit and the costs of materials which the Supplier has purchased to fulfil the order for the Goods and which cannot be used for other orders or be returned to the supplier of those materials for a refund; and/or
- (b) such Charges or that part of the Charges for Services provided and a fair and reasonable portion of the Charges for work-in-progress in performing the Services at the time of termination,

18.3 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy it might have, UKRI may terminate the Contract by written notice to the Supplier with immediate effect if the Supplier:

- (a) (without prejudice to clause 18.3(e)), is in material breach of any obligation under the Contract which is not capable of remedy;

- (d) undergoes a change of control within the meaning of section 1124 of the Corporation Tax 2010, unless UKRI has given its prior written consent to the change of control or does not raise an objection within 6 months of the Supplier's written notice to UKRI that a change of control has occurred;

- (a) terminate the Contract and recover from the Supplier the amount of any loss suffered by UKRI resulting from the termination, including the cost reasonably incurred by UKRI of making other arrangements for the supply of the Goods and/or Services and any additional expenditure incurred by UKRI throughout the remainder of the Contract; or
- (b) recover in full from the Supplier any other loss sustained by UKRI in consequence of any breach of this clause.

21 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

21.1 The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Contract and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the dispute to an appropriately senior representative of each Party.

21.2 If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Parties within one month of being escalated as referred to in clause 21.1, the dispute may by agreement between the Parties be referred to a neutral adviser or mediator (the "Mediator") chosen by agreement between the Parties. All negotiations connected with the dispute shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any further proceedings.

21.3 If the Parties fail to appoint a Mediator within one month, or fail to enter into a written agreement resolving the dispute within one month of the Mediator being appointed, either Party may exercise any remedy it has under applicable law.

22 GENERAL

22.1 Each of the Parties represents and warrants to the other that it has full capacity and authority, and all necessary consents, licences and permissions to enter into and perform its obligations under the Contract, and that the Contract is executed by its duly authorised representative.

- 22.2 The Supplier warrants and represents that during the Term it shall not accept work from other sources that will in any way impair or affect its ability to provide the Goods and/or Services and comply with the terms of this Contract.
- 22.3 The Supplier must make sure that neither it nor any of its Staff or sub-contractors are placed in a position where there is or may be an actual conflict, or a potential conflict, between their interests or the interests of its Staff or sub-contractors and the Supplier's obligations under this Contract. You must disclose to us the particulars of any conflict of interest that arises.
- 22.4 A person who is not a party to the Contract shall have no right to enforce any of its provisions which, expressly or by implication, confer a benefit on him or her, without the prior written agreement of the Parties.
- 22.5 The Contract cannot be varied except in writing signed by a duly authorised representative of both the Parties.
- 22.6 The Contract contains the whole agreement between the Parties and supersedes and replaces any prior written or oral agreements, representations or understandings between them. The Parties confirm that they have not entered into the Contract on the basis of any representation that is not expressly incorporated into the Contract. Nothing in this clause 22.6 shall exclude liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 22.7 Any waiver or relaxation either partly, or wholly of any of the terms and conditions of the Contract shall be valid only if it is communicated to the other Party in writing and expressly stated to be a waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other breach of the Contract.
- 22.8 The Contract shall not constitute or imply any partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship or other relationship between the Parties other than the contractual relationship expressly provided for in the Contract. Neither Party shall have, nor represent that it has, any authority to make any commitments on the other Party's behalf.
- 22.9 Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Contract, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Contract (whether under the Contract, statute or common law) are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.
- 22.10 If any provision of the Contract is prohibited by law or judged by a court to be unlawful, void or unenforceable, the provision shall, to the extent required, be severed from the Contract and rendered ineffective as far as possible without modifying the remaining provisions of the Contract, and shall not in any way affect any other circumstances of or the validity or enforcement of the Contract.

23 NOTICES

- 23.1 Any notice to be given under the Contract shall be in writing and may be served by personal delivery, first class recorded or, subject to clause 23.3, e-mail to the address of the relevant Party set out in the Award Letter, or such other address as that Party may from time to time notify to the other Party in accordance with this clause.
- 23.2 Notices served as above shall be deemed served on the Working Day of delivery provided delivery is before 5.00pm on a Working Day. Otherwise delivery shall be deemed to occur on the next Working Day. An email shall be deemed delivered when sent unless an error message is received.

- 23.3 Notices under clauses 17 and 18 may be served by email only if the original notice is then sent to the recipient by personal delivery or recorded delivery in the manner set out in clause 23.1.

24 GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 24.1 The validity, construction and performance of the Contract, and all contractual and non-contractual matters arising out of it, shall be governed by English law and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to which the Parties submit.

2. Background

The Transforming Foundation Industry challenge is supporting the development of innovative technology to reduce energy and resource use within the foundation industries – which include the cement, glass, ceramics, paper, metals and bulk chemicals sectors. Transforming foundation industries challenge – UKRI.

Long investment cycles mean that many companies in these sectors are planning facilities that could be in operation for 30 years. But the need to reduce carbon emissions and improve resource efficiency are impacting not just the foundation industries, but also their customers. What types of materials and products will their customers be wanting to purchase this far into the future?

To help understand what these changes may mean for the materials that will be demanded from the foundation industries, the TFI Challenge is commissioning the project: “The material requirements of the 2050 Packaging sector”.

3. Aims and Objectives of the Project

The primary aim of this work is to help our Foundation Industry companies to understand the materials and products that their major customers might be purchasing from them in the medium to long term. This will enable them to better understand:

- Market opportunities and threats.
- The possible impact of disruptive products or business models.
- Their short and medium term research needs.

To achieve this, their major customers in the Packaging sector are being invited to discuss how they imagine their requirements for the materials or products currently provided by the foundation sector might have changed by 2050. This would take account of factors such as:

- Changes in their own client or customer requirements.
- Major policy drivers, in particular the reduction of carbon emissions.
- Possible regulatory requirements.
- Advances in materials technology and product design.

It is expected that by considering a time almost 30 years in to the future, the discussions will be wide ranging and speculative, rather than just an evolution of today’s thinking and practices.

To achieve this, a two-part programme of work is required, comprising an Event and Supporting research.

The output of the projects will be a written summary of the discussions, with recommendations for further activity.

Clarifications on scope:

- The work is wide in scope, and so the work should focus on applications with the most significant material or environmental impact.
- Materials that are not considered part of the foundation industry, but which are an alternative to those supplied by the Foundation Industry sector, should be considered.

4. Suggested Methodology

Part 1 – Supporting research

To help to “set the scene” for the event (Part 2), the bidder should prepare a report to help stimulate discussion at the event. Topics that could be included in this research are likely to include the current “state of play”, policy drivers, regulatory issues and industry drivers.

The objective of this work is to provide information that will bring out the challenges and opportunities facing the Foundation Industry sectors as they adapt to changing customer requirements in the light of possible long term policy drivers, regulatory requirements and technical developments. Given the limited budget and uncertainties about this long term future, this work will not be exhaustive, but should be sufficiently broad to identify important matters of the most interest and relevance.

The bidder can choose the type of work this might comprise, taking account of available budget, covid restrictions and availability of pre-existing information. It is anticipated that this would comprise a mixture of desk research and interviews with sector thought leaders, but the bidder is free to suggest what they think might work best.

Part 2 - The event

The bidder should design and manage an event to stimulate thinking on how the materials required by the Packaging sector could have changed by 2050. The primary target audience will be delegates from the Foundation Industry sector, and possible disruptive companies from outside the sector. In addition, sufficient delegates from the Packaging sectors should be invited to give a balanced discussion, and to give credibility to the event.

To achieve this, the event should include speakers who offer a range of views, and there should be good opportunity for audience involvement.

Please assume that this will be an on-line event.

The bidder would undertake all event management services, including:

- Publicity
- Delegate registration
- Finding and confirming speakers
- Running of the on-line event

The event would indicatively be 2 – 3 hours long, although we are open to suggestions from the bidder as to the most appropriate design of the event.

The TFI Challenge will also help to promote the event through its extensive Foundation Industry and Packaging sector networks.

Subject to changes in covid-19 restrictions, budget availability, and in agreement with the contractor regarding budget and timing, there is the possibility of a contract variation to change this to an in-person event.

5. Deliverables

Part 1 - Supporting research

Undertake the research described in section 3. The report can be created in Word or Powerpoint form. The findings of this work should be used to inform the discussion at the event.

Following the event, an updated report will be produced that will also capture the important points arising from the discussion at the event, and will make recommendations for further activity.

It is not currently planned for this to be a formal Innovate UK publication, but Innovate would approve the report prior to release. Indicatively this report would be 30-50 pages long.

Part 2 - The Event

Deliver the event described in section 3.

NB It is important that all work is completed by 31 March 2022.

Terms and Conditions

Bidders are to note that any requested modifications to the Contracting Authority Terms and Conditions on the grounds of statutory and legal matters only, shall be raised as a formal clarification during the permitted clarification period.
