CALL-OFF SPECIAL TERMS

The following Special Terms are incorporated into this Call-Off Contract:

Special Term 1

The Supplier has numerous clients that rely upon it for general representation. The Supplier advises clients in matters arising under the laws of one or more of the constituent parts of the United Kingdom, the European Union, a Member State of the European Union, the WTO, other international trade and/or investment agreements, or public international law generally. As a result, without advance conflicts waivers from Supplier clients, conflicts of interest could arise that could deprive either the Buyer or other Supplier clients of the right to select the Supplier as counsel.

In light of the foregoing, other current or future clients of the Supplier including those identified in the preceding paragraph (collectively, the “Other Clients”) may ask the Supplier to represent them in matters (including litigation) that are averse to the Buyer but that are not substantially related to the Supplier’s representation of the Buyer. If the Supplier is not representing the Buyer in such a matter, and the matter in which the Buyer and the Other Client have adverse interests is not substantially related to our current or past representation of the Buyer, then:

1. the Buyer agrees that the Supplier may represent such Other Client to the extent and provided that the Supplier is and remains not substantially related to the Supplier’s representation of the Buyer;
2. the Buyer waives any conflict of interest arising from such representation; and
3. the Buyer agrees that it will not seek to disqualify or otherwise prevent the Supplier from representing such Other Client, provided that any Confidential Information and Personal Data held by lawyers of the Supplier that assisted the Buyer in this matter is kept confidential, in the case of Confidential Information, and Processed, in the case of Personal Data, in accordance with Clauses 14 and 15 of the Core Terms, respectively.

The Buyer acknowledges that it has had an opportunity to consult with other counsel (in-house or otherwise) before agreeing to this waiver.

COMMERCIALLY SENSITIVE INFORMATION

The Supplier's rates and pricing as set out in its bid documents. The disclosure of the information would prejudice the commercial interests of the firm. The client base includes public sector clients, and the Supplier must bid competitively for its work. Pricing is a key part of the evaluation, and its interests would be prejudiced if its rates were disclosed to its competitors. This exemption shall apply until the expiry of the contract.
