17.2 The Supplier shall:

17.2.1 comply with all the Customer's health and safety measures while on the Customer's premises; and

17.2.2 notify the Customer immediately in the event of any incident occurring in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement on the Customer's premises where that incident causes any personal injury or damage to property which could give rise to personal injury.

17.3 The Supplier shall:

17.3.1 perform its obligations under the Agreement in accordance with all applicable equality Law and the Customer's equality and diversity policy as provided to the Supplier from time to time; and

17.3.2 take all reasonable steps to secure the observance of clause 17.3.1 by all Staff.

18 Prevention of Fraud and Corruption

18.1 The Supplier shall not offer, give, or agree to give anything, to any person an inducement or reward for doing, refraining from doing, or for having done or refrained from doing, any act in relation to the obtaining or execution of the Agreement or for showing or refraining from showing favour or disfavour to any person in relation to the Agreement.

18.2 The Supplier shall take all reasonable steps, in accordance with good industry practice, to prevent fraud by the Staff and the Supplier (including its shareholders, members and directors) in connection with the Agreement and shall notify the Customer immediately if it has reason to suspect that any fraud has occurred or is occurring or is likely to occur.

18.3.2 recover in full from the Supplier any other loss sustained by the Customer in consequence of any breach of this clause.

19 Dispute Resolution

- 19.1 The Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate a settlement to any dispute between them arising out of or in connection with the Agreement and such efforts shall involve the escalation of the dispute to an appropriately senior representative of each Party.
- 19.2 If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Parties within one month of being escalated as referred to in clause 19.1, the dispute may by agreement between the Parties be referred to a neutral adviser or mediator (the “Mediator”) chosen by agreement between the Parties. All negotiations connected with the dispute shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties in any further proceedings.
- 19.3 If the Parties fail to appoint a Mediator within one month, or fail to enter into a written agreement resolving the dispute within one month of the Mediator being appointed, either Party may exercise any remedy it has under applicable law.

20 General

- 20.1 Each of the Parties represents and warrants to the other that it has full capacity and authority, and all necessary consents, licences and permissions to enter into and perform its obligations under the Agreement, and that the Agreement is executed by its duly authorised representative.
- 20.2 A person who is not a party to the Agreement shall have no right to enforce any of its provisions which, expressly or by implication, confer a benefit on him, without the prior written agreement of the Parties.
- 20.3 The Agreement cannot be varied except in writing signed by a duly authorised representative of both the Parties.

The Parties confirm that they have not entered into the Agreement on the basis of any representation that is not expressly incorporated into the Agreement. Nothing in this clause shall exclude liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 20.5 Any waiver or relaxation either partly, or wholly of any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement shall be valid only if it is communicated to the other Party in writing and expressly stated to be a waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy arising from a breach of contract shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy arising from any other breach of the Agreement.
- 20.6 The Agreement shall not constitute or imply any partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship or other relationship between the Parties other than the contractual relationship expressly provided for in the Agreement. Neither Party shall have, nor represent that it has, any authority to make any commitments on the other Party’s behalf.
- 20.7 Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Agreement, all remedies available to either Party for breach of the Agreement (whether under the Agreement, statute or common law) are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately, and the exercise of one remedy shall not be deemed an election of such remedy to the exclusion of other remedies.
- 20.8 If any provision of the Agreement is prohibited by law or judged by a court to be unlawful, void or unenforceable, the provision shall, to the extent required, be severed from the Agreement and rendered ineffective as far as possible without modifying the remaining provisions of the Agreement, and shall not in any way affect any other circumstances of or the validity or enforcement of the Agreement.

Annex 3 - Specification

Proposal to Defra for logistics, advice and participation at the UNFCCC COP25

1. Objectives

- 1.1 The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change Conference of the Parties (UNFCCC COP) is the key intergovernmental means of negotiating nations' steps for climate mitigation and adaptation. The ocean is becoming increasing part of the agenda since the inclusion of the ocean in the COP. It is in UK's national interest to be fully involved in the ocean science-to-policy component of such discussions, whilst demonstrating the high profile impact of UK-funded science. Whilst BEIS lead on the UK's climate negotiations, the ocean is in Defra's remit, so it is important that Defra participates in ocean activities at the UNFCCC. The next COP(25) will be on 2-14 December 2019 and will be another crucial event for intergovernmental negotiations on future greenhouse gas emissions on the lead up to the 5 year review of National Determined Contributions at the COP26 in 2020. Defra participated at the high-level closing panel of the UN Oceans Action Day at the UNFCCC COP23 and COP24. Defra will participate in COP25 and draw on Plymouth Marine Laboratory's (PML) expertise in the holding of ocean side events and ensuring high-level participation, collaboration and visibility at this key international policy event.
- 1.2 The ocean and climate interact substantially, so much so that the increase in anthropogenic CO<sub>2</sub> emissions are resulting in rapid change to ocean physics, chemistry and biology, increasing risk to marine ecosystems and the goods and services they provide to society and the sustainable development of ocean ecosystems.
- 1.3 Ocean acidification, warming, deoxygenation and sea level rise (and other ocean changes highlighted by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change's Special Report on the Ocean and Cryosphere in a changing climate (IPCC SROCC)) have the potential for widespread and significant effects on marine ecosystems and food webs and human society. The ocean-climate nexus should be part of the debate on emissions reduction and adaptation as the Paris Agreement is implemented. In particular, it brings additional arguments for encouraging governments, industry and other stakeholders to reduce CO<sub>2</sub> emissions, since that action will reduce the impact of both climate change and ocean acidification and warming. There is therefore need to promote the inclusion of mitigation of, and adaptation to, the impacts of a changing ocean in policy relevant documents, regulations and funding instruments and platforms.
- 1.4 Scientific evidence indicates (IPCC SR1.5 and SROCC; Intergovernmental Science-Policy Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services' (IPBES) Global Assessment) that the degree of risk will depend on society's actions to reduce CO<sub>2</sub> emissions. Such actions are discussed and negotiated at the UNFCCC COPs. It is therefore important that that the effects of CO<sub>2</sub> emissions on the ocean, its ecosystems and societies that depend on them are part of the discussion. This contract will enable Defra to take advantage of the experience of PML staff at previous COPs and for the UK to participate in ocean-climate policy activities at the UNFCCC COP.

2. Approach and Methodology

2.1 To facilitate the above, PML will be an active member of the Planning Group for the official UNFCCC Oceans Action Day, apply for an official UN Side Events and Exhibits Online Registration Systems' (SEORS) side event and a number of side events in the UK/other national/NGO pavilions. The applications will cover a range of ocean-climate related topics and speakers. Whilst each application will be moulded to suit the specific interests and requirements for the national/NGO pavilions it is unlikely that all applications will be successful as such events are very competitive. Key to success is contacting and networking with individuals both in charge of the pavilions and potential speakers.

2.2 PML will:

- a) Co-ordinate the UN Oceans Action Day (as part of the Marrakesh Partnership) on 7 December with other members of the Planning Team (GOF, IOC-UNESCO, FAO, OA-Alliance, IUCN etc.). An invitation will go out to Defra and BEIS to input into the next Planning Team teleconference and Defra will supply the appropriate name for PML to propose. PML will also propose a Minister to address the High Level Ministerial opening event. Defra will supply the name of the appropriate Minister and potential declarations/actions for him/her to announce. PML will give regular updates on progress of planning for UN Oceans Action Day.
- b) Lead on an application for a SEORS (official UN side event) on ocean and climate and collaborate with other UN accredited partners to ensure a joint (merged) submission to increase the chances of a successful selection.
- c) Lead applications for side events in a number of national and NGO pavilions (e.g. UK (x2), Pacific, EU, WWF, Indonesia, Nordic and others as opportunities arise). PML will keep Defra abreast of these opportunities as they occur.
- d) Collaborate with other organisations to contribute to their side events (IEA GHG, Ocean and Climate Platform, IPCC, Chile, Japan (IPRI), OA Alliance). PML will keep Defra informed of any opportunities for contributions to others side events.
- e) Apply for a Press Event (should Defra be interested) with exact content to be discussed.

2.3 Topics and logistics:

2.3.1 For side events applications it is important:

- a) not to cover exactly the same topic in each event (although there can be some overlap),
- b) to have high level addresses,
- c) to have panellists who are a mixture of science, policy and society
- d) to have representatives from different countries due to the international focus and scope of the UNFCCC,
- e) ensure the speakers are excellent, available, well prepared (so advice on PowerPoint presentations and audience is often required),
- f) that those who are attending the COP have UN accreditation (so they can gain access).

2.3.2 Topics (not exhaustive) to be covered include:

- a) Ocean acidification and other changes in ocean physics and chemistry
- b) Global Ocean Acidification Observing Network (GOA-ON), including North East Atlantic Hub
- c) Findings of IPCC SROCC & SR1.5 and IPBES reports
- d) UN Decade of the Ocean
- e) Marine Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs)
- f) Marine Protected Areas (NPAs)
- g) Blue Carbon
- h) Polar oceans
- i) Ocean observations and future projections
- j) Carbon capture and storage (sub sea bed)
- k) Fisheries and aquaculture
- l) Ocean provisioning services
- m) Actions on ocean change (mitigation and adaptation) at the UNFCCC
- n) Marine renewables
- o) Commonwealth Blue Charter (and its Action Plans)

- p) The Ocean initiative (and others such as Friends of the Ocean and the OA-Alliance)
- q) International Ocean Strategy and other UK initiatives
- r) Net Zero – UK law

2.4 Advertising events.

PML will create electronic flyers for each side event and ensure their wide distribution via its network, social media and the UNFCCC website where applicable. Defra will aim to work with organisers of UN Oceans Action Day to make these events part of the network of events leading up to, during and after UN Oceans Action Day, thus using their List Server to advertise Defra's events. PML will also seek to have live web link for events where possible and official International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD) reporting of key events e.g. UN Oceans Action Day.

2.5 Speakers/panels.

Defra will aim to have 1-2 high level addresses for each successful side event plus a panel of around 5-6 other speakers, depending on length of time for the side event.

2.6 Other activities.

2.6.1 PML will:

- a) Work with the Defra team, via regular email updates, teleconferences and meetings, on its aspirations at COP25 and keep the team informed of:
  - I. applications for side events,
  - II. the success of applications and their subsequent organisation,
  - III. the progress of plans for UN Oceans Action Day and other information as it becomes available,
  - IV. opportunities for UK high level speakers.
- b) Continue to discuss ocean events, including an ocean reception with FCO-SIN (Daniela Sandoval, FCO-SIN (Science and Innovation Network) in Santiago).
- c) Link key people where appropriate and useful.

2.7 Milestones and Deliverables

- I. Approach nations/NGOs and potential partners and speakers for side event applications (current-September).
- II. Submission of applications for side events (current – September). A minimum number of applications to be submitted are 2X UK pavilion events, 1 x UN SEORS side event plus co-ordination across other events)
- III. Organising the side events where applications were successful (e.g. confirmation of speakers, dates, location, PPT advice and collation, liaison with pavilion organisers, advertising event and other logistics) (September – December)
- IV. Participate in COP25 (December) including coordination on the ground, networking and introductions for Defra.
- V. Production of policy guide on ocean stressors and pop-up banner to place behind speakers and at the entrance of side events (with Defra logo) to ensure presence and help promote the events. Support Defra and the UK Government in production of a common UK narrative on oceans.
