If the Supplier doesn't do this it will pay the Buyer's costs including repair or re-supply by a third party.
- 4.2.12 The Buyer will not be liable for any actions, claims, costs and expenses incurred by the Supplier or any third party during Delivery of the Goods unless and to the extent that it is caused by negligence or other wrongful act of the Buyer or its servant or agent. If the Buyer suffers or incurs any damage or injury (whether fatal or otherwise) occurring in the course of Delivery or installation then the Supplier shall indemnify the Buyer from any losses, charges, costs or expenses which arise as a result of or in connection with such damage or injury where it is attributable to any act or omission of the Supplier or any of its Subcontractors or Supplier Staff.

4.3 Services clauses

- 4.3.1 Late Delivery of the Services will be a default of the Contract.
- 4.3.2 The Supplier must co-operate with the Buyer and third party suppliers on all aspects connected with the delivery of the Services and ensure that Supplier Staff comply with any reasonable instructions including the security requirements (where any such requirements have been provided).
- 4.3.3 The Buyer must provide the Supplier with reasonable access to its premises at reasonable times for the purpose of supplying the Services

- 4.3.8 The Supplier must ensure all Services, and anything used to deliver the Services, are of good quality and free from defects.
- 4.3.9 The Buyer is entitled to withhold payment for partially or undelivered Services, but doing so does not stop it from using its other rights under the Contract.

- 5.2 All Charges:
 - 5.2.1 exclude VAT, which is payable on provision of a valid VAT invoice; and

 - 5.4.1 includes all appropriate references including the Purchase Order Number and other details reasonably requested by the Buyer; and
 - 5.4.2 includes a detailed breakdown of Deliverables which have been delivered.
- 5.5 If there is a dispute between the Parties as to the amount invoiced, the Buyer shall pay the undisputed amount. The Supplier shall not suspend the provision of the Deliverables unless the Supplier is entitled to terminate the Contract for a failure to pay undisputed sums in accordance with clause 11.6. Any disputed amounts shall be resolved through the dispute resolution procedure detailed in clause 36.
- 5.6 The Buyer may retain or set-off payment of any amount owed to it by the Supplier under this Contract or any other agreement between the Supplier and the Buyer if notice and reasons are provided.

- 5.7 The Supplier must ensure that all Subcontractors are paid, in full, within 30 days of receipt of a valid, undisputed invoice. If this doesn't happen, the Buyer can publish the details of the late payment or non-payment.

- 6.1 If Supplier fails to comply with the Contract as a result of a Buyer Cause:
- 6.1.1 the Buyer cannot terminate the Contract under clause 11;

 - 6.2.3 mitigated the impact of the Buyer Cause.

7 RECORD KEEPING AND REPORTING

- 7.1 The Supplier must ensure that suitably qualified representatives attend progress meetings with the Buyer and provide progress reports when specified in the Order Form.

- 7.3 The Supplier must allow any auditor appointed by the Buyer access to its premises to verify all contract accounts and records of everything to do with the Contract and provide copies for the Audit.
- 7.4 The Buyer or an auditor can Audit the Supplier.
- 7.5 During an Audit, the Supplier must provide information to the auditor and reasonable co-operation at their request.
- 7.6 The Parties will bear their own costs when an Audit is undertaken unless the Audit identifies a Material Breach by the Supplier, in which case the Supplier will repay the Buyer's reasonable costs in connection with the Audit.
- 7.7 If the Supplier is not providing any of the Deliverables, or is unable to provide them, it must immediately:
- 7.7.1 tell the Buyer and give reasons;
 - 7.7.2 propose corrective action; and
 - 7.7.3 provide a deadline for completing the corrective action.

- 7.8 If the Buyer, acting reasonably, is concerned as to the financial stability of the Supplier such that it may impact on the continued performance of the Contract then the Buyer may:
- 7.8.1 require that the Supplier provide to the Buyer (for its approval) a plan setting out how the Supplier will ensure continued performance of the Contract and the Supplier will make changes to such plan as reasonably required by the Buyer and once it is agreed then the Supplier shall act in accordance with such plan and report to the Buyer on demand; and
 - 7.8.2 if the Supplier fails to provide a plan or fails to agree any changes which are requested by the Buyer or fails to implement or provide updates on progress with the plan, terminate the Contract immediately for Material Breach (or on such date as the Buyer notifies) and the consequences of termination in Clause 11.5.1 shall apply.
- 7.9 If there is a Material Breach, the Supplier must notify the Buyer within 3 Working Days of the Supplier becoming aware of the Material Breach. The Buyer may request that the Supplier provide a Rectification Plan within 10 Working Days of the Buyer's request alongside any additional documentation that the Buyer requires. Once such Rectification Plan is agreed between the Parties (without the Buyer limiting its rights) the Supplier must immediately start work on the actions in the Rectification Plan at its own cost.
- 8 SUPPLIER STAFF
- 8.1 The Supplier Staff involved in the performance of the Contract must:
- 8.1.1 be appropriately trained and qualified;
 - 8.1.2 be vetted in accordance with the Staff Vetting Procedures; and
 - 8.1.3 comply with all conduct requirements when on the Buyer's premises.
- 8.2 Where the Buyer decides one of the Supplier's Staff isn't suitable to work on the Contract, the Supplier must replace them with a suitably qualified alternative.
- 8.3 The Supplier must provide a list of Supplier Staff needing to access the Buyer's premises and say why access is required.
- 8.4 The Supplier indemnifies the Buyer against all claims brought by any person employed or engaged by the Supplier caused by an act or omission of the Supplier or any Supplier Staff.
- 8.5 The Buyer indemnifies the Supplier against all claims brought by any person employed or engaged by the Buyer caused by an act or omission of the Buyer or any of the Buyer's employees, agents, consultants and contractors.
- 8.6 The Supplier shall use those persons nominated (if any) as Key Staff in the Order Form or otherwise notified as such by the Buyer to the Supplier in writing, following agreement to the same by the Supplier to provide the Deliverables and shall not remove or replace any of them unless:
- 8.6.1 requested to do so by the Buyer or the Buyer approves such removal or replacement (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed);

9 RIGHTS AND PROTECTION

9.1 The Supplier warrants and represents that:

- 9.1.1 it has full capacity and authority to enter into and to perform the Contract;
- 9.1.2 the Contract is entered into by its authorised representative;
- 9.1.3 it is a legally valid and existing organisation incorporated in the place it was formed;
- 9.1.4 there are no known legal or regulatory actions or investigations before any court, administrative body or arbitration tribunal pending or threatened against it or its affiliates that might affect its ability to perform the Contract;
- 9.1.5 all necessary rights, authorisations, licences and consents (including in relation to IPRs) are in place to enable the Supplier to perform its obligations under the Contract and the Buyer to receive the Deliverables;
- 9.1.6 it doesn't have any contractual obligations which are likely to have a material adverse effect on its ability to perform the Contract; and
- 9.1.7 it is not impacted by an Insolvency Event.

9.2 The warranties and representations in clause 3.3 and clause 9.1 are repeated each time the Supplier provides Deliverables under the Contract.

9.3 The Supplier indemnifies the Buyer against each of the following:

- 9.3.1 wilful misconduct of the Supplier, any of its Subcontractor and/or Supplier Staff that impacts the Contract; and
- 9.3.2 non-payment by the Supplier of any tax or National Insurance.

9.4 If the Supplier becomes aware of a representation or warranty made in relation to the Contract that becomes untrue or misleading, it must immediately notify the Buyer.

9.5 All third party warranties and indemnities covering the Deliverables must be assigned for the Buyer's benefit by the Supplier for free.

10 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS (“IPRs”)

10.1 Each Party keeps ownership of its own Existing IPRs. The Supplier gives the Buyer a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, irrevocable, transferable, sub-licensable worldwide licence to use, copy and adapt the Supplier's Existing IPR to enable the Buyer and its sub-licensees to both:

10.1.1 receive and use the Deliverables; and

10.1.2 use the New IPR.

The termination or expiry of the Contract does not terminate any licence granted under this clause 10.

10.2 Any New IPR created under the Contract is owned by the Buyer. The Buyer gives the Supplier a royalty-free, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use, copy, and adapt any Existing IPRs and the New IPR which the Supplier reasonably requires for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations during the Term and commercially exploiting the New IPR developed under the Contract. This licence is sub-licensable to a Subcontractor for the purpose of enabling the Supplier to fulfil its obligations under the Contract, and in that case the Subcontractor must enter into a confidentiality undertaking with the Supplier on the same terms as set out in clause 15 (What you must keep confidential).

10.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Supplier and the Buyer will record any New IPR and keep this record updated throughout the Term.

10.4 Where a Party acquires ownership of intellectual property rights incorrectly under this Contract, it must do everything reasonably necessary to complete a transfer assigning them in writing to the other Party on request and at its own cost.

10.5 Neither Party has the right to use the other Party's intellectual property rights, including any use of the other Party's names, logos or trademarks, except as provided in this clause 10 or otherwise agreed in writing.

10.6 If any claim is made against the Buyer for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property arising out of, or in connection with, the supply or use of the Deliverables (an "IPR Claim"), then the Supplier indemnifies the Buyer against all losses, damages, costs or expenses (including professional fees and fines) incurred as a result of the IPR Claim.

10.7 If an IPR Claim is made or anticipated, the Supplier must at its own option and expense, either:

10.7.1 obtain for the Buyer the rights in clause 10.1 without infringing any third party intellectual property rights; and

10.7.2 replace or modify the relevant item with substitutes that don't infringe intellectual property rights without adversely affecting the functionality or performance of the Deliverables.

10.7.3 If the Supplier is not able to resolve the IPR Claim to the Buyer's reasonable satisfaction within a reasonable time, the Buyer may give written notice that it terminates the Contract from the date set out in the notice, or where no date is given in the notice, the date of the notice. On termination, the consequences of termination in clauses 11.5.1 shall apply.

10.8 The Supplier shall not use in the Delivery of the Deliverables any Third Party IPR unless:

10.8.1 the Buyer gives its approval to do so; and

10.8.2 one of the following conditions applies:

- 10.8.2.1 the owner or an authorised licensor of the relevant Third Party IPR has granted the Buyer a direct licence that provides the Buyer with the rights in clause 10.1; or
 - 10.8.2.2 if the Supplier cannot, after commercially reasonable endeavours, obtain for the Buyer a direct licence to the Third Party IPR as set out in clause 10.8.2.1:
 - (a) the Supplier provides the Buyer with details of the licence terms it can obtain and the identity of those licensors;
 - (b) the Buyer agrees to those licence terms; and
 - (c) the owner or authorised licensor of the Third Party IPR grants a direct licence to the Buyer on those terms; or
 - 10.8.2.3 the Buyer approves in writing, with reference to the acts authorised and the specific intellectual property rights involved.
- 10.9 In spite of any other provisions of the Contract and for the avoidance of doubt, award of this Contract by the Buyer and the ordering of any Deliverable under it, does not constitute an authorisation by the Crown under Sections 55 and 56 of the Patents Act 1977, Section 12 of the Registered Designs Act 1949 or Sections 240 – 243 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.
- 11 ENDING THE CONTRACT
 - 11.1 The Contract takes effect on the Start Date and ends on the earlier of the Expiry Date or termination of the Contract, or earlier if required by Law.
 - 11.2 The Buyer can extend the Contract where set out in the Order Form in accordance with the terms in the Order Form.
 - 11.3 Ending the Contract without a reason
 - 11.3.1 The Buyer has the right to terminate the Contract at any time without reason or liability by giving the Supplier not less than 90 days' written notice, and if it's terminated clause 11.6.2 applies.
 - 11.4 When the Buyer can end the Contract
 - 11.4.1 If any of the following events happen, the Buyer has the right to immediately terminate its Contract by issuing a termination notice in writing to the Supplier and the consequences of termination in Clause 11.5.1 shall apply:
 - 11.4.1.1 there's a Supplier Insolvency Event;
 - 11.4.1.2 the Supplier is in Material Breach of the Contract;
 - 11.4.1.3 there's a change of control (within the meaning of section 450 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010) of the Supplier which isn't pre-approved by the Buyer in writing;
 - 11.4.1.4 the Buyer discovers that the Supplier was in one of the situations in 57 (1) or 57(2) of the Regulations at the time the Contract was awarded;

11.4.1.5 the Supplier or its affiliates embarrass or bring the Buyer into disrepute or diminish the public trust in them; or

11.4.1.6 the Supplier fails to comply with its legal obligations in the fields of environmental, social, equality or employment Law when providing the Deliverables.

11.4.2 If any of the events in 73(1) (a) or (b) of the Regulations happen, the Buyer has the right to immediately terminate the Contract and clauses 11.5.1.2 to 11.5.1.7 apply.

11.5 What happens if the Contract ends

11.5.1 Where the Buyer terminates the Contract under clause 10.9, 11.4, 7.8.2, 28.4.2, or Paragraph 8 of Part B Joint Controller Agreement (Optional) of Annex 1 – Processing Personal Data (if used), all of the following apply:

11.5.1.1 the Supplier is responsible for the Buyer's reasonable costs of procuring replacement Deliverables for the rest of the term of the Contract;

11.5.1.2 the Buyer's payment obligations under the terminated Contract stop immediately;

11.5.1.3 accumulated rights of the Parties are not affected;

11.5.1.4 the Supplier must promptly delete or return the Government Data except where required to retain copies by Law;

11.5.1.5 the Supplier must promptly return any of the Buyer's property provided under the Contract;

11.5.1.6 the Supplier must, at no cost to the Buyer, give all reasonable assistance to the Buyer and any incoming supplier and co-operate fully in the handover and re-procurement; and

11.5.1.7 the Supplier must repay to the Buyer all the Charges that it has been paid in advance for Deliverables that it has not provided as at the date of termination or expiry.

11.5.2 The following clauses survive the expiry or termination of the Contract: 1, 4.2.9, 5, 7, 8.4, 10, 11.5, 12, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 32.2.2, 36 and 37 and any clauses which are expressly or by implication intended to continue.

11.6 When the Supplier can end the Contract and what happens when the contract ends (Buyer and Supplier termination)

11.6.1 The Supplier can issue a reminder notice if the Buyer does not pay an undisputed invoice on time. The Supplier can terminate the Contract if the Buyer fails to pay an undisputed invoiced sum due and worth over 10% of the total Contract value or £1,000, whichever is the lower, within 30 days of the date of the reminder notice.

11.6.2 Where the Buyer terminates the Contract in accordance with clause 11.3 or the Supplier terminates the Contract under clause 11.6 or 23.4:

11.6.2.1 the Buyer must promptly pay all outstanding charges incurred by the Supplier;

11.6.2.2 the Buyer must pay the Supplier reasonable committed and unavoidable losses as long as the Supplier provides a fully itemised and costed schedule with evidence - the maximum value of this payment is limited to the total sum payable to the Supplier if the Contract had not been terminated; and 11.6.2.3 clauses 11.5.1.2 to 11.5.1.7 apply.

11.6.3 The Supplier also has the right to terminate the Contract in accordance with Clauses 20.3 and 23.4.

11.7 Partially ending and suspending the Contract

11.7.1 Where the Buyer has the right to terminate the Contract it can terminate or suspend (for any period), all or part of it. If the Buyer suspends the Contract it can provide the Deliverables itself or buy them from a third party.

11.7.2 The Buyer can only partially terminate or suspend the Contract if the remaining parts of it can still be used to effectively deliver the intended purpose.

11.7.3 The Parties must agree (in accordance with clause 25) any necessary variation required by clause 11.7, but the Supplier may not either:

11.7.3.1 reject the variation; or

11.7.3.2 increase the Charges, except where the right to partial termination is under clause 11.3.

11.7.4 The Buyer can still use other rights available, or subsequently available to it if it acts on its rights under clause 11.7.

12 HOW MUCH YOU CAN BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR

12.1 Each Party's total aggregate liability under or in connection with the Contract (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) is no more than 125% of the Charges paid or payable to the Supplier.

12.2 No Party is liable to the other for:

12.2.1 any indirect losses; and/or

12.2.2 loss of profits, turnover, savings, business opportunities or damage to goodwill (in each case whether direct or indirect).

12.3 In spite of clause 12.1, neither Party limits or excludes any of the following:

12.3.1 its liability for death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or that of its employees, agents or Subcontractors;

12.3.2 its liability for bribery or fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation by it or its employees; or 12.3.3 any liability that cannot be excluded or limited by Law.

12.4 In spite of clause 12.1, the Supplier does not limit or exclude its liability for any indemnity given under clauses 8.4, 9.3.2, 10.6, or 32.2.2.

12.5 In spite of clause 12.1, the Buyer does not limit or exclude its liability for any indemnity given under clause 8.5.

- 12.6 Notwithstanding clause 12.1, but subject to clauses 12.1 and 12.3, the Supplier's total aggregate liability under clause 14.7.5 shall not exceed the Data Protection Liability Cap.
- 12.7 Each Party must use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate any loss or damage which it suffers under or in connection with the Contract, including any indemnities.
- 12.8 If more than one Supplier is party to the Contract, each Supplier Party is fully responsible for both their own liabilities and the liabilities of the other Suppliers.

VI. Annex 2 – Specification

1 Background

The Social Mobility Commission (SMC) monitors progress towards improving social mobility in the UK and promotes social mobility in England. It is an independent statutory body created by an Act of Parliament and is sponsored by the Cabinet Office.

In March 2022, the government published the Inclusive Britain policy paper. It set out the government's actions in response to the recommendations made by the Commission on Race and Ethnic Disparities (CRED). The paper highlighted a number of recommendations which overlap with areas of interest for the Social Mobility Commission (SMC), particularly the focus on enhancing social mobility through educational choices.

The SMC has committed to take forward Action 53 of the Inclusive Britain report. It states: “To help disadvantaged students to choose the right courses for them and to boost their employment prospects, the Social Mobility Commission will seek to improve the information available to students about the labour market value of qualifications and, where possible, the impact of those qualifications on social mobility.”

To achieve this, the SMC has been working on multiple projects which can help deliver on Action 53. One of these was to publish a report that summarises the evidence base on the labour market outcomes resulting from studying qualifications in both higher (HE) and further education (FE).

The next step is to develop and publish a set of benchmarks for access to universities. The SMC recently published a blog post outlining a proposed idea for these new sets of university benchmarks. The main driver for this project is the need for a set of university benchmarks which can better capture social mobility. We can potentially achieve this by using a single measure of deprivation that provides a fuller picture of the distribution of access. Using this measure we can look at the rates of students from each background who get into each university. This can then be compared to the overall proportion of students who meet the university entry requirements. By combining these two measures, we could potentially identify if there are subgroups of the student population that have greater chances of access to certain universities compared to other subgroups.

2 Objectives

The aim is to develop a benchmark for every university in the UK.

This would involve:

1. Understanding the proposed idea and developing a methodology. This would also involve identifying the requisite data sources.
2. Testing the idea with experts, and agreeing with the SMC on a final methodology.
3. Accessing the requisite data sources (submitting formal applications for access where necessary).
4. Cleaning and wrangling the data to be fit for analysis.
5. Producing the benchmarks for each university.
6. Sharing the underlying data and charts for each university in an agreed upon format which meets our accessibility guidelines.

3 Approach

The SMC would like to develop the benchmarks using the following approach:

We would like to calculate the benchmark in a similar way as the Gini Coefficient and Lorenz Curve. This would enable us to create a new “Social Mobility Coefficient” and “Access Curve” using data which covers a measure of deprivation - such as the Index of Multiple Deprivation (IMD) - as well as academic qualifications and university entrance.

See figure 1.0 below which contains a mock-up for a hypothetical university to illustrate the approach.

On the X-axis, we have the cumulative percent of 18 year olds by each decile of a deprivation measure (in this case we use the IMD). On the Y-axis, we have the cumulative percent of 18 year olds with the required grades to enter the university. On the lines, each dot represents an IMD decile. The red line represents the cumulative proportion of students in the population. The yellow line represents the situation in which grades are uniformly distributed by IMD decile. The gap between the blue line and the yellow line represents the Gini-coefficient. In theory this will be a number between 0 (total equality in which each IMD decile has the same proportion of students entering) and 1 (total inequality). The gap between the blue and red lines represent the social mobility gap in which students from some IMD deciles are disproportionately less likely to enter the university than others, even once accounting for the grade distribution. This gap is what we refer to as a Social Mobility Coefficient.

Table 1.0: Proportion of 18 year olds in each IMD decile by grades and access to university

IMD Decile	% 18 year olds "Cumulative Population"	% 18 year olds securing required grades	% 18 year olds students at hypothetical university	Equal distribution
0	0%	0%	0%	0%
1	13%	3%	1%	10%
2	25%	7%	4%	20%
3	35%	12%	9%	30%
4	44%	18%	15%	40%
5	53%	26%	21%	50%
6	62%	36%	29%	60%
7	71%	47%	39%	70%
8	80%	61%	52%	80%
9	90%	78%	72%	90%
10	100%	100%	100%	100%

First it is worth noting that the distribution of 18 year olds across IMD deciles may not necessarily be uniform. This means we may not find that 10% of all 18 year olds are in each decile. Instead, there may be a skew where, for example, 13% of all 18 year olds in the country are in the bottom (1st) decile. Table 1.0 shows that the 1st IMD decile (the bottom 10%) represents 13% of all 18 year olds in the country. The 2nd decile, cumulatively represents 25% of all 18 year olds in the country (and thus implies that the 2nd decile itself contains 12% of all 18 year olds).

In figure 1.0, the blue line represents the cumulative proportion of students who are at the university by each IMD decile, which we refer to as the 'Access Curve'. Table 1.0 shows that, for the 1st decile, there are 3% of 18 year olds in the country who have the required grades for this hypothetical university. But only 1% of all 18 year olds with the grades to enter the university actually enter it.

For the second decile, there is a cumulative total of 7% of all 18 year olds with the required grades to enter the university. Of all the 18 year olds who enter the university, 4% are captured in the first 2 deciles. By the 10th decile, 100% of all 18 year olds with the required grades to enter the university and 100% of all 18 year olds who actually enter the university are accounted for.

The Social Mobility Coefficient is unique in that it provides a single summary measure that takes into account the experiences of students in all IMD deciles, and can be used to compare universities with each other, and over time.

Using this approach we would capture a wider picture across the distribution of students, rather than only a single group of students who meet one disadvantage criteria, such as those eligible for free school meals. These measures may be able to show the extent to which unequal admissions at university are a result of prior attainment or factors related to student preferences and admissions processes. This could act as a diagnostic tool to help identify where a university may need to review their entry practices to ensure their entrance and catchment area decisions are focussed across prospective students from all backgrounds. By doing so, universities may be able to improve social mobility.

4 Reporting

Deliverable 1: Short report with a proposed methodology for developing the benchmarks

This will cover:

- Which data sources would be used, how they will be accessed (e.g. explaining if requests for access need to be submitted to the institutions holding the data). For example, will it require access to the Longitudinal Education Outcomes (LEO) dataset?
- A mock up of what the benchmark charts would look like for universities using simulated data.
- An assessment of whether each benchmark would be at the overall university level or at a university and subject combined level, or if it would be possible to develop both. The value of doing it by a combination of university and subject would be that each benchmark would be more targeted and also account for the case in which entry requirements at a university vary by subject.
- A 1 to 2 page document outlining the proposed methodology.
- Testing the methodology with other experts.
- An estimated timeframe for delivery.

Deliverable 2: A cleaned dataset

This will cover:

- The data from which the final charts can be produced, All data will have been processed, wrangled, linked, and ready-to-use. A quality assured dataset with evidence provided of the checks conducted to meet government standards for publication.
- An annotated and commented data cleaning script . This will be clearly annotated with comments to explain each set of the steps used to produce the dataset. This script should be produced in R, and be reproducible. It should be simple enough for any analyst to generate the same final dataset from the raw data.

Deliverable 3: Charts for each university and an overall table

This will cover:

- A chart for each university which meets our accessibility guidelines produced in R which can be published on our website.
- A reproducible R script to generate the benchmark charts. This will be clearly annotated with comments to explain each set of steps used to run the calculations and produce the: Gini coefficients, Lorenz Curves and charts. This script should be simple enough to follow so that a new analyst with access to the cleaned dataset could reproduce each of the Gini coefficients, Lorenz Curves and charts.
- Evidence of robust quality assurance checks to meet the government standards for publication.
- Each chart should be accompanied with one to two paragraphs of narrative which outline what they tell.

Deliverable 4: A lay summary document of the methodology

This will cover:

- The language used should be simple enough for the lay reader to understand.
- The document will explain how the benchmarks can be interpreted and roughly how they were created. It should also highlight the caveats to ensure the content is not interpreted in a misleading manner.
- This document should be short and concise, of no more than a page in length.

Deliverable 5: A technical specification document outlining the methodology in detailed terms

This will cover:

- A detailed technical document which would explain each step required to produce the benchmarks. It should cover sufficient detail to allow an analytical reader to be able to reproduce the same benchmarks if they had the same data and code files.
- The document would specify the variables used from each dataset and the reasons for this.
- It would also outline any assumptions and caveats with the data and methodology.
- It should be written as if it were to be published as a supplementary document on our website and / or gov.uk.

Deliverable 6: A final report

This will:

- Introduce the benchmarks and why they are important
- Contain key findings and charts with narrative
- Be written in simple english and be in the SMC publication style
- Have been quality assured with evidence of checks
- Be of between 20 and 40 pages in length including charts
- Contain a section explaining how to interpret the benchmarks (and the caveats / limitations to them)
- Describes how these benchmarks compare to other headline benchmarks - such as those by the Higher Education Statistical Agency (HESA).
- Be suitable for publication on GOV.UK and thus meet Cabinet Office publication standards in terms of language used, graphics / colour scheme and other formatting.

Reporting requirements

The audience for this research will be UK policy makers, academics, stakeholders addressing poverty, inequality and social mobility issues, and the general public. All outputs should be clearly written, use plain English and be easily understood by people who are not necessarily experts in the area. The successful supplier is responsible for the final outputs. It is expected they will respond constructively to feedback on the drafting of all outputs from the SMC Secretariat and Commissioners; and build time into their work plan for this engagement accordingly. This work will result in material which is to be published on the socialmobility.independent-commission.uk website. The Commission may also choose to produce single-page policy briefs and reports from the main research outputs. Products should be in electronic format, using a style guide as supplied by the Social Mobility Commission, and should include the underlying data for charts, where applicable.
