Executive Summary

You have therefore approached us to provide a programme of penetration and security assessments, which will allow you to understand your vulnerabilities, risks and take action to address them.

You will be in very safe hands with NCC Group. Our team of penetration testing experts will deliver testing in line with your requirements and give you clear, actionable, recommendations for change. We are confident that our testing methodologies and technologies are world class.

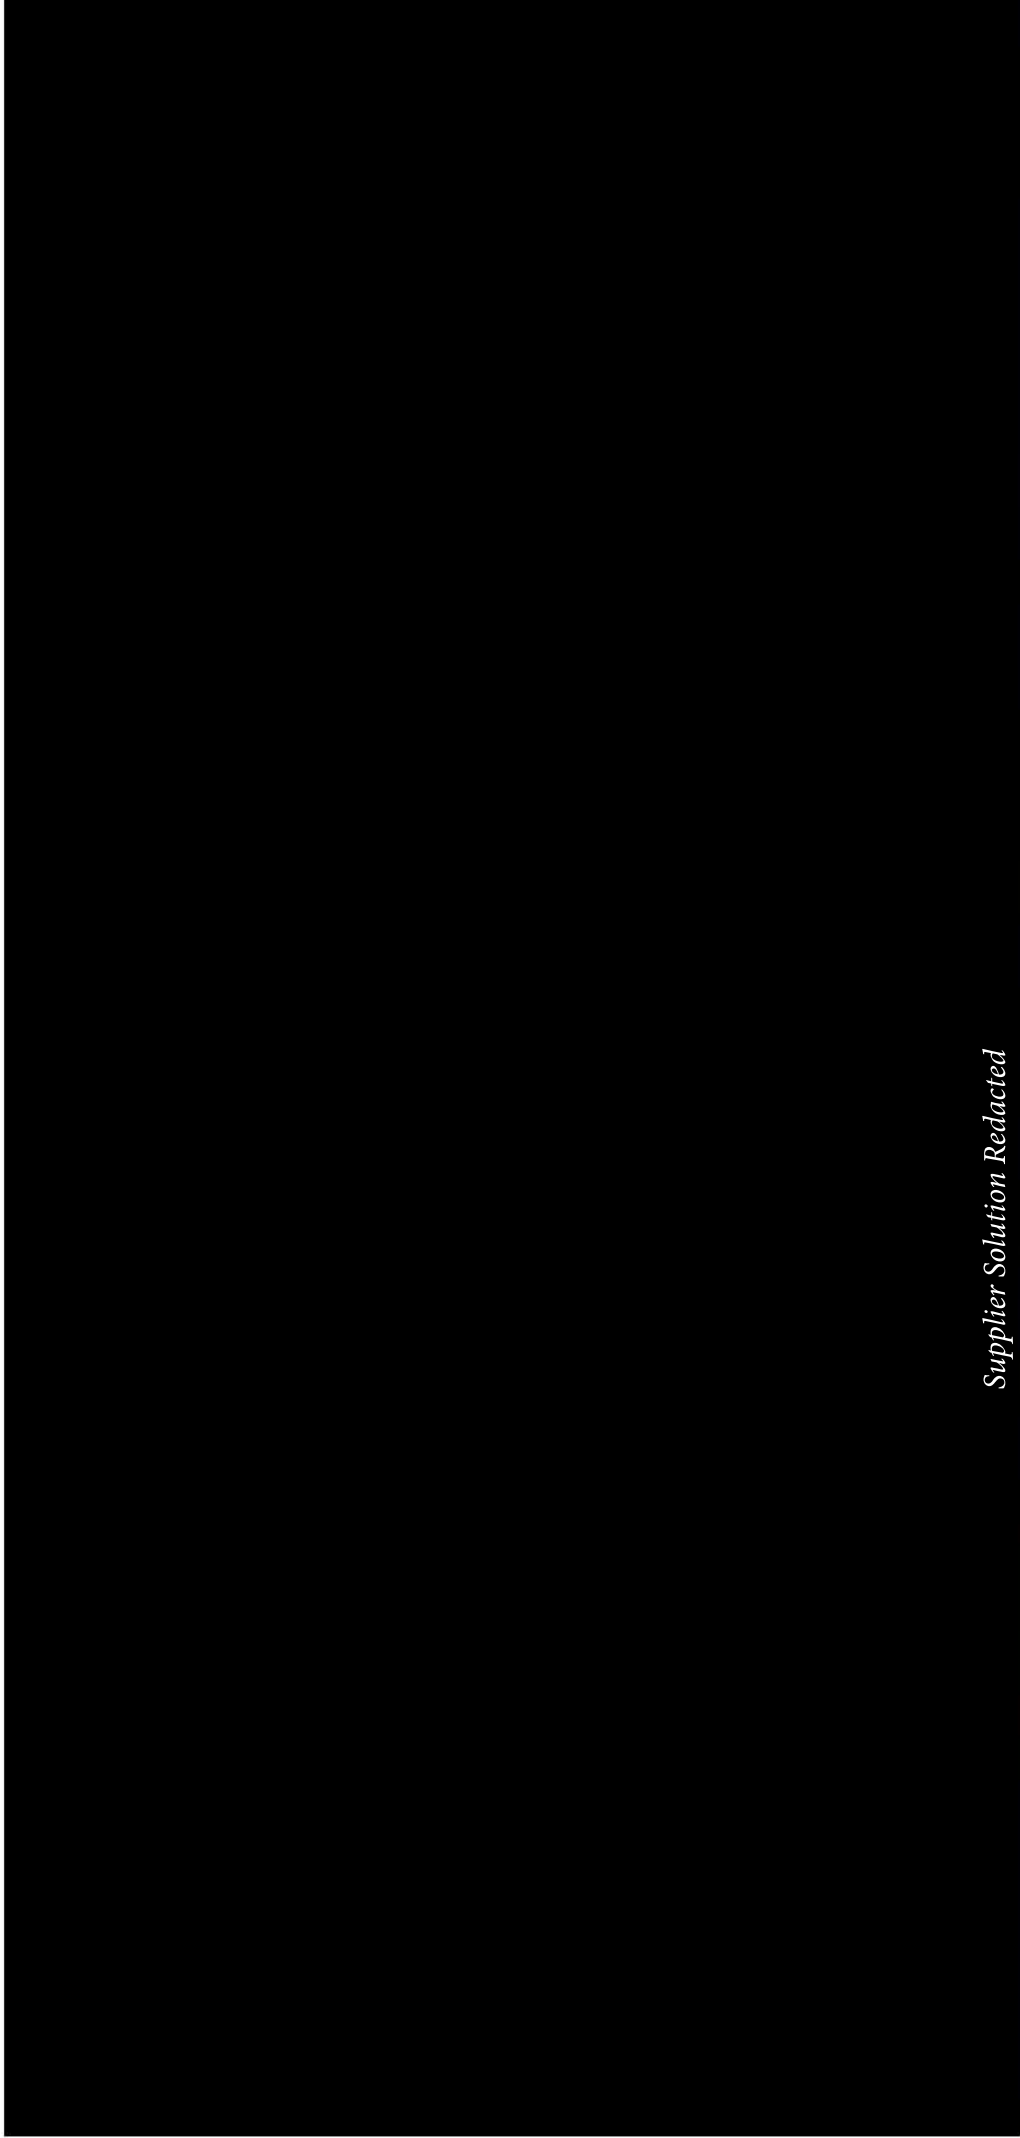

Based upon the information we have exchanged, details of which are fully documented in our proposal, we are pleased to undertake this engagement, tailored to your requirements, including the production of a detailed report, for a firm price of £27,500 plus VAT and applicable expenses.
